Petit, 2018-09-06 Museums and the Ancient Middle East is the first book to focus on contemporary exhibit practice in museums that present the ancient Middle East Bringing together the latest thinking from a diverse and international group of leading curators the book presents the views of those working in one particular community of practice the art archaeology and history of the ancient Middle East Drawing upon a remarkable group of case studies from many of the world's leading museums including the British Museum the Louvre the Metropolitan Museum of Art the Ashmolean Museum and the Vorderasiatisches Museum in Berlin this volume describes the tangible actions curators have taken to present a previously unseen side of the Middle East region and its history Highlighting overlaps and distinctions between the practices of national art and university museums around the globe the contributors to the volume are also able to offer a unique insight into the types of challenges and opportunities facing the twenty first century curator Museums and the Ancient Middle East should be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of museums and heritage archaeology the ancient Near East Middle Eastern studies and ancient history The unique insights provided by curators active in the field ensure that the book should also be of great interest to museum practitioners around the globe

Tell el-Yahudiyeh Ware in the Northern Levant Samar Shammas, 2023-10-31 This volume is devoted to the discussion of Tell el Yahudiyeh Ware's repertory unearthed in the Middle Bronze Age sites of the northern Levant These juglets initially emerged in the northern Levant in two separate regions in Syria Palestine These two variants developed in two lines producing the Syro Palestinian and the Levanto Egyptian lines This distinction should be from now on essential in considering Tell el Yahudiyeh Ware A significant focus is given to the collections discovered over the last decades in Damascus Oasis and southern Syria labeled here the Syrian Tell el Yahudiyeh Ware Branch K A large part of this Syrian corpus is introduced here for the first time The evaluation shows that this material comprises more than half of Tell el Yahudiyeh Ware in the northern Levant and was used from the beginning of the 18th to the middle of the 16th century BCE Moreover light is shed onto the archaeological contexts where the vessels originally belonged This approach enhances the perception of this ware's value and position in the material culture in the Middle Bronze Age Levant All things considered this book is a new addition to many decades of research that aims to understand the origin and development of one of the most challenging elements of the Middle Bronze Age pottery tradition

The British and French Mandates in Comparative Perspectives/Les mandats français et anglais dans une perspective comparative Nadine Méouchy, Peter Sluglett, 2004-01-01 This collection represents the first large scale attempt to discuss the Middle Eastern mandates as a totality It compares the application and effects of this very specific form of late colonialism from a variety of different disciplinary perspectives including anthropology architecture archival conservation economics history law and sociology It contains analyses at both micro and macro levels including specific instances of revolt or collaboration studies of particular individuals of professional groups and their contributions to nation building comparisons between the various political and cultural policies of the mandatory powers and the formation and practice of le savoir colonial by contemporary ethnographers officials physicians and teachers The volume will be of interest to historians of imperialism and of the twentieth century Middle East
