The Sayings Source Markus Tiwald,2020-03-11
The so called Sayings Source Q contains traditions that can be found in the narrative gospels of Matthew and Luke Situated within both early Judaism and the burgeoning Jesus movement the sayings waver somewhere between the historical Jesus and the Christian communities Following the reconstructed text of the Critical Edition of Q Tiwald brings a new study on the narratology of Q as a coherent attempt to answer the question Who is Jesus

The Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha of the Old Testament in English Robert Henry Charles,1965 Chaos and the Son of Man Andrew Angel,2006-08-27
Andrew Angel briefly reviews the work of Old Testament scholars on the mythological motif of God s battle with the dragon and the chaos waters He also reviews works that touch on the existence of the motif in the period 515 BCE to 200 CE noting the need for thorough survey of the motif in Hebrew literature of this period There follows a study of forty two Jewish and Christian texts in Hebrew Aramaic Greek and Latin which establishes the fact that this mythological motif was well known in this period Angel makes suggestions as to how this might offer fresh insights into the meaning of apocalyptic visions and texts that appear to refer to a son of man figure in this period

The Formation of the Biblical Canon: Volume 2 Lee Martin McDonald,2017-01-26 Lee Martin McDonald provides a magisterial overview of the development of the biblical canon the emergence of the list of individual texts that constitutes the Christian bible In these two volumes in sum more than double the length of his previous works McDonald presents his most in depth overview to date McDonald shows students and researchers how the list of texts that constitute the bible was once far more fluid than it is today and guides readers through the minefield of different texts different versions and the different lists of texts considered canonical that abounded in antiquity Questions of the origin and transmission of texts are introduced as well as consideration of innovations in the presentation of texts collections of documents archaeological finds and Church councils In the first volume McDonald reexamines issues of canon formation once considered settled and sets the range of texts that make up the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament in their broader context Each individual text is discussed as are the cultural political and historical situations surrounding them This second volume considers the New Testament and the range of so called apocryphal gospels that were written in early centuries and used by many Christian groups before the canon was closed Also included are comprehensive appendices which show various canon lists for both Old and New Testaments and for the bible as a whole
