Hanson,2016-05-24 Just one gorgeous weekend away from reality Then they can go on like it never happened Riley Fisher doesn t have time to chase after men As a single mother working two jobs she barely has time to eat or sleep But a girl has needs So when handsome veteran Sam Brooks asks her out she decides she deserves some R R She doesn t expect anything else from him after all he s hardly the type to get serious Sam came back from Afghanistan lucky to be alive despite PTSD that hits whenever he lets down his guard His therapist told him to forget about relationships When he meets Riley he s not planning on breaking the

Norman and Race Filmmaking* Barbara Tapa Lupack, 2013-11-08 A history of the early 1900s southern born white filmmaker and the silent films he created for black audiences In the early 1900s so-called race filmmakers set out to produce black-oriented pictures to counteract the racist caricatures that had dominated cinema from its inception Richard E. Norman a southern born white filmmaker was one such pioneer From humble beginnings as a roving home talent filmmaker recreating photoplays that starred local citizens Norman would go on to produce high quality feature length race pictures Together with his better known contemporaries Oscar Micheaux and Noble and George Johnson Richard E. Norman helped to define early race filmmaking Making use of unique archival resources including Norman's personal and professional correspondence detailed distribution records and newly discovered original shooting scripts this book offers a vibrant portrait of race in early cinema Grounded in impressive archival research Barbara Lupack's book offers a long overdue history of Richard E. Norman and the filmmaking company he established early in the twentieth century Lupack's ability to describe Norman's films and the work that went into their production reanimates them for readers and stresses their role in shaping early African American cinematic representation Paula Massood author of Making a Promised Land Harlem in 20th Century Photography and Film Thoroughly researched and crisply written The first book length work on Norman Lupack's monograph clearly delineates the Norman Company's importance Richard E. Norman and Race Filmmaking's most profound contribution lies perhaps in how it illuminates the fraught economics of race filmmaking Journal of American History Lupack's book provides a wealth of archival information about this vibrant moment in film history This is a solid contribution to regional film studies and race film business practice and will appeal to scholars students and film buffs alike Black Camera J.P. Martin with Stella Martin Currey, 2017-09-05 The much-loved Uncle series of children's books were fantastical surreal funny and heartwarming Originally told by Martin to his children they were finally published when he was over eighty years old and the hilarious array of characters including the rich but sometimes foolish elephant Uncle captured the imagination of children across the world Some more well-known fans include Neil Gaiman Garth Nix Kate Summerscale Martin Rowson Will Self and many more Whilst exploring the J.P. Martin archive editor Marcus Gipps stumbled across over fifty pages of unpublished Uncle stories which are just as hilarious and well-crafted as the published work He also discovered a fascinating biography of Martin the missionary turned author by his daughter which explores the unique imagination and experiences that informed this remarkable and inventive genius Both the additional Uncle stories and the biography have never been seen before and Marcus would love to share them with Uncle s legions of fans and also introduce J P Martin and Uncle to new readers
