The structure of literary understanding Stein Haugom Olsen, 1985      Interpretive Conventions Steven Mailloux, 1982 In Interpretive Conventions Steven Mailloux examines five influential theories of the reading process those of Stanley Fish Jonathan Culler Wolfgang Iser Norman Holland and David Bleich      Proceedings of the 7th Annual International Seminar on Transformative Education and Educational Leadership, AISTEEL 2022, 20 September 2022, Medan, North Sumatera Province, Indonesia Bornok Sinaga, Rahmad Husein, Juniastel Rajagukguk, 2022-12-06 tenuous link between literature and truth or literature and virtue or literature and the sacred this book analyses the non derivative sui generis value characteristic of literature and demonstrates why that matters as an end in itself Word of the Law D.R. Klinck,1992-05-15

Appropriating Shakespeare Brian Vickers,1994-01-01 During the last two decades new critical schools of Shakespeare scholarship have emerged each with its own ideology each convinced that all other approaches are deficient This controversial book argues that in attempting to appropriate Shakespeare for their own purposes these schools omit and misrepresent Shakespeare's text and thus distort it Brian Vickers describes the iconoclastic attitudes emerging in French criticism of the 1960s that continue to influence literary theory that language cannot reliably represent reality that literature cannot represent life that since no definitive reading is possible all interpretation is misinterpretation Vickers shows that these positions have been refuted and he brings together work in philosophy linguistics and literary theory to rehabilitate language and literature He then surveys the main conflicting schools in Shakespearean and other current literary criticism deconstructionism feminism new historicism cultural materialism and psychoanalytic Marxist and Christian interpretations describing the theoretical basis of each school both in its own words and in those of its critics Evaluating the resulting interpretations of Shakespeare he shows that each is biased and fragmentary in its own way The epilogue considers two related issues the attempt of current literary theory to present itself as a coherent system while at the same time wishing to evade accountability and the way in which different schools demonize their rivals thus adding an intolerant tone to much recent criticism

Aesthetic Expertise Ole Martin Skilleås,2024-10-02 In this first ever book length study of aesthetic expertise Ole Martin Skilleås outlines the nature and purpose of aesthetic expertise with particular emphasis on the direction of attention and examines how aesthetic expertise manifests across diverse roles within aesthetic practices He discusses the foundations of aesthetic trust via the concept of calibration thereby developing an outline of social aesthetics using the concept of embedded expertise Skilleås distinguishes between practitioners those who create and perform aesthetically engaging works and advisors who educate enlighten and make recommendations Considering the latter roles Aesthetic Expertise An Exploration and Defense argues that aesthetics ought to move away from a paradigm centered on critics and reviewers and the idea of a standard of taste and over to an approach anchored in instruction and the triangulation between instructor artwork and learner This educational interaction is pivotal since not only does it foster a shared language but it tightly links critical reasoning with aesthetic appreciation guided by perceptual guidance and training In doing so it clarifies how meaningful consensus and dissent in aesthetic discourse are possible underpinning our discussions and critiques of artistic works and their interpretations

Fictional Points of View Peter Lamarque,1996 The volume focuses on a wide range of thinkers including Iris Murdoch on truth and art Stanley Cavell on tragedy Roland Barthes and Michel Foucault on the death of the author and Kendall Walton on fearing fictions Also included is a consideration of the fifteenth century Japanese playwright and drama teacher Zeami Motokiyo the founding father of Noh theater Dictionary of the Old Testament: Pentateuch T. Desmond Alexander, David W. Baker, 2002-12-13 Exploring the major themes and issues of the Pentateuch this encyclopedic work offers authoritative overviews detailed examinations and new insights from the world of the ancient Near East Edited by T Desmond Alexander and David W Baker     Johnson, Rasselas, and the Choice of Criticism Edward Tomarken, 2014-07-15 Although Rasselas has received more critical commentary than almost any other work by Samuel Johnson Edward Tomarken's book is the first full length study to focus on his tale of the Prince of Abyssinia This anomaly arises as Tomarken shows because Rasselas has remained resistant to the customary critical approaches of the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries consistently eliciting new kinds of insights and raising new sorts of problems Tomarken's contribution is a new methodology to explain this phenomenon He sees Johnson's early writings London and Irene as instances of the writer trying with only partial success to achieve what he first realized in The Vanity of Human Wishes a means of permitting literary form to refer to conduct Later works such as The Journey to the Western Islands of Scotland are viewed as further developments of this method which achieved its fullest expression in Rasselas and the Life of Pope Such a reading of Johnson develops an aesthetic that operates on the margins between the literary and the extra literary Although Johnson's own critical view was unable to accommodate such a position Tomarken shows that in practice he moved toward it by a process of trial and error manifest in his poetry and narratives When raised to the level of critical method this approach goes beyond the assumptions not only of Johnson's day but also of our own Tomarken's theoretical coda demonstrates how the choices of current critical theory like those in the marriage debate in Rasselas can be understood to interact with one another Specifically he proposes a dialectical relationship for two approaches hermeneutics and structuralism usually seen as opposed to one another This innovative study will interest not only Johnson scholars but all those concerned with critical theory     Signs of Humanity / L'homme et ses signes Gérard Deledalle, Michel Balat, Janice Deledalle-Rhodes, 2019-05-20 No detailed description available for Signs of Humanity L homme et ses signes     The Philosophy of Literature Peter Lamarque, 2008-08-11 By exploring central issues in the philosophy of literature illustrated by a wide range of novels poems and plays Philosophy of Literature gets to the heart of why literature matters to us and sheds new light on the nature and interpretation of literary works Provides a comprehensive study along with original insights into the philosophy of literature Develops a unique point of view from one of the field's leading exponents Offers examples of key issues using excerpts from well known novels poems and plays from different historical periods     Varieties of Understanding Stephen Robert Grimm, 2019 What does it mean to understand something What is the essence of understanding when compared across multiple domains Varieties of Understanding offers new and original work on the nature of understanding raising questions about what understanding looks like from different perspectives and exploring how ordinary people use the notion of understanding According to a long historical tradition understanding comes in different varieties In particular it is said that understanding people has a different epistemic profile than understanding the natural world that it calls on different cognitive resources and brings to bear distinctive normative considerations Thus in order to understand people we might need to appreciate or in some way sympathetically reconstruct the reasons that led a person to act in a certain way By comparison when it comes to understanding natural events like earthquakes or eclipses no appreciation of reasons or acts of sympathetic reconstruction is arguably needed mainly because there are no reasons on the scene to even be appreciated and no perspectives to be sympathetically pieced together This volume brings together some of the world's leading philosophers psychologists and theologians in order to shed light on the various ways in which we understand the world pushing debates on this issue to new levels of sophistication and insight Reconstructing

Criticism Philip Smallwood, 2003 This study aims to bring the modern theory of literary criticism and Pope's Essay on Criticism of 1711 into a more productive and interesting association than critical historical structures have generally allowed Smallwood marks out in current terms and in depth the specialized theoretical and aesthetic problem of defining criticism He recognizes that criticism no more than literature or art cannot be finally codified or defined but insists on the need for clarity in the exposition of criticism's purposes and a fuller consciousness of a common community of practice available to audiences outside the academic fold Affirming the unfailing currency and utility of the term criticism as new languages have taken over the critical domain or have sought to replace or abolish literature Smallwood distinguishes between the normative definitions that are everywhere apparent in modern theory of criticism and the advantages to conceptual comprehension achieved by Pope's poetic idea of criticism in the Essay Preparing Evangelistic Sermons Ramesh Richard, 2015-08-11

Hagberg, 2023 Garry Hagberg investigates the role that literature plays in the constitution of a human being and the connection between the language we see at work in imaginative fiction and the language we develop to describe ourselves He asks whether self-descriptive or autobiographical language itself plays an active role in shaping our identities UPHESC Assistant Professor English Literature Code-10

an essay on the current state of research and a discussion of the future of Markan study it provides a chrestomathy of samples of Markan research together with a review of recent dissertations and a full annotated bibliography Metafiction Patricia Waugh, 2002-09-11 Metafiction begins by surveying the state of contemporary fiction in Britain and America and explores the complex political social and economic factors which influence critical judgment of fiction The author shows how as the novel has been eclipsed by the mass media novelists have sought to retain and regain a wide readership by drawing on the themes and preoccupations of these forms Making use of contemporary fiction by such writers as Fowles Borges Spark Barthelme Brautigan Vonnegut and Barth and drawing on Russian Formalist theories of literary evolution the book argues that metafiction uses parody along with popular genres and non literary forms as a way not only of exposing the inadequate and obsolescent conventions of the classic novel but of suggesting the lines along which fiction might develop in the future
