Scotland, empire and decolonisation in the twentieth century Bryan Glass, John M. MacKenzie, 2017-03-01 This volume represents one of the first attempts to examine the connection between Scotland and the British empire throughout the entire twentieth century As the century dawned the Scottish economy was still strongly connected with imperial infrastructures like railways engineering construction and shipping and colonial trade and investment By the end of the century however the Scottish economy its politics and its society had been through major upheavals which many connected with decolonisation The end of empire played a defining role in shaping modern day Scotland and the identity of its people Written by scholars of distinction these chapters represent ground breaking research in the field of Scotland's complex and often changing relationship with the British empire in the period The introduction that opens the collection will be viewed for years to come as the single most important historiographical statement on Scotland and empire during the tumultuous years of the twentieth century A final chapter from Stuart Ward and Jimmi stergaard Nielsen covers the 2014 referendum

Recording History Peter

Martland, 2013 In Recording History Peter Martland uses a range of archival sources to trace the genesis and early development of the British record industry from 1888 to 1931 A work of economic and cultural history that draws on a vast range of quantitative data it surveys the commercial and business activities of the British record industry like no other work of recording history has before Martland's study charts the successes and failures of this industry and its impact on domestic entertainment Showcasing its many colorful pioneers from both sides of the Atlantic Recording History is first and foremost an account of The Gramophone Company Ltd a precursor to today's recording giant EMI and then the most important British record company active from the late 19th century until the end of the second decade of the twentieth century Martland's history spans the years from the original inventors through industrial and market formation and final take off including the riveting battle in recording formats Special attention is given to the impact of the First World War and the that followed in its wake Scholars of recording history will find in Martland's study the story of the development of the recording studio of the artists who made the first records from which some like Italian opera tenor Enrico Caruso earned a fortune and the change records wrought in the relationship between performer and audience transforming the reception and appreciation of musical culture Filling a much needed gap in scholarship Recording History documents the beginnings of the end of the contemporary international record industry Victrola and 78 Journal, 1994 The Slide Area Anthony Slide, 1992-12 The Slide Area is a monthly book review column by film historian Anthony Slide which has appeared in Classic Images since January 1989 This anthology collects over 300 reviews published in the column through December 1991 For each book the reviewer provides bibliographic data information as to content and his own inimitable commentary which combines both a thorough knowledge of the subject to hand and an understanding of each title's relative merit Lillian Gish has called Slide Our preeminent historian of the silent film era and the Los Angeles Times has described him as a one man publishing phenomenon This anthology will be useful both to librarians and to researchers in tracking down film and television books of the past three years many of which have not been reviewed in library oriented publications Indexes Record Research, 1989 Index to American Reference Books Annual, 1990-1994 D Aviva Rothschild, 1994-07-15 The annuals to which this is the index are cited in Sheehy and BCL3 This five year index gives access to 8771 reviews of references reviewed in ARBA volumes 16 through 20 American Reference Books Annual ARBA is an essential tool not only for libraries but for reference book publishers as well we at Book News would not be without it and is cited in BCL3 Sheehy and Walford This five year cumulative index provides access by subject title and author to reviews of the 9 284 reference works covered in the last five volumes of ARBA In addition to being used to locate reviews the index also serves as an analytical tool for collection evaluation and development and acquisitions Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians Stanley Sadie, John Tyrrell, 2001 Encyclopedia of Recorded Sound in the United States Guy A.
