To Be Cared For Nathaniel Roberts,2016-04-26 To Be Cared For offers a unique view into the conceptual and moral world of slum bound Dalits untouchables in the South Indian city of Chennai Focusing on the decision by many women to embrace locally specific forms of Pentecostal Christianity Nathaniel Roberts challenges dominant anthropological understandings of religion as a matter of culture and identity as well as Indian nationalist narratives of Christianity as a foreign ideology that disrupts local communities Far from being a divisive force conversion integrates the slum community Christians and Hindus alike by addressing hidden moral fault lines that subtly pit residents against one another in a national context that renders Dalits outsiders in their own land Read an interview with the author on the Association for Asian Studies AsiaNow blog

The Ancient Paths Graham Robb,2013-10-10 The idea that became this book arrived one evening like an unwanted visitor It clearly expected to stay for a long time and I knew that its presence in my home would be extremely compromising Treasure maps and secret paths belong to childhood An adult scholar who sees an undiscovered ancient world reveal itself complete with charts instruction manual and guidebook is bound to question the functioning of his mental equipment When Graham Robb made plans to cycle the legendary Via Heraklea he had no idea that the line he plotted stretching from the south western tip of the Iberian Peninsula across the Pyrenees and towards the Alps would change the way he saw a civilization It was an ancient path that took him deep into the world of the Celts their gods their art and most of all their sophisticated knowledge of science Gradually a lost map revealed itself of an empire constructed with precision and beauty across vast tracts of Europe Oriented according to the movements of the Celtic sun god the map had been forgotten for almost two millennia Its implications were astonishing Minutely researched and rich in revelations The Ancient Paths brings to life centuries of our distant history and reinterprets pre Roman Europe Told with all of Robb s grace and verve it is a dazzling unforgettable book

Ephesians Study Guide Rav Sha'ul, In the Book of Ephesians Sha ul addresses the Mystery of the Ages Ephesians 1 9 10 9 He made known to us the mystery of His will according to his good pleasure written in The Heavenly Scroll which He purposed to fulfill in The Yahushaic Covenant Daniel 4 35 10 to be put into effect when the ages reach their fulfillment Age of Aquarius The Mystery of Yahuah hidden from the foundation of the Universe is that Yahuah s predestined plan was to procreate a family of godlike ones called elohim This family is likened unto a body which will be the Spiritual Temple of Yahuah in and through which Yahuah dwells The head of this body is the first born son Yahusha and the body is the assembly of chosen sons of Yahuah known as Remnant Israel It is through this family of godlike ones or elohim that the Universe will be governed in righteousness for eternity by The Kingdom of Yahuah

SN2 - Collection of Interlaced Speeches Tomás Morales y Durán, 2024-03-31 Sa yutta is the past participle of sa yujjati meaning to bind or tie A sa yutta is a bundle in which discourses suttas are presented tied together a poetic image used to refer to bundles of packaged discourses using their subject matter as a criterion Thus the Sa yutta Nik ya means collection of bundles that are grouped by subject However a more accurate designation would be Interwoven Discourses based on their structure development and presentation The Sa yutta Nik ya is the most important of the four collections or nik yas containing the doctrinal texts of the Gotama Buddha The others are the Digha Nik ya the Majjhima Nik ya the Anguttara Nik ya There is information of other kinds in some sections of the Sutta Nipata and the Vinaya includes accounts of Sangha living and its rules Usually the information is presented in two components one biographical and the other doctrinal The Sa yutta Nik ya is the more important doctrinal set where all doctrinal topics with all their variations are exhaustively addressed presenting the biographical component essential to be able to locate the teachings in their place of impartation Thus while the Digha and the Majjhima Nik ya are full of drama debate and narrative here the decorative framework is absent The whole situation is simplified into one sentence usually abbreviated as In S vatth in Jeta Park and even in the fourth book this is omitted The long and tortuous road that the various texts have traveled until reaching the ones we have today is a reflection of the long diffuse and intermittent history of Buddhism in Asia We must remember that at the time of the Buddha the cultural advances of the Harappa civilization had been forgotten for millennia This civilization had writing and such an advanced standardization in construction techniques that the early sites were discarded as modern The standardized fired brick throughout the Indus Valley gave way to flimsy reed and mud constructions that as we will see in this work reached the construction of a meeting house of unfired bricks And it would be another century and a half before the first scripts appeared which gradually made writing possible Therefore the Buddha lived technically in prehistoric times The transmission of knowledge was exclusively oral This is important for the presentation and development of this work The discourses obey mnemonic structures made to be remembered by large groups of bhikkhus each of them with parts that in turn are shared by other bhikkhus so that the redundancy was sufficient to overcome losses of information due to the death of certain individuals or were even able to somehow survive calamities and mortalities until a century before the common era they decided to pass the teachings to flimsy palm leaves in order to conjure all these risks once and for all Ancient Chinese served as the first written refuge for the teachings This language is very ancient although its availability in India was supposedly limited Today we have received the so called Chinese Agamas which are translations of oral Sanskrit texts The drawback is that they are fragmented scattered and largely lost Although they do not serve to reconstruct the teaching their value is extraordinary to find the precise definition of technical terms since both Chinese and Sanskrit are living languages today that have an enormous and rich etymology and comparative uses The most important collection that has come down to us to the present day is the Nik yas P li While it is the most complete it is simultaneously the most problematic P li was never a natural spoken language It is an artificial language with an obscure kinship to old dialects of present day Pakistan The p li was created for the exclusive purpose of containing the so called P li Canon which is a heterogeneous accumulation of texts combining versions of the originals mixed with tales legends and classical philosophical religious lucubrations which were included in order to give them authority The restoration work was made possible by five factors 1 They are mystical texts and since the mystical experience is objective it can be recognized in the text 2 The interwoven structure of the texts forces the choice of the correct word to be valid in different environments and occasions throughout the work 3 The support of the Chinese Agamas 4 The etymologies and uses of traditionally corresponding terms in Sanskrit 5 Raw access to texts in P li Thanks to these factors it was possible to achieve the restoration of the original meaning given by the Buddha which remained worse than bad under layers of millenary crusts as a result of the accumulation of the avatars that the texts suffered during the last twenty five centuries The reason for this profound misunderstanding lies in the fact that the teachings of the Buddha are mystical texts addressed to people who practice mysticism and only mystics understand them in their full extent Just like travel books where it is the travelers who get the real benefit Once the last disciples of the Buddha disappear that knowledge is extinguished and the mystical path is closed Without jh nas there is no teaching This was already warned by the Buddha himself who was never interested in leaving his teaching for future generations precisely because of this If it has reached us until today it was not by his will but by political decision of his mortal enemy King Aj tasattu of M gadha who organizes and sponsors the First Council that was already schismatic half of the Sangha rejected the results of the council From then on the texts will be orphaned of meaning and will wander through centuries councils kingdoms and empires always seeking the warmth of political power like any other religion But today having recovered the mysticism and being functional again this wonderful window opened by the Blessed One opens again for those who today see what the Buddha saw and who today live what his noble Sangha lived If in any way it is useful to you you are welcome to this window to the Truth Of Moose and Men Torry Martin, Doug Peterson, 2016-04-01 Torry Martin a comedian actor and hippie fled from California to the wilderness of Alaska searching for
