Cancian, 2016-02-04 In 2015 Congress tasked the Department of Defense to commission an independent assessment of U S military strategy and force posture in the Asia Pacific as well as that of U S allies and partners over the next decade This CSIS study fulfills that congressional requirement The authors assess U S progress to date and recommend initiatives necessary to protect U S interests in the Pacific Command area of responsibility through 2025 Four lines of effort are highlighted 1 Washington needs to continue aligning Asia strategy within the U S government and with allies and partners 2 U S leaders should accelerate efforts to strengthen ally and partner capability capacity resilience and interoperability 3 the United States should sustain and expand U S military presence in the Asia Pacific region and 4 the United States should accelerate development of innovative capabilities and concepts for U S forces

Civil-Military Cooperation in Post-Conflict Operations Christopher Ankersen, 2007-09-28 Civil Military Cooperation CIMIC is the relationship between militaries and humanitarians This book demonstrates the wide variety of national approaches to CIMIC activities introducing some theoretical and ethical considerations into a field that has largely been bereft of this type of debate Chinese Strategy and Military Power in 2014 Anthony H. Cordesman, 2014-11-25 This report tracks and analyzes trends in Chinese military strategy force structure and regional activity Open source material is used to detail how each branch of the People s Liberation Army has pursued modernization Chinese perspectives on their military s role and development are featured as well as the views of other relevant regional actors The purpose of this report is to provide the basis for an unclassified dialogue on the military developments in China By presenting data on the regional military balance alongside perspectives on China s military development the Burke Chair hopes that readers can better understand how China s strategic goals military development and regional views interact with each other The Evolving Military Balance in the Korean Peninsula and Northeast Asia Anthony H. Cordesman, Ashley Hess, 2013-07-10 The Evolving Military Balance in the Korean Peninsula and Northeast Asia describes the strategy force deployments and the military balance in potential current and future scenarios involving the Democratic People's Republic of Korea Republic of Korea People's Republic of China Japan and the United States The analysis in these volumes shows how tensions between the Koreas and the potential involvement of the China Japan Russia and the United States create a nearly open ended spectrum of possible conflicts These range from posturing and threats wars of intimidation to a major conventional conflict on the Korean Peninsula to intervention by outside powers like the United States and China to the extreme of nuclear conflict The analysis shows that the Korean balance is sharply affected by the uncertain mix of cooperation and competition between the United States and China The U S rebalancing of its forces to Asia and the steady modernization of Chinese forces in particular the growth of Chinese sea air missile capabilities affect the balance in the Koreas and Northeast Asia They also raise the possibility of far more intense conflicts that could extend far beyond the boundaries of the Koreas U.S. Security Cooperation with Africa Robert J. Griffiths, 2016-04-14 As Africa's strategic importance has increased over the past decade and a half United States security cooperation with the continent has expanded The most visible dimension of this increased engagement was the establishment of the U S Military Command for Africa AFRICOM Some critics are skeptical of AFRICOM's purpose and see the militarization of U S Africa policy while others question its effectiveness Recognizing the link between development and security AFRICOM represents a departure from the traditional organization of military commands because of its holistic approach and the involvement of the Department of State as well as other U S government stakeholders Nevertheless AFRICOM's effort to combine security and development faces formidable conceptual and operational challenges in trying to ensure both American and African security interests The human security perspective's emphasis on issues that go beyond traditional state centered security to include protecting individuals from threats of hunger disease crime environmental degradation and political repression as well as focusing on social and economic justice is an important component of security policy At the same time the threat of violent extremism heavily influences U S security cooperation with Africa In this examination of the context of U S African security relations Robert J Griffiths outlines the nature of the African state traces the contours of African conflict surveys the post independence history of U S involvement on the continent and discusses policy organization and implementation and the impact of U S experiences in Iraq and Afghanistan on the U S Africa security relationship Africa's continuing geostrategic significance the influence of China and other emerging markets in the region and America's other global engagements especially in light of U S fiscal realities demonstrate the complexity of U S African security cooperation 108-1 Hearings: Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, The Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations For 2004, Part 3, 2003, *, 2003 Department of Defense Authorization for Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2014 and the Future Years Defense Program United States.
