(1789-1975),1979     Theology and Social Issues in Africa Francis Anekwe Oborji,2020-11-22 The Volume speaks to us from the heart and engages the socio political concerns in the Nigerian context through the lens of a theological approach The author reflects historically the numerous consequences of the amalgamation of the ethnic groups of different orientations in Nigeria into one socio political structure of the colonizers interests This sociopolitical structure raises several questions than answers it pretends to offer the indigenous people From a Nigerian point of view the articles in this volume critically challenge the unjust formation of any nationhood in the Africa context It points out how the sustenance of an unjust nation formation betrays the creed on which such a nation is established Truth conquers all is the spirit with which this Volume is written It is the truth that will set a nation like Nigeria free from the spirit of confusion and unperceived religio socio political syncretism The awareness emanating from this volume suggests liberating steps from the unsuspecting colonial interests and the sustained feigned relationship with the colonizers which militate against the socio political and economic growth and theological orthodoxy of such a growing nation     Humans: The 300,000-Year Struggle for Equality ALVIN

FINKEL,2024-09-13 This is a history of humanity like it s never been told before Historian Alvin Finkel builds on the work of archaeologists anthropologists and historians to present the very long view of the history of the human species His focus is not on the leaders whose exploits are recounted in traditional histories but rather on the experiences of ordinary people the 99% whose experiences and activities are often overlooked In the extensive research of many contemporary scholars Alvin Finkel notes a common thread which most historians have ignored the constant efforts of ordinary people throughout history to create and sustain societies based on equality of all individuals Contrary to traditional historical writing he finds that the earliest human communities usually treated all individuals as equals In the histories of societies all around the world he records how individuals who found ways to gain wealth and power have faced constant often successful resistance from the rest From the first recorded communities in Mesopotamia to the COVID 19 pandemic this book features the resistances uprisings struggles and solidarities of the majority against those seeking to dominate The result is a fresh and challenging interpretation of the history of our species one that casts a new light on the true nature of humans     The African Liberation

Struggle Godfrey Mwakikagile,2018-05-06 This work focuses on the liberation struggle from the 1960s to the 1990s in the countries of southern Africa to end white minority rule The author writes from personal experience When the Organisation of African Unity OAU was formed in Addis Ababa Ethiopia in May 1963 Tanganyika now Tanzania was chosen to be the headquarters of the OAU Liberation Committee All the African liberation movements went on to open their offices in Tanzania s capital Dar es Salaam Many refugees fleeing oppression in the countries of southern Africa also went to live in Tanzania The author was a young news reporter in Dar es Salaam in the early seventies and got the chance to know some of the freedom fighters and their leaders who were based there during those days He also interviewed a number of them and has provided an additional perspective to his work as a primary source of some of the material included in his book It was one of the most important periods in the history of post colonial Africa Most countries on the continent had won independence by 1968 The toughest struggle was in the few strongholds of white minority rule in the southern part of the continent and in the Portuguese colony of Guinea Bissau Cape Verde in West Africa which finally ended in victory As President Nyerere once said Throughout history nationalist struggles have had one end victory

Introduction to Gender Studies in Eastern and Southern Africa James Etim, 2016-07-28 Africa has witnessed massive changes in the last fifty years from independence through structural adjustment rule by military juntas in several countries and to a period now where the focus is on how best to prioritize their needs based on resources national goals and human potential There is general agreement that human capital is important in economic growth and development There is always the need to ensure that resources and human capital are used appropriately to advance development Gender disparities whether in treatment access to resources resource utilization and the law may in themselves retard or slow down development Resources and human potential in all societies include how best to ensure there is no gender disparity and to fully tap the resources inherent in women for personal social and national development Beginning with the women's suffrage movement there has been the push to encourage gender equality worldwide The Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing in 1995 embodies the commitment of the international community to implement policies that will enhance the political social economic educational empowerment of women This book highlights the issues affecting women in Eastern and Southern Africa what role does custom and patriarchy play in gender disparities in education access to health problems in the workplace and family relationships How have women writers in the last twenty years presented the issues of patriarchy women's rights globalism and women's holistic development What are recent developments that have helped improve the situation for some women These are some of the issues that are covered in this book The thesis of this book is that there have been policies and strategies developed that have worked to empower women However vestiges of sexism gender disparities in several fields still remain and traditions customs and patriarchy have aided in still keeping women down

Iqani, Bridget Kenny, 2017-10-02 This book is the first of its kind to bring together a collection of critical scholarly work on consumer culture in South Africa exploring the cultural political economic and social aspects of consumption in post Apartheid society From sushi and Japanese diplomacy to Queen Sophie's writhing gown from middle class Sowetan golfers to an indebted working class citizenry from wedding websites to wedding nostalgia from the liberation of consuming to the low wage labour of selling the chapters in this book demonstrate a variety of themes showing that to start with consumption rather than ending with it allows for new insights into long standing areas of social research By mapping exploring and theorizing the diverse aspects of consumption and consumer culture the volume collectively works towards a fresh set of empirically rooted conceptual commentaries on the politics economics and social dynamics of modern South Africa This effort in turn can serve as a foundation for thinking less parochially about neoliberal power and consumer culture On a global scale studying consumption in South Africa matters because in some ways the country serves as a microcosm for global patterns of income inequality race based economic oppression and hopes for the material betterment of life By exploring what consumption means on the local scale in South Africa the possibility arises to trace new global links and dissonances This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Arts
