Structural Change in Central and Eastern Europe Georg Fischer,Guy Standing,1993 Structural Change in Central and Eastern Europe Georg Fischer,1993 The Transition in Eastern Europe, Volume 2 Olivier Jean Blanchard,Kenneth A. Froot,Jeffrey D. Sachs,2007-12-01 When communism fell in 1989 the question for most Eastern European countries was not whether to go to a market economy but how to get there Several years later the difficult process of privatization and restructuring continues to concern the countries of the region The Transition in Eastern Europe Volumes 1 and 2 is an analysis of the experiences of various countries making the transition to market economies and examines the most important challenges still in store Volume 1 Country Studies gives an in depth country by country analysis of various reform experiences including historical backgrounds and discussions of policies and results to date The countries analyzed are Poland Czechoslovakia Hungary eastern Germany Slovenia and Russia Written by leading economists some of whom helped shape local and national reforms this volume identifies common progress common difficulties and tentative solutions to the problems of economic transition Volume 2 Restructuring focuses on specific issues of transition including how to design labor market institutions privatization new fiscal structures and bankruptcy laws how to reorganize foreign trade and how to promote foreign direct investment The articles written by experts in the field will be of direct help to those involved in the transition process These volumes provide a standard reference on economic transition in the region for policymakers in Eastern Europe and in western countries for international agencies concerned with the transition process and for anyone interested in learning about the dramatic changes that have recently occurred in Eastern Europe Reform of the Socialist System in Central and Eastern Europe Martin J. Bull,Mike Ingham,2016-07-27 This book analyzes the reform of the socialist system in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union Uniquely it adopts a multi disciplinary perspective which includes authors from both Western Europe and the former Communist world The volume contains analyses of the prospects for civil society economic reform and privatisation theories of economic transition and the role of the state political change and the persistence of former Communist parties the prospects for democracy in the former Soviet Union and gender aspects of labour market reform East-Central European Economies in Transition John P. Hardt,Richard F.

Kaufman,2016-09-16 This volume makes JEC commissioned expert studies of economic developments in East Central Europe available to business people educators and students Coverage includes economic political and social reform issues regional relations and the impact of Western assistance programmes Unemployment, Restructuring, and the Labor Market in Eastern Europe and Russia Simon Commander,Fabrizio Coricelli,1995 World Bank Technical Paper No 263

Management of water resources is essential for long term environmentally sustainable human and economic development Increasingly the World Bank and other international organizations are called upon to provide support in the formulation of water resources strategies This volume serves as a guide for developing countries in creating their strategies by outlining a general process It also suggests ways for countries to build capacity through the process of designing and implementing such strategies The volume is divided into two parts Part I covers the purpose and process of strategy formulation The process consists of a water resource assessment and then the design and choice of options Part II reviews such main concepts as institutional and human resources stakeholder participation information systems economics environment and health and international issues

Global Social Policy Bob Deacon,1997-10-27 This accessible text looks at the impact of the globalization process on social policy National social policy is increasingly determined by global economic competition and international organizations Its substance is becoming more and more transnational and now has to be understood in terms of global social redistribution social regulation social provision and empowerment Global Social Policy examines trends in global inequity and summarizes the diverse experiences of different welfare regimes across the world The authors review the social policies of international organizations such as the World Bank the International Monetary Fund UN Agencies and the European Union and show them to be engaged in heated controversy regarding the future for welfare They argue that this concealed global discourse needs to be brought into an accountable arena

Labour Standards and Structural Adjustment Roger Plant,1994 Since the introduction of structural adjustment policies in the 1980s the ILO has expressed concern that their implementation should be consistent with basic ILO standards particularly certain core human rights conventions

Privatisation and Its Limits in Central and Eastern Europe H. Engerer,2001-06-18 Hella Engerer analyses the emergence evolution and theory of property rights and establishes the limits for privatization of state owned enterprises in the transitional economies of Eastern Europe She counters the assumption that reduction of the state sector helps to create the basis for a private property system showing that privatization actually presupposes a stable framework including property order She makes use of an outstanding methodological approach reaching well beyond the limits of pure economic observation This is a major contribution to the understanding of the emerging economic order of Central and Eastern Europe

Double Shift Bertram Silverman,Robert Vogt,Murray Yanowitch,2016-09-16 Taken from a series of conferences this collection of papers by leading labour experts from the United States and the former Soviet Union examines the profound changes in industrial systems and work organisation currently affecting both societies The authors focus on the emergence of new labour market institutions the evolution of managerial philosophy changes in workers values and attitudes toward economic security economic inequality and the legitimacy of worker participation in management and ownership Comparison reveals both striking differences and similarities in the transformation of the two systems in the post industrial age and helps demystify some simplistic notions about the workings of market systems

Women Workers International Labour Office,1995 Produced from the LABORDOC database lists 953 English language publications technical reports working papers and other documents produced at ILO headquarters or in ILO field offices or prepared in connection with ILO programmes Record of proceedings ,1993 Surviving Post-Socialism Sue Bridger,Frances Pine,2013-01-11 This book focuses on survival strategies developed at local levels in response to changing cultural political and economic structures in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union An interdisciplinary approach is adopted as the contributors engage with questions of gender ethnicity migration nationalism employment and labour patterns and changing family structures

Unemployment and Labour Market Flexibility Loretta De Luca,Michele Bruni,World Employment Programme,1993 Italy's traditionally high unemployment has often been linked to the supposed rigidity of the labour market In fact the situation resembles a leopard skin where competitive dynamic activities coexist with protected inefficient sectors

Inequality, Democracy, and Economic Development Manus I. Midlarsky,1997-12-04 Examines the sources of democracy the relationship between economic development and thresholds of democracy and responses to democratization From Transition to EU Accession Pietro Garibaldi,Mattia Makovec,Gabriella Stoyanova,2001-01-01 This book studies the Bulgarian labor market with a view to understanding the interactions between the performance of the Bulgarian economy and the functioning of its labor market It evaluates the position of Bulgaria vis a vis compliance with the acquis communautaire and provides a set of key policy recommendations that may enhance the job creation potential in years to come Causes of International Migration Bob Vandererf,Liesbeth Heering,1996 Reviews the current state of the art in research on the causes of international migration data availability modeling international migration econ Turkish migration to Western Europe Sub Saharan Africa Migrations in Lithuania Poland the future of East West Migration more No More Heroines? Sue Bridger,Rebecca Kay,Kathryn Pinnick,2005-08-04 With the collapse of Soviet rule and the emergence of independent Russia the image of Russian women in the Western imagination has changed dramatically The robust tractor drivers and athletes have been replaced by glamorous but vulnerable beauty queens or the dishevelled and downcast women trading goods on the streets The authors of this work take a closer look at what lies behind the above images and how Russian women are coping with a very different sort of life The main focus is on the effect of unemployment on Russian women and how they are coping with it Based on case studies and personal interviews carried out in the Moscow region in 1993-94 No More Heroines will provide both specialist and non specialist alike with access to the thinking of women and their organisations in Russia today

Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin,Irina Livezeanu,Christine D. Worobec,June Pachuta Farris,2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites
