Arab-Iranian Relations Since the Arab Uprisings Mahjoob Zweiri, 2023-09-01 Unlike most writing on Arab Iran relations which looks at specific episodes and specific countries this book taking a long term view assesses the overall dynamics of the relationship discussing in particular how far religion or politics drives the relationship It argues that although Iran asserts that religion is a key factor underpinning a coherent approach to international relations in fact what turns out to be the key factor is the politics of particular circumstances and Iran's specific interests. The book considers Iran's differing reactions to the Arab uprisings of 2011 onwards showing that while Iran supported the uprisings in some countries it sided with repressive governments in other countries. The book also examines Iran's reaction to its own outbreak of popular discontent in 2009 which was controlled by what has been considered as severe repression and explores how Iran is viewed by ordinary people in different Arab countries. Muslims beyond the Arab World Fallou Ngom, 2016-06-01. Muslims beyond the Arab World explores the vibrant tradition of writing African languages using the modified Arabic script Ajami alongside the rise of the Muridiyya Sufi order in Senegal. The book demonstrates how the development of the Ajami literary tradition is entwined with the flourishing of the Muridiyya into one of sub-Saharan Africa's most powerful and dynamic Sufi organizations. It offers a close reading of the rich hagiographic and didactic written, recited and chanted Ajami texts of the Muridiyya, works largely unknown to scholars. The texts describe the life and Sufi odyssey of the order's founder Shaykh Ahmadu Bamba Mbakke (1853-1927), his conflicts with local rulers and Muslim clerics and the French colonial administration and the traditions and teachings he championed that permanently shaped the identity and behaviors of his followers. Fallou Ngom evaluates prevailing representations of the Muridiyya movement and offers alternative perspectives. He demonstrates how the Murids used their written, recited and chanted Ajami materials as an effective mass communication tool in conveying to the masses Bamba's poignant odyssey, doctrine, the virtues he stood for and cultivated among his followers: self-esteem, self-reliance, strong faith, work ethic, pursuit of excellence, determination, nonviolence and optimism in the face of adversity without the knowledge of the French colonial administration and many academics. Muslims beyond the Arab World argues that this is the source of the resilience, appeal and expansion of Muridiyya which has fascinated observers since its inception in 1883.

between Sephardi Ashkenazi Orthodox secular men women Arab Jew most of which in our opinion are progressively decreasing as time passes The Arab Jewish divide is the deepest of all and there is still no solution In spite of its intensity it did not enjoy a centrality whether in public debates or in academia This subject has only come on the agenda after sharp tensions between Arabs and Jews In this book we will explore in more detail some aspects of the Arab Jewish divide which raise fundamental questions regarding the place of the Arabs and Arab language education in the Jewish State More specifically the aim of this book is to describe and analyze language education in the Arab society in Israel from the establishment of the state in 1948 until today For this purpose internal processes which are embedded within the Arab population itself were examined such as the socio economic condition of the population the diglossic situation in the Arabic language and the wide use of Hebrew among Arabic speakers Furthermore the book also deals with external processes such as the policy of control and inspection of the Ministry of Education over the Arab education system in general and on language education in particular the dominance of Hebrew and the definition and perception of Israel as a Jewish State The influence of both internal and external processes on language education and learning achievements will also be extensively discussed A comprehensive examination was made of Arabic Hebrew and English as well as the teaching of French in a number of community schools The target group for this book are people who are concerned with sociolinguistics language education and language policy and planning This book will be also of special interest to Arab language teachers and policy makers in Israel

Unmaking of the Arab Intellectual Zeina Halabi, 2017-05-18 In this book Zeina G Halabi examines the figure of the intellectual as prophet national icon and exile in contemporary Arabic literature and film Staging a comparative dialogue with writers and critics such as Elias Khoury Edward Said Jurji Zaidan and Mahmoud Darwish Halabi focuses on new articulations of loss displacement and memory in works by Rabee Jaber Elia Suleiman Rawi Hage Rashid al Daif and Seba al Herz She argues that the ambivalence and disillusionment with the role of the intellectual in contemporary representations operate as a productive reclaiming of the political in an allegedly apolitical context The Unmaking of the Arab Intellectual offers the critical tools to understand the evolving relations between the intellectual and power and the author and the text in the hitherto uncharted contemporary era
