Polish and Irish Struggles for Self-Determination Galia Chimiak, Bożena Cierlik, 2020-02-26 This book discusses little known linkages between two seemingly distant peoples the Polish and the Irish whose historical experiences share important similarities Both Ireland and Poland have been subject to foreign rule which they overturned in 1916 and 1918 respectively Their predominantly Catholic societies were among the first to grant voting rights to women a century ago This volume uses the centenary of both Ireland and Poland re gaining national independence and the political empowerment of women in these countries as a point of departure to analyse selected aspects of Polish and Irish people s struggle for autonomy Cases of mutual assistance including the awareness raising campaigns organized by Western women in support of the independence and suffragist movements in Poland are presented along with examples of grassroots self organization foreign press coverage and military and diplomatic efforts to empower the Poles and the Irish

Poland in the Irish Nationalist Imagination, 1772-1922 Róisín Healy, 2017-02-15 This book explores the assertions made by Irish nationalists of a parallel between Ireland under British rule and Poland under Russian Prussian and Austrian rule in the long nineteenth century Poland loomed large in the Irish nationalist imagination despite the low level of direct contact between Ireland and Poland up to the twenty first century Irish men and women took a keen interest in Poland and many believed that its experience mirrored that of Ireland This view rested primarily on a historical coincidence the loss of sovereignty suffered by Poland in the final partition of 1795 and by Ireland in the Act of Union of 1801 following unsuccessful rebellions It also drew on a common commitment to Catholicism and a shared experience of religious persecution This study shows how this parallel proved politically significant allowing Irish nationalists to challenge the legitimacy of British rule in Ireland by arguing that British governments were hypocritical to condemn in Poland what they themselves practised in Ireland
