Presiding Like a Woman Nicola Slee,2010-09-23 What does it mean to preside like a woman at the Eucharist Do women do it differently or should they How do lay women and men experience women s priestly ministry This is an accessible broadly popular book pushing the boundaries in new and unusual ways and making a serious contribution to feminist and liturgical debate The Sunday Assembly Lorraine S. Brugh,Gordon W. Lathrop,2008-12-09 Addresses the general principles that have guided the shaping of Evangelical Lutheran Worship considering that central liturgy of Christian worship Holy Communion This text examines how worship interacts with environment music and the preached word and features useful and practical suggestions for all those who lead the assembly in worship around word and table New Creation Frank C. Senn, Although the twentieth century has witnessed a thorough liturgical revival and renewal the last ten years have exploded in diverse and conflicting styles settings and even media of corporate worship traditional high church liturgies alternative worship for small communities women church services seeker services at megachurches and more Does this innovation portend a brave new liturgical world or is it just dumbing down For example do megachurch services simply revive the old frontier revival and in an effort to reach out accommodate Christianity to the reigning consumer culture One of today s most knowledgeable liturgical theologians and historians contemplates the future shape of liturgy He believes that ritual systems liturgy express and inculcate a worldview an implicit theology and he fears lest the community of faith gain the whole world and lose its soul New Creation proposes the lines of a Christian culture or worldview or way of life that can inform liturgical renewal Twelve erudite and earnest chapters further specify this counter cultural matrix as it pertains to God Christ church creation world worship hospitality culture evangelism prayer and life itself Accompany Them with Singing Thomas G. Long,2009-01-01 Reviews the beliefs customs and rituals associated with Christian funerals discusses the growing acceptance of cremation and memorial services and explains how to plan a spiritually meaningful funeral service

Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process Susan Marie Smith,2011-11-15 Most people even non Christians know that Christians gather for worship once a week and that they are right there to support each other when there is a baptism or a wedding or a funeral But what about other poignant vulnerable or life changing times How does the church help people handle changes that in the past in Christendom were considered secular Does the church have a role at retirement when one s ministry changes or when a family s children leave home and familiar patterns seem to grind to a halt Is there any rite possible for someone who is called to Christian ministry but not to ordination Or to someone whose vows are broken in divorce Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process asserts that baptism marks the beginning of a process of participation in Christ s ministry so that no part of life can finally be considered secular Susan Marie Smith shows how every passage healing and ministry vocation is holy and she lays the groundwork needed for every church to create the rituals necessary to lament and celebrate the endings and beginnings that happen in every Christian life Lay Presidency at the Eucharist? Nicholas Taylor,2009-07-21 Nicholas Taylor provides an Anglican theological approach to the controversial questions surrounding the demand for allowing lay ministers to preside at the Eucharist This is a pressing issue thoroughly reviewed and addressed Embodying Confidence and Grace Callista Isabelle,2019-11-08 Embodying Confidence and Grace by Callista Isabelle will guide those who serve as presiding ministers for the assembly s worship It includes reflection on the essentials of presiding and practical guidance for how to prepare and lead the assembly with confidence and grace Still Hungry at the Feast Samuel Torvend,2019-01-21 In Still Hungry at the Feast Episcopal priest and professor Samuel Torvend invites readers to expand their experience and understanding of the Mass the Holy Eucharist as more than a personal encounter with the risen Christ Drawing on recent Jesus research the long history of eucharistic reflection among Christians and contemporary commitments to economic justice Still Hungry at the Feast invokes the integral relationship between eucharistic practice and eucharistic mission Here the ecumenical pattern and meaning of the Mass opens toward care for our wounded creation solidarity with the poor and outcast keeping the fast and recovering a eucharistic economy Lectionary references will assist those charged with liturgical preparation while preachers and catechists will find guidance in the eucharistic homilies that conclude the book A Priesthood of Both Sexes Ali Green,2011-11-30 Here is a wealth of advice and encouragement for women and men who are called to work together at all levels of Christian leadership Packed with perceptive anecdotes and theological insight this pioneering book shows how a Church that is truly committed to the interests of all people lives out that commitment through the inclusivity of its leadership Participating in Worship Craig Douglas Erickson,1989-01-01 Transcending the common distinctions between high church low church and formal informal this book argues for a balance in the patterns and various levels of worship participation giving all Christians a fresh look at worship as a whole Craig Erickson discusses the elements of participation in detail setting historical and theological insights within a comprehensive theory of liturgical participation He enables students ministers and congregations to understand the historical significance of the elements of worship and offers useful suggestions for strengthening Christian worship Any Body There? Craig Michael Mueller,2017-07-21 Any body there we may wonder as we watch people engage with their smart phones while being oblivious to what is going on around them Anybody there is the question facing the church as it wrestles with declining religious affiliation Craig Mueller considers this contemporary context and offers a response based in an incarnational spirituality accentuating the body and finding expression in corporate multisensory liturgy Mueller creatively weaves together topics from our digital lives with personal and congregational stories and theological liturgical and spiritual reflections Concepts such as virtuality the analog 24 7 connectivity access design and GPS are juxtaposed with themes of embodiment mortality sabbath mystery beauty and vocation Drawing on his experience as a pastor to millennials his studies in liturgical theology and his work on the effects of technology on daily life Mueller proposes that corporate worship is an antidote to the distraction fragmentation and spiritual hunger in society today As humans continue to merge with machines participation in the Sunday liturgy reminds us of what it means to be human a deeper connection to our bodies and the earth and a clear sense of purpose and mission for our everyday lives

Elements of Rite Aidan Kavanagh, 2017-02-28 Keeping in mind two pastoral considerations the liturgy itself and the assembly that worships Father Kavanagh looks not beyond rubrics but deep into their historical and pastoral existence in order to develop rules of style which articulate this existence in current Roman liturgical usage From this research has come a pastoral manual for clergy who preside at liturgical celebrations

Liturgy with a Difference Stephen Burns, Bryan Cones, 2019-05-30 Christian churches in recent decades have taken some steps in their practices of liturgy and worship toward acknowledging the graced dignity of human variety But who is still excluded What pernicious norms still govern below the surface and how might they be revealed How do texts gestures and space abet and enforce such norms How might Christian assemblies gather multiple expressions of human difference to propose through Christian liturgy patterns of graced interaction in the world around them Liturgy with a Difference gathers a broad range of international theologians and scholars to interrogate current practices of liturgy and worship in order to unmask ways in which dehumanizing majoritarianisms and presumed norms of gender culture ethnicity and body among others remain at work in congregations Together the chapters in this collection call for a liturgical practice that recognizes and rehearses the vivid richness of God's image found in the human community and glimpsed if only for a moment in liturgical celebration They point a way beyond mere inclusion toward a generous embrace of the many differences that make up the Christian community With contributions from Rachel Mann Teresa Berger Susannah Cornwall Miguel A DeLa Torre Edward Foley W Scott Haldeman Michael Jagessar Bruce T Morrill Kristine Suna Koro and Frank Senn Foreword by Ann Loades

Holy Conversation Jonathan Linman, 2010-03-15 Linking the themes of spirituality and worship and giving each needed focus in ways that are biblically and theologically rich and consistent with ecumenical traditions this book specifically explores the relationship of sacred reading lectio divina to worship Linman sees this practice as one element in the larger liturgical action of Gathering Word Meal and Sending Our spiritual worship cf Rom 12 1 he argues is the holy conversation between worshipers and the triune God who leads us to greater participation in Christ and to transformation through Christ's presence

The Pastor Gordon W. Lathrop, Renowned liturgical theologian Gordon Lathrop has composed a rich meditative and explicitly ecumenical spirituality for working pastors whatever and wherever they are called preachers priests elders ministers seminarians In Part One Lathrop urges pastors to become lifelong students of the Lord's Prayer the Apostle's Creed and the Commandments continually inhabiting the questions reversals and paradoxes of Christian life In Part Two he elaborates on the pastor's chief activities presiding at the holy table preaching collecting for the poor as the center and focus for pastoral identity and spirituality Lathrop invites pastors to recenter their busy lives on God and fuel their ministry through prayer
