Chinese Marxism in Flux 1978-84 Bill Brugger, 2018-09-18 This book first published in 1985 considers the state of Marxist thought in China at the time a time when the country's leadership appeared more concerned with attaining modernisation and economic development than Marxist theory. It considers the problems that Chinese Marxist intellectuals were facing and relates them to the actions of the political leadership. The Gang of Four, their utopianism and dogmatism had been denounced and this book argues that rather than being in retreat, Chinese Marxism was in fact enjoying a productive period.

A Marxist Mosaic Jairus Banaji, 2024-07-01 Historical materialism as Marx understood this was always an integrated conception or field of research, not one divided into separate disciplines. The essays gathered in this volume are a remarkable example of how this works across a wide range of subjects as diverse as agrarian history, capitalism, Hegel's influence on Marx and class struggles in India. They were written over some fifty years of both activism and academic work, embodying Banaji's lifelong engagement with Marxist theory. His recent papers on merchant capitalism can also be found here along with a biographical sketch that sets all of his work in context.
