Leading Dynamic Information Literacy Programs Anne C. Behler, 2023-04-07 Leading Dynamic Information Literacy Programs delves into the library instruction coordinator's work. Each chapter is written by practicing coordinators who share their experiences leading information literacy programs that are nimble, responsive, and supportive of student learning. The volume discusses the work of instruction coordinators within five thematic areas: Claiming our Space, Library Instruction in the Landscape of Higher Education, Moving and Growing Together, Curriculum Development, Meaningful Assessment, and Leading Change. Readers will gain insight from their colleagues' advice for situating information literacy within the higher education institution, developing meaningful curricula, and using assessment in productive ways. Many of the stories represent a departure from traditional models of library instruction. In addition, this book is sure to spark inspiration for innovative approaches to program leadership and development, including strategies for growing communities of practice. From leadership skills and techniques to methods for cultivating shared values, pedagogical approaches, team building, assessment strategies, and everything in between, the aspiring or practicing instruction coordinator has much to gain from reading this work.

Computer Supported Collaborative Learning 2005 Timothy Koschmann, 2017-10-03 The Computer Supported Collaborative Learning (CSCL) conference has become an internationally recognized forum for the exchange of research findings related to learning in the context of collaborative activity and the exploration of how such learning might be augmented through technology. This text is the proceedings from CSCL 2005, held in Taipei, Taiwan. This conference marked the 10th anniversary of the first CSCL Conference, held at Indiana University in 1995. Subsequent meetings have been held at the University of Toronto, Stanford University, University of Maastricht, Netherlands, University of Colorado at Boulder, and the University of Bergen, Norway. Just as the first CSCL conference was instrumental in shaping the trajectory of the field in its first decade, the conference in Taipei will play an important role in consolidating an increasingly international and interdisciplinary community and defining the direction of the field for the next 10 years. This volume and the papers from which it is comprised will be an important resource for those active in this area of research and for others interested in fostering learning in settings of collaboration.
