Urbanisation in Developing Countries Bidyut Mohanty, 1993 Selected papers presented at an international seminar organized by the Institute of Social Sciences New Delhi India in co operation with Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Housing India's Urban Poor 1800-1965 Hans Schenk, 2020-05-12 The hinge of this book is 15 August 1947 the day India became independent The new leaders of the nation formulated many goals for India s speedy development Among these was the promise to provide all urban citizens with decent housing and thus to clear all slums This promise structures this book It is divided into two sets of questions The first one refers to the past It was apparently necessary to express concern about the poor housing and sanitary provisions for many citizens before 1947 What was hence the situation of urban living during the approximately 150 years of colonial rule What measures were taken or not taken for improvement The promise to provide decent housing in independent India structures the second part of this book through a second set of questions What were the public actions to bring the promise nearer by What has been realized what faded away finally The analysis ends in the mid 1960s when the role of public actors with regard to housing and the living environment diminished and the idea of self help and just marginal improvements of hut areas gained ground Finally some answers to the question why Indian society has as yet not been able to find adequate answers to the lack of decent housing for a majority of its citizens are formulated The book brings detailed in depth knowledge on urban housing and sanitation on several Indian cities together in a comparative manner and places this local knowledge in a broader context crossing urban borders Please note This title is co published with Manohar Publishers New Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Urban Slums and Dimensions of Poverty Harish Chandra Upreti, 2004 Inequality Among Human Beings Has Been A Universal Phenomenon In Modern Times The Rapid Growth Of Urbanisation And Industrialisation Has Further Widened The Gap Between The Rich And The Poor Poverty Has Forced Poor People To Make Their Abode In Slums And Squatter Settlements Slums Have Become Part And Parcel Of The Urban World This Study Makes A Diagnostic Analysis Of The Plight Of The Urban Poor And Dimensions Of Poverty In Slums And Squatter Settlements The Study Highlights Settlement Patterns Ecological Setting And Environmental Hazards In Slums It Gives A Vivid Account Of Female Headed Households And Position Of Women And Children The Study Also Focuses On Different Dimensions Of Poverty Especially Giving An Interesting Account Of The Culture Of Poverty And Gender Discrimination Scholars Interested In Studying Different Aspects Of Urban Life Will Find This Book Informative And Useful Emerging Social Science Concerns

Surendra K. Gupta, 2004 With reference to India on how social research depicted Social conditions Living on the Margins: Social Access to Shelter in Urban South Asia Navtej K. Purewal, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 The privatization of former social state housing through recent public private partnerships is becoming increasingly prevalent in Third World as well as in Western countries In most Third World countries this shift has had profound effects upon the patterns of access of shelter Drawing on studies of South Asian and other Third World contexts as well as original in depth empirical research from Amritsar a city in North West India this book offers an analysis of the withdrawal of state housing provision It develops and applies a unique model based on social status to analyze the new routes of access to housing and land by the urban poor Its conclusions argue that these new privatization policies largely rely upon already existing informal and self help settlements which continue to attract the poor and to be the largest housing providers in many cities thus providing a ready made safety net for such policies The inter linkages between the private state and the public market make up a highly diversified and complex picture of shelter arrangements being accessed by the poor which is reflected in the social differentiation and increasingly stratified housing market The book argues that these partnership policies therefore have long term implications upon social patterns of inclusion and exclusion which must be addressed infrastructure crossing between visible and invisible domains of urban space in the tanks and buckets of the global South and the vast subterranean technological networks of the global North In this book Matthew Gandy considers the cultural and material significance of water through the experiences of six cities Paris Berlin Lagos Mumbai Los Angeles and London Tracing the evolving relationships among modernity nature and the urban imagination from different vantage points and through different periods Gandy uses water as a lens through which to observe both the ambiguities and the limits of nature as conventionally understood Gandy begins with the Parisian sewers of the nineteenth century captured in the photographs of Nadar and the reconstruction of subterranean Paris He moves on to Weimar era Berlin and its protection of public access to lakes for swimming the culmination of efforts to reconnect the city with nature He considers the threat of malaria in Lagos where changing geopolitical circumstances led to large scale swamp drainage in the 1940s He shows how the dysfunctional water infrastructure of Mumbai offers a vivid expression of persistent social inequality in a postcolonial city He explores the incongruous concrete landscapes of the Los Angeles River Finally Gandy uses the fictional scenario of a partially submerged London as the starting point for an investigation of the actual hydrological threats facing that city Managing Urban Poverty Sabir Ali, 2006 Contributed articles in the Indian context Subaltern Vision Aparajita De, Amrita Ghosh, Ujjwal Jana, 2012-01-17 Ever since the Gramscian notion of the subaltern became the lynch pin of the counter hegemonic project developed by the Subaltern Studies group in the early 1980s attempts to give voice to India's unrepresented or under represented classes have played a Urbanization and Family Change M. fundamental rights Challenges included intense mass poverty and hunger very poor literacy and educational abilities of the population the task of uniting a country with scores of languages and ethnicities ruled by different entities for decades and persistent threats of external aggression to name just a few Over time incomes and opportunities have expanded enormously and India has regained her self confidence as a nation In this second volume Jha examines the performance and prospects for India s agriculture manufacturing and services sectors In addition India s links with the external world through international trade investment migration and remittances are discussed as well as gender issues inter community relations and India s future prospects

Dimensions of Urban Poverty Sabir Ali,2006 In India over 30 per cent of the total population lives below the poverty line Such a high degree of poverty highlights a serious dimension of the country s urban scenario also The insufficient employment opportunities and poor income levels add to the miseries of the urban poor They live in sub standard settlements like slums unauthorized colonies squatters pavements resettlement colonies etc These settlements are considered to be the most filthiest in the world Taking a serious note of the growing urban poverty the Government of India spent hundreds of crores of rupees on implementing various schemes and programmes with no significant result Urban poverty continues to be an area of major concern and unbeatable challenge It was against this backdrop experts working on different aspects of urban poverty were approached to contribute articles expressing their views and giving their first hand experiences The reading of this volume can be immensely useful to professionals government officials activists etc who are involved in poverty alleviation programmes
