Structure of Politics Under Aurangzeb, 1658-1707 S. M. Azizuddin Husain, 2002 The Princes of the Mughal Empire, 1504-1719 Munis D. Faruqi, 2012-08-27 For more than 200 years the Mughal emperors ruled supreme in northern India. How was it possible that a Muslim ethnically Turkish Persian speaking dynasty established itself in the Indian subcontinent to become one of the largest and most dynamic empires on earth? In this rigorous new interpretation of the period Munis D. Faruqi explores Mughal state formation through the pivotal role of the Mughal princes. In a challenge to previous scholarship the book suggests that far from undermining the foundations of empire the court intrigues and political backbiting that were features of Mughal political life and that frequently resulted in rebellions and wars of succession actually helped spread, deepen and mobilise Mughal power through an empire wide network of friends and allies. This engaging book which uses a vast archive of European and Persian sources takes the reader from the founding of the empire under Babur to its decline in the 1700s.

The King and the People Abhishek Kaicker, 2020 The King and the People tells the history of a period of imperial collapse through the everyday experience of the Mughal empire's urbanites. This book offers a narrative of the evolving relation between courtly enunciations of sovereignty and the politics of the street. Set in Delhi, the capital of the largest and most sophisticated political formation in India before the British, the book brings together the study of intellectual traditions, power, politics, urban culture and popular violence.

Kruijtzter,2023-11-20 How do people justify what others see as transgression Taking that question to the Persian Muslim and Latin Christian worlds over the period 1200 to 1700 this book shows that people in both these worlds invested considerable energy in worrying debating and writing about proscribed practices It compares how people in the two worlds came to terms with the proscriptions of sodomy idolatry and usury When historians speak of the gap between premodern practice and the legal theory of the time they tend to ignore the myriad of justifications that filled this gap Moreover a focus on justification evens out many of the contrasts that have been alleged to exist between the two worlds or the Muslim and Christian worlds more generally The similarities outweigh the differences in the ways people came to terms with the various rules of divine law The level of flexibility of the theologians and jurists in charge of divine law varied more over time and by topic than between the two worlds Both worlds also saw the development of ever more sophisticated justifications Amid the increasing complexity of justifications a particular kind of reasoning emerged that good outcomes are more important than upholding rules for their own sake World History Encyclopedia [21 volumes] Alfred J. The Islamization of the Law in Pakistan (RLE Politics of Islam) Rubya Mehdi,2013-06-03 This is a detailed critical study of the reforms which have been made in recent years to the law in the State of Pakistan with the ostensible objective of bringing it into accord with the requirements of Islam Special emphasis is given to the period from 1977 when General Zia ul Haque adopted a period of Islamization This is a field of investigation of considerable importance both for the advancement of legal and political theory and for practical purposes especially as regards human rights The author trained both in Pakistan law and the concepts and practice of Islamic law has been able to advance significantly our understanding of the doctrinal developments documented in this book First published in 1994 Slaves and Slave Agency in the Ottoman Empire Stephan Conermann, Gül Şen, 2020-05-11 Slaves and Slave Agency in the Ottoman Empire offers a new contribution to slavery studies relating to the Ottoman Empire Given the fact that the classical binary of slavery and freedom derives from the transatlantic experience this volume presents an alternative approach by examining the strong asymmetric relationships of dependency documented in the Ottoman Empire A closer look at the Ottoman social order discloses manifold and ambiguous conditions involving enslavement practices rather than a single universal pattern The authors examine various forms of enslavement and dependency with a particular focus on agency i e the room for maneuver which the enslaved could secure for themselves or else the available options for action in situations of extreme individual or group dependencies Peasant History of Late Pre-colonial and Colonial India B. B. Chaudhuri, 2008 , Indentured Muslims in the Diaspora Maurits S. Hassankhan, Goolam Vahed, Lomarsh Roopnarine, 2016-11-10 This is the fourth publication originating from the conference Legacy of Slavery and Indentured Labour Past Present and Future which was organised in June 2013 by the Institute of Graduate Studies and Research IGSR Anton de Kom University of Suriname The core of the book is based on a conference panel which focused specifically on the experience of Muslim with indentured migrants and their descendants This is a significant contribution since the focus of most studies on Indian indenture has been almost exclusively on Hindu religion and culture even though an estimated seventeen percent of migrants were Muslims This book thus fills an important gap in the indentured historiography both to understand that past as well as to make sense of the present when Muslim identities are undergoing rapid changes in response to both local and global realities The book includes a chapter on the experiences of Muslim indentured immigrants of Indonesian descent who settled in Suriname The core questions in the study are as follows What role did Islam play in the lives of Indian Muslim migrants in their new settings during indenture and in the post indenture period How did Islam help migrants adapt and acculturate to their new environment What have been the similarities and differences in practices traditions and beliefs between Muslim communities in the different countries and between them and the country of origin How have Islamic practices and Muslim identities transformed over time What role does Islam play in the Muslims lives in these countries in the contemporary period In order to respond to these questions this book examines the historic place of Islam in migrants place of origin and provides a series of case studies that focus on the various countries to which the indentured Indians migrated such as Mauritius South Africa Guyana Trinidad Suriname and Fiji to understand the institutionalisation of Islam in these settings and the actual lived experience of Muslims which is culturally and historically specific bound by the circumstances of individuals location in time and space The chapters in this
