Sparta and the Commemoration of War Matthew A. Sears,2023-12-21 The tough Spartan soldier is one of the most enduring images from antiquity Yet Spartans too fell in battle so how did ancient Sparta memorialise its wars and war dead From the poet Tyrtaeus inspiring soldiers with rousing verse in the seventh century BCE to inscriptions celebrating the 300's last stand at Thermopylae and from Spartan imperialists posing as liberators during the Peloponnesian War to the modern reception of the Spartan as a brave warrior defending the West Sparta has had an outsized role in how warfare is framed and remembered This image has also been distorted by the Spartans themselves and their later interpreters While debates continue to rage about the appropriateness of monuments to supposed war heroes in our civic squares this authoritative and engaging book suggests that how the Spartans commemorated their military past and how this shaped their military future has perhaps never been more pertinent

Memorials in the Aftermath of Armed Conflict Marie Louise Stig Sørensen,Dacia Viejo-Rose,Paola Filippucci,2019-12-13

Through case studies from Europe and Russia this volume analyses memorials as a means for the present to make claims on the past in the aftermath of armed conflict The central contention is that memorials are not backward looking inert reminders of past events but instead active triggers of personal and shared emotion that are inescapably political bound up with how societies reconstruct their present and future as they negotiate their way out of and sometimes back into conflict A central aim of the book is to highlight and illustrate the cultural and ethical complexity of memorials as focal points for a tension between the notion of memory as truth and the practice of memory as negotiable By adopting a relatively bounded temporal and spatial scope the volume seeks to move beyond the established focus on national traditions to reveal cultural commonalities and shared influences in the memorial forms and practices of individual regions and of particular conflicts
