al-Jahiz Thomas Hefter, 2014-05-16 Explores the intricately crafted rhetorical strategies used by al Jahiz in his letters The 9th century essayist theologian and encyclopedist Amr b Bahr al Jahiz has long been acknowledged as a master of early Arabic prose writing Many of his most engaging writings were clearly intended for a broad readership but were presented as letters to individuals Despite the importance and quantity of these letters surprisingly little academic notice has been paid to them Now Thomas Hefter takes a new approach in interpreting some of al Jahiz s epistolary monographs By focusing on the varying ways in which he wrote to the addressee Hefter shows how al Jahiz shaped his conversations on the page in order to guide or manipulate his actual readers and encourage them to engage with his complex materials The Oxford Encyclopedia of Philosophy, Science, and Technology in Islam Salim Ayduz, 2014 The main reference source for questions of Islamic philosophy science and technology amongst Western engaged readers and academics in general and legal researchers in particular Self and Secrecy in Early Islam Ruqayya Yasmine Khan, 2008 An original inquiry into the meanings of concealment and revelation in early Arabo Islamic texts In this comparative analysis of the significance of keeping and revealing secrets in early Islamic culture Ruqayya Yasmine Khan draws from a broad range of Arabo Islamic texts to map interconnections between concepts of secrecy and identity In early Islamic discourse Khan maintains individual identity is integrally linked to a psychology of secrecy and revelation a connection of even greater importance than what is being concealed or displayed Khan further maintains that secrecy and identity demarcate boundaries for interpersonal relations when governed by the cultural norms of discretion espoused in these texts As evidence for her study Khan explores religious and literary representations of secrecy in classical texts as diverse as the Qur an the Book of Concealing the Secret and Holding the Tongue by al Jahiz and courtly love poems including the story of Majnun and Layla These works represent divergent approaches to spiritual ethical and romantic life in early Islam yet Khan extrapolates from each a shared construction of secrecy and revelation In advancing our understanding of the dynamic tensions between secrecy and revelation as depicted in these early Arabo Islamic discourses Khan illustrates that the creation of individual identity and subjectivity was inherently tied to these same tensions The resulting analysis opens new vistas for understanding the meanings of secrecy in Islamic studies Qur anic studies Islamic philosophy and mysticism Arabic literary studies as well as European intellectual history Ibn Abi Tahir Tayfur and Arabic Writerly Culture Shawkat M. Toorawa, 2004-08-02 Toorawa re evaluates the literary history and landscape of third to ninth century Baghdad by demonstrating and emphasizing the significance of the important transition from a predominantly oral aural culture to an increasingly literate one This transformation had a profound influence on the production of learned and literary culture modes of transmission of learning nature and types of literary production nature of scholarly and professional occupations and alliances and ranges of meanings of certain key concepts such as plagiarism In order to better understand these attention is focused on a central but understudied figure Ibn Abi Tahir Tayfur d 280 to 893 a writer schoolmaster scholar and copyist member of important

Stefan Sperl,1996 al-Arabiyya ,1989 The Arabic Literary Heritage Roger Allen,2005-10-17 Roger Allen here offers an account of the cultural tradition of literary texts in Arabic from their unknown beginnings in the fifth century AD to the present day Allen s organising principle is not that of traditional literary histories but is rather based on an account of the major genres of Arabic literature After introductory chapters on principles and contexts there are chapters devoted to the Qur an as literature poetry belletristic prose drama and criticism Within each chapter the emphasis is on the texts themselves and those who created and commented on them but Allen also demonstrates his awareness of recent Western theoretical and critical approaches The volume as a whole which contains extensive quotations in English translation a chronology and a guide to further reading makes a major non Western literary tradition newly accessible to students and scholars of the West Qasida poetry in Islamic Asia and Africa Stefan Sperl,C.
