Valentino, 2000 With Personality Selling you get inside the head of others and recognize the seemingly random and often mysterious aspects of the many personalities we meet every day By being the first book to combine the most powerful psychological models in use today Neuro Linguistic Programming NLP Ericksonian Hypnosis and the Enneagram Personality Typing System with traditional selling techniques it shows you how to apply the golden rule of selling Sell unto others the way they want to be sold to Personality Selling describes NLP personality traits The nine personality types of human nature How the mind makes associations The structure of rapport The power of language The impact of physiology It also examines the basics of selling using a powerful psychological approach to gathering information tailoring presentations handling objections and recognizing the various ways people make decisions And it includes a comprehensive section on the psychology and tactics of negotiation Through extensive use of experiential language and examples readers can experience the impact that different approaches have on others in order to fine tune their own approaches The Structure of Excellence L. Michael Hall, Bobby G. Bodenhamer, 1999-06 This brilliantly conceived book written by two of the leading theorists of NLP explores the ability to shift levels of perception Redefining the importance of submodalities it both updates and extends the traditional NLP model presenting six sub models constructed around the six meta level phenomena believing valuing negating foregrounding understanding and reframing This book causes readers to re examine many of their core beliefs concerning the existing models of NLP and challenges them to update them with fundamentally new thinking Time Line Therapy and the Basis of Personality Tad James, 2017-10-10 Written by Tad James and Wyatt Woodsmall Time Line Therapy and the Basis of Personality is a compelling study of the important elements that make up a person's core personality and a detailed exploration of and introduction to how Time Line therapy works in practice Utilizing discoveries made by Richard Bandler Time Line Therapy and the Basis of Personality expands and updates our knowledge of how people actually store their memories and sheds light on the effect that the system used for memory storage has on the individual The authors contend that the concept of Time Line or the notion of time that you have stored in your mind shapes and structures your experience of the world and consequently shapes your personality Time Line therapy is therefore based on the premise that the client goes back to the first time they remember a particular problem does change work utilizing Neuro Linguistic Programming NLP to eliminate irritating behaviors or issues and if necessary goes to subsequent times when their behavior or response was a problem and undertakes further change work to resolve it Written in an informative and engaging manner Time Line Therapy and the Basis of Personality offers readers the opportunity to see how Time Line therapy works providing a clear description of how to elicit the Time Line and sharing step by step methods to subsequently help the client to release a limiting decision or trauma remove anxiety or set a future goal All of these key aspects are explained using clear language and easy to follow steps and the authors expert commentary is further complemented by examples exercises and transcripts in order to help the reader transfer the theory into effective practice In Section I the authors explain the NLP Communication Model and share their in depth analysis of the filters values beliefs attitudes decisions memories and meta programs which we subconsciously use as we process the world around us and which form the basis of our personalities Section II provides a comprehensive description of the Time Line and how it works laying down a theoretical basis for the technique before offering insight into its practice and application with a demonstrative transcript of Time Line elicitation and change work in order to illustrate the concepts explored In Section III the authors move on to carefully survey simple and complex meta programs and how they can be changed before exploring the formation evolution and changing of values in Section IV which includes a helpful exercise that gives guidance on how to elicit values from the client Exploring many interesting contexts and how personality can be positively changed to help people live happier lives Time Line Therapy and the Basis of Personality is a worthy addition to any therapist s or NLP practitioner s library and is suitable reading for anyone interested in behavioral change Sections include Section I Introduction Section II Time Line Therapy Section III Meta Programs Section IV Values Time Line Therapy and the Basis of Personality was originally published in 1988 by Meta Publications      Sub-Modalities Going Meta L. Michael Hall, 2006-06 Sub Modalities Going Meta is an advanced NLP book that offers a rigorous re modeling to highlight the true nature of the cinematic features in our mental movies that govern our experiences It shows how they operate semantically and how to work with these features in truly magical ways to bring about transformational change NLP trainers who have read this book say it will change the face of NLP and bring about a revolution in NLP technology that will re spark the original passion for modeling the structure of experience and the structure of excellence because of the six new sub models that are in the book that come directly from the re modeling of sub modalities Previous edition was entitled Structure of Excellence      Nlp L. Michael Hall, 1997-07-01 The field of NLP began as an adventure in modeling experts The originators asked How do the experts communicate relate and map the world Then they modeled three therapeutic wizards and the adventure began This book offers the next step in modeling It explores the mechanism of reflexivity and how the logical levels play a role in modeling the structure of experience In this book Dr Hall invites the reader to transcend the primary levels of representational systems and rise up to a Meta level of awareness to map out the higher and more complex frames of mind This book explores the genius of Korzybski Bateson and Dilts on the levels and frames that serve as the foundation of Meta

States and Neuro Semantics      Personality in Speech Tim Polzehl, 2014-09-11 This work combines interdisciplinary knowledge and experience from research fields of psychology linguistics audio processing machine learning and computer science The work systematically explores a novel research topic devoted to automated modeling of personality expression from speech For this aim it introduces a novel personality assessment questionnaire and presents the results of extensive labeling sessions to annotate the speech data with personality assessments It provides estimates of the Big 5 personality traits i e openness conscientiousness extroversion agreeableness and neuroticism Based on a database built on the questionnaire the book presents models to tell apart different personality types or classes from speech automatically
