and former editor in chief of openDemocracy comes this blazing response to the confrontation between Trumpism and Biden in America that sets out how the future of humankind is at stake On 6 January 2021 Donald Trump tried to seize the US presidency by force His aim to consolidate his nativist rule He was and still is supported by tens of millions of Americans In response Joe Biden s administration promises a massive economic shift while a decisive contest unfolds over voter suppression This contest is of epochal importance As the future of humankind passes through the prism of the most powerful country in the world Barnett reflects on the stark limited spectrum of possible outcomes He shows that the frustration of Trumpism is thanks to the decades long resistance to market fundamentalism But it remains divided and incoherent It is time for the left to embrace an open ecological politics or the world will be subordinated to the regimes of the Iron Men and their successors
