Getman, 2018-10-18 International Paper the richest paper company and largest landowner in the United States enjoyed record profits and gave large bonuses to executives in 1987 that same year the company demanded that employees take a substantial paycut sacrifice hundreds of jobs and forego their Christmas holiday At the Adroscoggin Mill in Jay Maine twelve hundred workers responded by going on strike from June 1987 to October 1988 Local union members mobilized an army of volunteers but International Paper brought in permanent replacement workers and the strike was ultimately lost Julius G Getman tells the story of that strike and its implications a story of a community changing under pressure of surprising leaders strategists and orators emerging of lifelong friendships destroyed and new bonds forged At a time when the role of organized labor is in transition Getman suggests this strike has particular significance He documents the early negotiations the battle for public opinion the heroic efforts to maintain solidarity and the local union s sense of betrayal by its national leadership With exceptional richness in perspective Getman includes the memories and informed speculations of union stalwarts managers and workers including those who crossed the picket line and shows the damage years later to the individuals the community and the mill He demonstrates the law s bias the company s undervaluing of employees and the international union s excessive concern with internal politics Living with Purpose in a Polarizing World Albert M. Erisman,Randy Pope,2024-06-04 Western culture is increasingly polarized and Christians often feel they are under siege by the dominant secular culture Compounding the problem is that Christians cannot agree among themselves how to respond to a culture that is increasingly post Christian The authors have observed five basic responses by Christians to this feeling of exile 1 assimilation and acceptance of the new cultural norms 2 withdrawal from cultural engagement 3 anger directed toward society and toward other Christians who don t see the issues as they do 4 fear or 5 seeking power to take back the culture Scripture calls us to a different way speaking into the world with a new voice Micah calls us to seek justice love mercy and walk humbly with God Jeremiah calls us to seek the good of the city and Jesus calls us to be salt and light while knowing that in this world we will have trouble In short we are to engage the culture we live in as disciples of Jesus But how practically is that done In this book the authors look carefully at the lives of twelve biblical characters who also lived in challenging times for guidance in navigating our post Christian world Rejecting assimilation withdrawal anger fear and power seeking we are challenged today with the ancient words of Mordecai to Esther Who knows whether for just a time as this you have come to this position in your life R. Neal, 2013-12-05 There is a growing movement to incorporate faith and spirituality in the workplace to do things better to utilize all the human capabilities of employees and to truly revolutionize the role of business in the world Creating Enlightened Organizations is the first book to provide a truly comprehensive approach to creating an organization designed to unleash full human potential in the workplace. Businesses have learned how to involve employees in problem solving, improve the emotional intelligence of their leaders, reengineer the business processes and create customer delight, but they have left out one essential ingredient that makes all the difference: the human spirit. There is a hunger for meaning and purpose in our workplaces and in our institutions. This book simplifies and organizes the best of what is going on in organizations at the individual, team and systems levels and provides guidance for putting it to practical use. It also offers a radically new view of the purpose of business in society and provides examples of leading edge organizations that make a positive difference in the world. Spirituality is the new competitive edge and enlightened organizations know how to integrate the human spirit and spiritual values into their business practices.

Joy at Work Dennis W. Bakke, 2010-08-03. Imagine a company where people love coming to work and are highly productive on a daily basis. Imagine a company whose top executives in a quest to create the most fun workplace ever obliterate labor management divisions and push decision making responsibility down to the plant floor. Could such a company compete in today's bottom line corporate world? Could it even turn a profit? Well, imagine no more. In Joy at Work, Dennis W. Bakke tells the true story of this extraordinary company and how, as its co-founder and longtime CEO, he challenged the business establishment with revolutionary ideas that could remake America's organizations. It is the story of AES, whose business model and operating ethos let's have fun were conceived during a 90 minute car ride from Annapolis, Maryland to Washington, D.C. In the next two decades, it became a worldwide energy giant with 40,000 employees in 31 countries and revenues of $8.6 billion. It's a remarkable tale told by a remarkable man: Bakke, a farm boy who was shaped by his religious faith, his years at Harvard Business School and his experience working for the Federal Energy Administration. He rejects workplace drudgery as a noxious remnant of the Industrial Revolution. He believes work should be fun, and at AES he set out to prove it could be. Bakke sought not the empty fun of the Friday beer blast, but the joy of a workplace where every person, from custodian to CEO, has the power to use his or her God-given talents free of needless corporate bureaucracy. In Joy at Work, Bakke tells how he helped create a company where every decision made at the top was lamented as a lost chance to delegate responsibility and where all employees were encouraged to take the game-winning shot, even when it wasn't a slam dunk. Perhaps Bakke's most radical stand was his struggle to break the stranglehold of creating shareholder value on the corporate mind set and replace it with more timeless values: integrity, fairness, social responsibility and a sense of fun.
