Experiments in Modern Living Milton Cameron, 2012-05-01 When a group of brilliant young scientists arrived in Australia's national capital after World War II to take up leading roles in the establishment of national research institutions they commissioned Australia's leading architects to design their private houses The houses that resulted from these unique collaborations rejected previous architectural styles and wholeheartedly embraced modernist ideologies and aesthetics The story of how these progressive clients contributed to the innovative design of their houses brings fresh insights to mid twentieth century Australian domestic architecture and to Canberra's rich cultural history Terms of Appropriation Amanda Reeser Lawrence, Ana Miljački, 2017-12-06 This collection focuses on how architectural material is transformed revised swallowed whole plagiarized or in any other way appropriated It charts new territory within this still unexplored yet highly topical area of study by establishing a shared vocabulary with which to discuss or contest the workings of appropriation as a vital and progressive aspect of architectural discourse Written by a group of rising scholars in the field of architectural history and criticism the chapters cover a range of architectural subjects that are linked in their investigations of how architects engage with their predecessors Global Perspectives on Critical Architecture Gevork Hartoonian, 2016-03-03 Judging from the debates taking place in both education and practice it appears that architecture is deeply in crisis New design and production techniques together with the globalization of capital and even skilled labour have reduced architecture to a commodified object its aesthetic qualities tapping into the current pervasive desire for the spectacular These developments have changed the architect's role in the design and production processes of architecture Moreover critical architectural theories including those of Breton Heidegger and Benjamin which explored the concepts of technology modernism labour and capital and how technology informed the cultural along with later theories from the 1960s which focused more on the architect's theorization of his/her own design strategies seem increasingly irrelevant In an age of digital reproduction and commodification these theoretical approaches need to be reassessed Bringing together essays and interviews from leading scholars such as Kenneth Frampton Peggy Deamer Bernard Tschumi Donald Kunze and Marco Biraghi this volume investigates and critically addresses various dimensions of the present crisis of architecture It poses questions such as Is architecture a conservative cultural product servicing a given producer consumer system Should architecture's affiliative ties with capitalism be subjected to a measure of criticism that can be expanded to the entirety of the cultural realm Is architecture's infusion into the cultural the reason for the visibility of architecture today What room does the city leave for architecture beyond the present delirium of spectacle Should the thematic of various New Left criticisms of capitalism be taken as the premise of architectural criticism Or alternatively putting the notion of criticality aside is it enough to confine criticism to the production of insightful and pleasurable texts

Modern Women: Women Artists at The Museum of Modern Art Alexandra Schwartz, 2010 This text examines the collection of feminist art in the Museum of Modern Art It features essays presenting a range of generational and cultural perspectives The Architect Spiro Kostof, 2000 The Architect traces the role of the profession across the centuries and in different cultures showing the architect both as designer and as mediator between the client and the builder

Architecture of the Early Twenty-first Century: A Global Need for Sustainability Shirley Montgomery, 2013-01-30 This book is about the global need for sustainable building The number of people on earth and their use of the resources of the planet for energy make it necessary to build differently The planet is showing serious signs of stress According to Dr David Grissmer my sister's husband as we all rode together recently through the melting Columbia ice field in Alberta

Canada The consequences of global warming are potentially catastrophic and since the preventative strategies are likely to take decades to work even if the chances are small that humans are the cause we need to begin to address the issue I knew this was a guarded statement from a physicist about what had possibly caused the changed ecosystems in our world
