The Man Who Was There Wright Morris, 2022-08-05 When it first appeared in 1945 this novel disconcerted a good many critics Agee Ward the man who was there of the title ostensibly is the man who is not there a member of the armed forces in World War II he has been reported missing in action Yet as we are shown various views of Agee and how he continues to affect the lives of others among them Grandma Herkimer and Private Reagan who knew him in boyhood Peter Spavic and Mrs Krickbaum who refuse to believe that he is missing Miss Gussie Newcomb his landlady and to her surprise his heir we come to perceive what Agee had in mind when he said that anything really alive just went on and on Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition Light Writing & Life Writing Timothy Dow Adams,2000 On the surface the use of photography in autobiography appears to have a straightforward purpose to illustrate and corroborate the text But in the wake of poststructuralism the role of photography in autobiography is far from simple or one dimensional War Games Wright Morris,2022-07-15 Written twenty years before it was first published in 1972 War Games features both black and charcoal gray humor whose characters and events are as unpredictable as they are absorbing a book in the author s words where the extremity of the bizarre is seen as the ultimate effort to change oneself if not the world At the center of the novel is the developing relationship between the protagonist a fifty three year old army colonel and a Viennese immigrant whom he first knows as Mrs Tabori and whose story he has learned through a dying amputee Human Kopfman Themes and characters that first appear in War Games reappear in The Field of Vision and Ceremony in Lone Tree In the preface to this edition Wright Morris describes the genesis of the book in 1951 and comments on its connections with his late work War Games may well prove to be the seedbed of much more in my fiction than I am aware since it was the first turning of earth more than twenty years buried My novels are linked in this manner but sometimes at odds with the chronology of publication In the absence of War Games many clues to the fiction that followed were missing This novel seems to me darkly somber a book of interiors dimly lighted streets hallways and lobbies with glimpses of objects and colors that emerge in subdued lighting I d like to think that my readers both new and old will find the world of the Colonel and Mrs Tabori relevant to the one in which they are living Walker Evans Svetlana Alpers,2023-11-07 A magisterial study of celebrated photographer Walker Evans Walker Evans 1903 75 was a great American artist photographing people and places in the United States in unforgettable ways He is known for his work for the Farm Security Administration addressing the Great Depression but what he actually saw was the diversity of people and the damage of the long Civil War In Walker Evans renowned art historian Svetlana Alpers explores how Evans made his distinctive photographs Delving into a lavish selection of Evans s work Alpers uncovers rich parallels between his creative approach and those of numerous literary and cultural figures locating Evans within the wide context of a truly international circle Alpers demonstrates that Evans s practice relied on his camera choices and willingness to edit multiple versions of a shot as well as his keen eye and his distant straight on view of visual objects Illustrating the vital role of Evans s dual love of text and images Alpers places his writings in conversation with his photographs She brings his techniques into dialogue with the work of a global cast of important artists from Flaubert and Baudelaire to Elizabeth Bishop and William Faulkner underscoring how Evans s travels abroad in such places as France and Cuba along with his expansive literary and artistic tastes informed his quintessentially American photographic style A magisterial account of a great twentieth century artist Walker Evans urges us to look anew at the act of seeing the world to reconsider how Evans saw his subjects how he saw his photographs and how we can see his images as if for the first time Conversations with Wright Morris Robert E.

Knoll,1977-01-01 This book is an attempt to approach the work of a leading American novelist from both sides of the looking glass from the opposite but not necessarily opposing points of view of the writer creator and the reader critic In 1975 while the author was visiting professor of English at the University of Nebraska Lincoln several scholar critics among them John W Aldridge Wayne C Booth and David Madden were invited to speak about his craft and artistic aims and principles and to record conversations with him about issues growing from their addresses Since Morris is also an important photographer facets of his achievement in this field were considered by Peter C Bunnell In addition to four conversations three lectures and a portfolio of twelve photographs this volume includes an essay by Wright Morris and a bibliography compiled by Robert L Boyce

Context Michael A. Lofaro,2023-01-17 It s difficult to overestimate the impact of the many new works by James Agee uncovered and published in the last twenty years These previously unknown primary works have in turn encouraged a parallel explosion of critical evaluation and reevaluation by scholars to which James Agee in Context is the latest contribution This superb collection from well known James Agee scholars features myriad approaches and contexts for understanding the author s fiction poetry journalism and screenwriting The essays bring the reader from the streets of James Agee s New York to travel with the author from Alabama to Hollywood to Havana Contributors explore overlapping and sometimes unique subjects themes and accomplishments or lack thereof in Agee s uncovered works and highlight the diversity of interest that Agee s complete body of work inspires The insightful scholarship on influence examines connections between Agee and

Wright Morris Helen Levitt John Dos Passos Ernest Hemingway and Stephen Crane Such juxtapositions serve to illustrate how Agee drew on literary influences as a young man how he used his work as a journalist to craft fiction as he was about to turn thirty and his influence upon others The volume concludes with three poems and a short story by Agee all previously unknown It seems astonishing that so much remains to be discovered about this protean author his materials and his circle Yet the recovery and analysis of neglected texts and information mined from newspapers and magazines proves the extent to which Agee kept his mind and his work as he himself put it patiently concentrated upon the essential quietudes of the human soul

Love Among the Cannibals Wright Morris, 2018-06 Speaking of this 1957 novel the author has said it ended his obsession with the reconstruction of the immediate past and moved him into the contemporary scene The narrator Earl Horter is a lyric writer who is in Hollywood with Mac his partner to write a musical With two girls they have picked up and gone to Acapulco

Cause for Wonder Wright Morris, 2017-04 One of the most distinguished American authors Wright Morris 1910-1988 wrote thirty three books including The Field of Vision which won the National Book Award

The Publishers Weekly, 1972 Prairie Schooner Lowry Charles Wimberly, 1977 Twentieth Century American Literature Warren French, 1980-11-01 Matrix Berkeley, 1978-1998, 1998 American Short-story Writers Since World War II.
