The American Scene - Together with Three Essays from Portraits of Places Henry James, 2013-04-01 This early work by Henry James was originally published in 1907 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography

The American Scene is a work detailing the travelling experiences of the author on a trip across the United States in 1904

1905 James published his first story A Tragedy of Error in the Continental Monthly in 1864 when he was twenty years old

In 1876 he emigrated to London where he remained for the vast majority of the rest of his life becoming a British citizen in 1915

From this point on he was a hugely prolific author eventually producing twenty novels and more than a hundred short stories and novellas as well as literary criticism plays and travelogues

The American Scene Stuart Hutchinson, 1991-10-02 The American Scene considers major texts of nineteenth century American literature

The Leatherstocking Tales Poe's fiction The Scarlet Letter Moby Dick Leaves of Grass Dickinson's poetry Huckleberry Finn James's The American Scene

It sees these works as attempts to articulate relationships between the self and the New World

The indeterminacy of the relationships is expressed in the formal instability of the works themselves

In these respects nineteenth century American literature is shown to offer a striking contrast to comparable English literature

Excerpt from The American Scene

The following pages duly explain themselves

I judge as to the Author's point of view and his relation to his subject but I prefix this word on the chance of any suspected or perceived failure of such references

My visit to America had been the first possible to me for nearly a quarter of a century and I had before my last previous one brief and distant to memory spent other years in continuous absence so that I was to return with much of the freshness of eye outward and inward which with the further contribution of a state of desire is commonly held a precious agent of perception

I felt no doubt I confess of my great advantage on that score since if I had had time to become almost as fresh as an inquiring stranger I had not on the other hand had enough to cease to be or at least to feel as acute as an initiated native

I made no scruple of my conviction that I should understand and should care better and more than the most earnest of visitors and yet that I should vibrate with more curiosity on the extent of ground that is on which I might aspire to intimate intelligence at all than the pilgrim with the longest list of questions the sharpest appetite for explanations and the largest exposure to mistakes
