The British Slave Trade and Public Memory Elizabeth Kowaleski Wallace, 2006-01-11 How does a contemporary society restore to its public memory a momentous event like its own participation in transatlantic slavery What are the stakes of once more restoring the slave trade to public memory What can be learned from this history Elizabeth Kowaleski Wallace explores these questions in her study of depictions and remembrances of British involvement in the slave trade Skillfully incorporating a range of material Wallace discusses and analyzes how museum exhibits novels television shows movies and a play created and produced in Britain from 1990 to 2000 grappled with the subject of slavery Topics discussed include a walking tour in the former slave trading port of Bristol novels by Caryl Phillips and Barry Unsworth a television adaptation of Jane Austen s Mansfield Park and a revival of Aphra Behn s Oroonoko for the Royal Shakespeare Company In each case Wallace reveals how these works and performances illuminate and obscure the history of the slave trade and its legacy While Wallace focuses on Britain her work also speaks to questions of how the United States and other nations remember inglorious chapters from their past

The Complete Concise History of the Slave Trade Olayanju Olajide, 2013-01-23 This book is written mainly from my experience since my arrival in the United Kingdom in the early 1960s I came to the UK before I came in contact with any Afro American or Caribbean In Nigeria I know some people whose parents originally returned to Nigeria from Brazil and Cuba The names of these great people are household names in Nigeria and particularly in Lagos The more I stay in the UK the more I realise that our people from America and Caribbean have very little knowledge of Africa To my greatest surprise some of them think that Africa is a small country I came to the UK before the slave trade became a common topic It is quite clear from my observation that the history of the slave trade is wrongly taught in overseas as far as it concerns Africa Worse still some of our people here think that the whole of Africa was involved in the slave trade This book is to put forward the authentic history of the slave trade Moreover this book will show clearly the areas affected by the slave trade The aim of the writer of this book is to make the history of the slave trade clear and simple to read The idea is to make the book affordable and available as much as possible in order to study the history in Africa and overseas If the history of the slave trade is taught and studied carefully any such mistakes will be avoided in future The Untold Story Of Slavery Toleve

The Suppression of the African Slave Trade to the United States of America: 1638-1870 W.E.B. Du Bois,2018-02-06 This monograph was begun during my residence as Rogers Memorial Fellow at Harvard University and is based mainly upon a study of the sources i e national State and colonial statutes Congressional documents reports of societies personal narratives etc The collection of laws available for this research was I think nearly complete on the other hand facts and statistics bearing on the economic side of the study have been difficult to find and my conclusions are consequently liable to modification from this source The question of the suppression of the slave trade is so intimately connected with the questions as to its rise the system of American slavery and the whole colonial policy of the eighteenth century that it is difficult to isolate it and at the same time to avoid superficiality on the one hand and unscientific narrowness of view on the other While I could not hope entirely to overcome such a difficulty I nevertheless trust that I have succeeded in rendering this monograph

a small contribution to the scientific study of slavery and the American Negro William Edward Burghardt W E B Du Bois 1868 1963 was an American sociologist historian civil rights activist Pan Africanist author writer and editor Born in Great Barrington Massachusetts Du Bois grew up in a relatively tolerant and integrated community After completing graduate work at the University of Berlin and Harvard where he was the first African American to earn a doctorate he became a professor of history sociology and economics at Atlanta University Du Bois was one of the co founders of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in 1909
