Student Short Story International:

The Novels of Wilton Sankawulo Robert Brown, 2014-10-08 In the first chapter of this monograph Dr Robert H Brown tries to lay the groundwork by discussing some of the problems of writing in Liberia and prospects for Liberian writers Then he lists in chronological order some of the works published by Liberian writers as evidential proof that there is a paucity of creative fiction in Liberia In three subsequent chapters he undertakes a critical study of Wilton Sankawulos The Rain and the Night Sundown at Dawn A Liberian Odyssey and Birds Are Singing The chapters situate Wilton Sankawulos creative fiction in its proper context revealing the currents of indigenous Liberian thought that run through it and tracing the connections that link the novels to a new development in his thinking Indeed however dissimilar in titles The Rain and the Night Sundown at Dawn A Liberian Odyssey and Birds Are Singing to some extent share tone setting and ambience that characterize the current moment of Liberias history as a turning point Despite their minor grammatical infelicities and stylistic ineptitude the three novels are set to become classics in the canon of African literature

Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M. Tomlinson, United States Board on Books for Young People, 1998 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries Exposing children to this multi national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals Children's Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children's literature The concept of a bibliography of international children's literature is not new In the past many books have accomplished this task The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children's books Children's Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children a brief history of the children's literature movement related books and awards and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY and its American branch the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996 All titles are available in English many have been translated and others have originated in other English speaking countries The titles are organized by genre and have been selected for their high quality They are primarily targeted for children ages 0-14 although a few outstanding young adult titles are included Winners of the Mildred Batchelder Award and the Hans Christian Andersen Medal are listed in the appendix Indexes include Author Title Index Country of Origin Index and Subject Index Affordable and readable this timely resource is certainly a must for librarians and teachers and other professionals working with children Sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People English in Medical Education Peih-ying Lu, John Corbett, 2012-08-13 This book addresses recent developments in medical and language education In both fields there have been methodological shifts towards task based and problem based learning In addition both fields have broadened their focus on clinical expertise and linguistic skills to address issues of cultural competence English in Medical Education responds to these changes by reimagining the language classroom in medical settings as an arena for the exploration of values and professional identity The chapters cover topics such as the nature of cultural competence how to understand spoken discourse in a range of medical settings the use of tasks and problems in language education for medics the development of critical skills and the use of literature and visual media in language education for doctors It will interest everyone teaching English for Medical Purposes Journal of International Students, 2015 Vol. 5(4) Krishna Bista, 2019-10-01 The Journal of International Students JIS an academic interdisciplinary and peer reviewed publication Print ISSN 2162-3104 Online ISSN 2166-3750 publishes narrative theoretical and empirically based research articles student and faculty reflections study abroad experiences and book reviews relevant to international students and their cross cultural experiences and understanding in international education The Angle of Horror Jessica A. Folkart, Michelle Geoffrion-Vinci, 2024-10-03 From Cristina Fernandez Cubas Spain's award winning master of the short story comes a collection of unsettling thought provoking and often hilarious stories The Angle of Horror A socially awkward twenty something who transforms from Jekyll to Hyde by playing the tuba a miserly curmudgeon whose ultimate act of generosity as well as his final breath are snuffed out by a seemingly innocent grandson a young collegian who suffers a nightmare of shadows and slants then discovers his waking world is also horribly askew a lonely Spaniard living abroad who seeks familiarity in a Spanish specialty shop but only finds true belonging while obsessively stalking the proprietor These are but a few of the angles that Fernandez Cubas constructs in these four twisted tales Helicon Grandfather's Legacy The Angle of Horror and The Flower of Spain Presented in critical edition and translation for the first time these acclaimed Spanish tales are featured alongside their English translation with historical contextualization and critical commentary by scholars Jessica A Folkart and Michelle Geoffrion Vinci

From Coldwar Communism to the Global Emancipatory Movement Peter Waterman, 2014-12-12 Boaventura de Sousa Santos says This is an admirable memoir of an intellectual activist who has lived most intensely the progressive struggles of the last sixty years of world history because despite being born in Europe Peter in the best tradition of communist internationalism participated in struggles and movements not only in Central and Eastern Europe but also in Africa and most recently in Latin America But this is much more than a memoir It is so well documented that in this personal experience there are reflected some of the most decisive events of contemporary history It is a living history book But even more than this this book is so clearly and vividly written that at times it reads like the script for an imaginary documentary of our times This book should be read by all concerned with our recent history in order to get a much more complex inside view of what happened while it was happening In particular it should be read by the youth in order to get a close up of the difficulties and possibilities in building another possible world at a time where there existed a vibrant international communist movement It is up to such youth to evaluate whether difficulties are now or more daunting the possibilities less or more luminous

Global Citizenship Education in Praxis Anders Schultz, Mads Blom, 2023-04-24 Internationalisation and intercultural competence are key ideas in contemporary education and have been much theorised and practised in higher education but have not received the same attention in school contexts Linked to these ideas is an increasing focus on global citizenship and the development of students critical thinking skills and self realisation This book is based on a decade of experience of combining all three concepts in the practice of an upper secondary school in Denmark which is linked to 16 schools in 15 countries The book includes both a description of the project by the teachers who have taken part and an analysis by researchers who have worked with them to deliver the programme

Proceedings of the International Conference on Learning and Advanced Education (ICOLAE 2022) Mauly Halwat Hikmat, Yasir Sidiq, Naufal Ishartono, Yunus Sulistyono, Patmisari, Susiati, 2023-08-29 This is an open access book The COVID 19 pandemic in the last two years has influenced how educational system works Online learning became the primal policy taken by all institutions in the world to lower the risk of the virus spread Despite the drawbacks of the online learning teachers and students were accustomed with the distant learning through web meetings Learning Management Systems LMS and other online learning platforms In that time topics under digital learning and education 50 were the main stakes in academic disseminations. This year some institutions start to conduct their teaching and learning process classically as before the pandemic, others are still continuing online and not few are in hybrid. This leaves a question what learning reform should be made in post pandemic era. This conference invites researchers, experts, teachers and students to discuss the coping solutions of the question. It is important for them to contribute to the understanding of re-imagining online education for better futures, innovative learning design, new skills for living and working in new times, global challenge of education, learning and teaching with blended learning, flipped learning, integrating life skills for students in the curriculum, developing educators for the future, distance learning, humanities learning in the digital era, assessment and measurement in education, challenges and transformations in education technology in teaching and learning, new learning and teaching models. Not limited to these, scholars may add another interesting topic related to learning reform in post pandemic era to present.

Global Practices of Language Teaching: Proceedings of the 2008 International Online Language Conference (IOLC 2008) Azadeh Shafaei, 2008-12-30. The first International Online Language Conference was successfully held in September 2008. This event invited professors, Masters and Ph.D. students and academicians from around the world to submit papers in areas related to the conference theme. The event was organized by International Online Knowledge Service Provider IOKSP. The main conference objectives were as follows: to provide a platform for language educators, academicians and researchers from diverse cultural backgrounds to exchange ideas and the best practices for effective language teaching and learning; to promote better understanding of cultural diversity in language learning; to encourage language educators to be involved in the research process in order to achieve comprehensive excellence and to produce a collection of scholarly papers.

Global Perspectives and Local Challenges Surrounding International Student Mobility Bista, Krishna, 2015-12-09. As one of the fastest growing trends in higher education, study abroad programs are having a critical impact on the educational landscape. While international study programs generate more revenue and promote campus diversity, there are several challenges that must be considered when integrating non-native students into native universities. Global Perspectives and Local Challenges Surrounding International Student Mobility explores comparative research regarding the implementation of effective strategies needed when working with native and non-native individuals in educational settings. Offering perspectives from international student experiences as well as views on current mobility trends, immigration policies and challenges with cultural expectations, this publication will be a critical source for educators, policymakers and university staff who interact with international students.
