We Are Worth Fighting For Joshua M. Myers, 2022-04 The Howard University protests from the perspective and worldview of its participants We Are Worth Fighting For is the first history of the 1989 Howard University protest The three day occupation of the university s Administration Building was a continuation of the student movements of the sixties and a unique challenge to the politics of the eighties Upset at the university s appointment of the Republican strategist Lee Atwater to the Board of Trustees students forced the issue by shutting down the operations of the university The protest inspired in part by the emergence of conscious hip hop helped to build support for the idea of student governance and drew upon a resurgent black nationalist ethos At the center of this story is a student organization known as Black Nia F O R C E Co founded by Ras Baraka the group was at the forefront of organizing the student mobilization at Howard during the spring of 1989 and thereafter We Are Worth Fighting For explores how black student activists young men and women helped shape and resist the rightward shift and neoliberal foundations of American politics This history adds to the literature on Black campus activism Black Power studies and the emerging histories of African American life in the 1980s

Breaking the War Habit Scott Harding, Charles Howlett, Seth Kershner, 2022-07-15 The Pentagon currently spends around 1 4 billion per year on recruiting and hundreds of millions annually on other marketing initiatives intended to convince the public to enlist costly efforts to ensure a steady stream of new soldiers The most important part of this effort is the Pentagon s decades long drive to win over the teenage mind by establishing a beachhead in American high schools and colleges Breaking the War Habit provides an original consideration of the militarization of schools in the United States and explores the prolonged battle to prevent the military from infiltrating and influencing public education Focused on the Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps JROTC in high schools and the Reserve Officer Training Corps ROTC in higher education the authors expose the pervasive influence and economic leverage bestowed on the military as it recruits children and youth Breaking the War Habit highlights those who have resisted the privileged status of the military and successfully challenged its position on campuses across the country A scrappy band of activists the Committee on Militarism in Education CME initiated this work following World War I publicizing the rise of school militarism and its implications For two decades CME s activism shaped public debate over the meaning of militarism in U S society and education settings resulting in numerous victories against ROTC and JROTC programs The authors also explore how since the mid 1970s military counter recruiters have contested military recruiters largely unchecked access to high school students raising awareness of a school to military pipeline that concentrates recruitment in urban predominantly Black and low income regions

Muhammad Ali in Africana Cultural Memory James L. Conyers, Jr., Christel N. Temple, 2022-01-11 One critical priority of the discipline of Africana studies is applied memory specifically how the record of the culture s survival and agency reveals usable and reproducible knowledge and behavior In terms of how Muhammad Ali as an historical actor has left an heroic legacy that bequeaths to us a sort of inheritance the critical task at hand is to systematically explore this historical actor s life feats philosophy grit worldview and even his folkloric antihero to decipher his Africana cultural memory value At the core of this edited collection is a commitment to enhance the cultural storytelling about Muhammad Ali and to critically itemize the lessons we garner from his life as allegory The ancestral life is one that is remembered and recalled The contributors research uncovers Ali s local national and global encounters that are legacy worldviews These perspectives give us direction for mining the critical depth of Ali s encounters which map his memory in terms of culturally sustaining confidence self esteem reinvention immortalization and empathy These are the fertile seeds of Africana cultural memory which bloom into powerful markers and monuments of an epic life of hyperheroic activity relevant to cultural memory sports history politics health and aesthetics

Rethinking Higher Education in Post-Apartheid South Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2025-07-25 This book explores the opportunities and epistemological and structural challenges facing higher education in postcolonial South Africa and argues for a fundamental transformation to meet the needs of the 21st century Taking the concept of transformation as a unifying thread this book discusses the evolving trajectories of higher education in South Africa with particular emphasis on the decolonial initiatives that have emerged in the post Apartheid era During this time there have been persistent calls for South Africa to move beyond Eurocentric education programmes and curricula in favour of a system that reflects the continent s culture and identities of all South Africans The book argues that incremental reforms of existing structures are insufficient and that instead a deeper more fundamental shift in higher education structures values and systems is needed Overall the book calls for a comprehensive transformation to expand access for historically disadvantaged communities enhance quality and competitiveness address past injustices and improve the quality and capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Also exploring the digital transformations which have accelerated in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic this
