Linguistic essays G. H. R. Horsley, 1989-01-01 The Oracles Against Babylon in Jeremiah 50-51 David

James Reimer, 1993 Historically the study of Jeremiah chapters 50-51 has focused on two questions: was this the authentic word of Jeremiah and what was their structure? Given the advances in the understanding of Hebrew poetry, the alleged growth of the biblical text, the language of prophetic speech, and the history of the exile, these chapters are ripe for renewed study. This thesis investigates Jeremiah 50-51 in four parts: poetry and structure, text and tradition, forms and images, and that which is related to anti-Babylonian traditions.

The Qur'an, morality and critical reason

Muhammad Shaohraur, 2009 This book presents the work and ideas of the Syrian writer Muhammad Shahrur to the English speaking world. Shahrur is at the moment the most innovative intellectual thinker in the Arab Middle East. Often described as the a Martin Luther of Islam, a TM, he offers a liberal progressive reading of Islam that aims to counter the influences of religious fundamentalism and radical politics. Shahrur's innovative interpretation of the Qur'an offers groundbreaking new ideas based on his conviction that centuries of historical Islam, including scholarship in the traditional Islamic religious sciences, have obscured or even obliterated the Qur'an's progressive and revolutionary message. That message is one that has endured through each period of human history in which Islam has existed, encouraging Muslims to apply the most contemporary perspective available to interpret the Qur'an's meaning.

Faith and Reason Through Christian History Grant Kaplan, 2022-08-29 It is impossible to understand the history of Christian theology without taking into account the relationship between faith and reason. Many works give an overview of faith and reason or outline key principles, while others put forward a thesis about how one should understand the relationship between faith and reason. In this theological essay, Grant Kaplan revisits the key figures and debates that shape how faith and reason relate. Divided into three parts, Kaplan invites readers into a conversation rather than a drive-by. Readers will encounter the words and arguments of some of Christianity's greatest thinkers, some well-known (Augustine, Aquinas, Newman) and others nearly forgotten. Readings of these figures bring them to life in an accessible manner. In Faith and Reason through Christian History, the roughly fifty figures treated are given
