Structural Adjustment And Rural Labour Markets In Africa:

Structural Adjustment and Rural Labour Markets in Africa Vali Jamal, 1995-01-01 Agricultural Labour Markets and Structural Adjustment in Sub-Saharan Africa Lawrence D. Smith, 1991-01-01 Structural Adjustment and Its Socio-economic Effects in Rural Areas International Labour Organisation. Advisory Committee on Rural Development, 1990 The Global Labour Market Roger Blanpain, Michele Tiraboschi, Pablo Arellano Ortiz, 2008-01-01

As global power relations increasingly favour international capital it becomes crucial for labour and employment lawyers to center their field in a supranational context As long as wages social security and taxes remain national matters states compete at this level in order to attract foreign investment This does not bode well for employees or the self employed Most ameliorative measures come in the form of unenforceable and soft law and guidelines and recommendations The conference recorded in this vitally important book confronts this losing battle of local responses to global challenges The book reprints the papers submitted to that conference by twenty three outstanding scholars from fourteen countries Among the many critical issues they expose and discuss are the following and the proliferation of varieties of non standard employment and protection of migrant workers and rights by regional organizations and global and regional trends in the human resources function and work training and education policy and effectiveness of equality and non discrimination standards and involvement of employees in workplace decisionmaking and and the need for an equitable social safety net In the course of the discussion the authors examine cases from many countries including not only EU Member States both West and East and the U S but also Japan Chile South Africa and Indonesia With a focus on the nexus of multinational enterprises and international standards the book provides both a sharp image of where labour law stands in today's world and revealing serious social problems in a clearer light than is usually encountered and a very valuable guide to directions to pursue and potential solutions offered by some of the most engaged and committed minds in the field It is an indispensable resource for legal workers in this and eye of the storm and of globalization

The Modernization of Labour Law and Industrial Relations in a Comparative Perspective Silvia Spattini, 2009-01-01 Not all labour law and industrial relations scholars agree on the efficacy of the comparative approach that the analysis of measures adopted in other countries can play a constructive role in national and local policy making However the case deserves to be heard and no better such presentation has appeared than this remarkable book the carefully considered work of over 40 well known authorities in the field from a wide variety of countries including Australia France India Israel Peru Poland and South Africa The volume contains papers delivered at a conference sponsored by the Marco Biagi Foundation at the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia in March 2008

Poverty in Developing Countries World Employment Programme, 1992 Topics include agricultural development basic needs development strategy and planning economic development and policy employment food production housing needs income distribution and industrialization Indexes are divided by references authors corporate authors subject and geographical aspects Wages and Employment in Africa Dipak Mazumdar, Ata Mazaheri, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 Analyzing labour market trends in sub Saharan Africa since 1970 this volume employs data collected from the International Labor Organization ILO United Nations Industrial Development Organisation UNIDO and World Bank the RPED surveys It examines the economics of the labour market against the presistent decline in real wages over some 20 years in some of these countries Setting the African story against the background of wage employment trends in other regions of the world the author proceeds to examine the impact of this decline on the rural urban earnings gap The consequences of the declining wage levels on the lifetime earnings of workers and on trends in labour productivity are then discussed followed by an analysis of the employment and wage structure in African manufacturing firms Structural Adjustment and Agriculture Sreenivasan Subramanian, Elisabeth Sadoulet, Alain De Janvry, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1994-01-01 Adjustment, Employment and Labour Market Institutions in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 1990s Willem van der Geest, Ganeshan Wignaraja, 1996 Rural Livelihoods and Diversity in Developing Countries Frank Ellis, 2000-06-29 Rural families in developing countries make a living by engaging in diverse activities These range from farming to rural trade to migration to distant cities and even abroad This book explores the implications of rural livelihood diversity for key topics in development studies and for poverty reduction policies The livelihoods approach is gaining momentum and this is the first book to set it out in detail Labour Market Theory Ben Fine, 2002-09-11 This book is a commanding assessment of labour market theory across the social sciences It provides a radically original critique of labour market theory which draws constructively but critically on existing literature The work contributes to the debates on key issues in labour economics such as unemployment gender equal pay and the minimum theory illustrates the policy implications in empirical studies supplements existing orthodox labour market theory texts Circular Migration in Zimbabwe & Contemporary Sub-Saharan Africa Deborah Helen Potts, 2010 The World Bank insists that the urban share of sub Saharan Africa s population is rapidly increasing this study shows that in many countries this is no longer true as migration strategies have adapted in response to economic and political change Circular migration whereby rural migrants do not remain permanently in town has particular significance in the academic literature on development and urbanization in Africa often having negative connotations in southern Africanist studies due to its links with an iniquitous migrant labour system Literature on other African regions often views circular migration more positively This book reviews the current evidence about circular migration and urbanization in sub Saharan Africa The author challenges the dominant view that rural urban migration continues unabated and shows that circular migration has continued and has adapted with faster out migration in the face of declining urban economic opportunities The empirical core of the book illustrates these trends through a detailed examination of the case of Zimbabwe based on the author s longstanding research on Harare The political and economic changes in Zimbabwe since the 1980s transformed Harare from one of the best African cities to live in over this period to one of the worst Harare citizens livelihoods exemplify in microcosm the central theme of the book the re invention of circulation and rural urban links in response to economic change Deborah Potts is a Senior Lecturer in the Geography Department of King s College London She works in the broad research field of urbanization and migration in sub Saharan Africa particularly southern Africa and has conducted research on these themes in Harare in Zimbabwe since 1985 Southern Africa South Africa Botswana Lesotho Swaziland Namibia and Zimbabwe University of Cape Town Press PB

Adjustment, Employment & Missing Institutions in Africa Willem van der Geest, Rolph van der Hoeven, 1999 This text identifies missing institutions as a major reason for the patchy implementation of structural reform policies in Africa The essays concentrate on Kenya Uganda Zambia Zimbabwe and Malawi where less than ten per cent of the labour force work in the formal sector as compared with some 20 to 40 per cent in the 1960s Making a Living Elizabeth Francis, 2019-05-20 Livelihoods in rural Africa are changing in response to disappearing job prospects falling agricultural output and collapsing infrastructure This book explains why the responses to these challenges are so different in different parts of Africa Making a Living uses case studies from commercial farming regions in Kenya Tanzania and Zimbabwe and from much poorer areas within eastern and southern Africa to give a broad comparative study of rural livelihoods These case studies reveal how household relations poverty and gender all play a part in the changing political economy of rural Africa Rural Development International Labour Office, 1991 Entries in English and various other languages Food Security Policy in Africa Between Disaster Relief and Structural Adjustment Gabriele Geier, 2014-04-08 According to the FAO one person in three in sub Saharan Africa suffers from malnutrition and one in seven is in danger of dying Most African countries no longer seem capable of ensuring that their people have access to sufficient food Given the failure of past efforts the objectives of food security policies and their effectiveness have to be reconsidered This book shows that the debate on food security policies has changed with the passage of time The entitlement debate triggered by A Sen had a major influence on this change but the bearing of socio economic structures on the food security of African households and their individual members are still not fully recognised The State of Food and Agriculture 1998 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1998-01-01 This annual report provides basic information on the global agricultural situation A review of developments in food security opens this year s report with new estimates on the proportion a chapter on rural non farm income a diskette housing time series data for nearly 150 countries country groups regions in English French Spanish Recommended in ALA s Guide to Reference Books Labor markets in an era of adjustment : an overview Susan Horton, 1991 This overview of a symposium on labor markets and adjustment concludes that 1 real wages are more flexible than generally supposed 2 labor reallocations across sectors have been more or less in the desired direction and 3 the role of labor unions generally supposed to be an impediment to adjustment is more subtle than generally supposed Farewell to Farms Deborah Fahy Bryceson, Vali Jamal, 2019-05-23 First published in 1997 this volume asks whether Africa s future is necessarily rooted in peasant agriculture The title of this book Farewell to Farms is deliberately intended to challenge the widely held view that Africa is the world s reserve for peasant farming African rural populations are themselves moving away from a reliance on agriculture De agrarianisation takes the form of urban migration as well as the expansion of non agricultural activities in rural areas providing new income sources occupations and social identities for rural dwellers Using recent continent wide case study evidence the authors assess the impact of de agrarianisation on household welfare business performance and national development Their findings which reveal new economic trajectories and social patterns emerging from a period of accelerated change call into question assumptions about Africa s future place in the world division of labour
