like that creaky rom com You've Got Mail hinges on the wacky new technology of email Dracula hinges on telegraphs typewriters and phonographs only with much more gruesome results Here's the quick version Count Dracula leaves his native Transylvania modern day Romania in southeastern Europe to immigrate to England presumably to feed on the teeming millions in the huge capital city of London Invasion literature or literature that had to do with monsters invading the British Empire which at that point still covered a lot of the world beyond the British Isles was ridiculously popular at the time Authors like Rudyard Kipling H G Wells and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle all wrote sensational adventure stories about fantastic creatures or threatening monsters from around the world Stoker didn't think of himself as a great artist he was primarily a businessman He managed the famous Lyceum Theatre in London Stoker only wrote novels to pay the bills hah the idea of writing novels to pay the bills is insane Honestly he'd probably be astonished at the lasting impact Dracula has had He wrote it in a piecemeal haphazard way a little here a little there At the time it came out in 1897 it was popular and well received but hardly a blockbuster hit It wasn't until later in the 20th century when film versions of the novel started to appear that the novel's popularity really skyrocketed and its impact on popular culture became crystal clear Basically every bloodsucker in literature from Twilight's Edward Cullen to True Blood's Eric Northman to Anne Rice's Lestat Co to Sesame Street's The Count owes their life or undeath to Bram Stoker and his xenophobic tale of one Romanian count seducing proper English ladeez In other words Dracula is the super hideous great great grandpappy of Bella Swan
