The Anthology Of Modern Korean Poetry:

The Columbia Anthology of Modern Korean Poetry David Richard McCann, 2004 Taking as its starting point the long standing characterization of Milton as a Hebraic writer Milton and the Rabbis probes the limits of the relationship between the seventeenth century English poet and polemicist and his Jewish antecedents Shoulson s analysis moves back and forth between Milton s writings and Jewish writings of the first five centuries of the Common Era collectively known as midrash In exploring the historical and literary implications of these connections Shoulson shows how Milton s text can inform a more nuanced reading of midrash just as midrash can offer new insights into Paradise Lost Shoulson is unconvinced of a direct link between a specific collection of rabbinic writings and Milton s works He argues that many of Milton s poetic ideas that parallel midrash are likely to have entered Christian discourse not only through early modern Christian Hebraicists but also through Protestant writers and preachers without special knowledge of Hebrew At the heart of Shoulson s inquiry lies a fundamental question When is an idea a theme or an emphasis distinctively Judaic or Hebraic and when is it Christian The difficulty in answering such questions reveals and highlights the fluid interaction between ostensibly Jewish Hellenistic and Christian modes of thought not only during the early modern period but also early in time when rabbinic Judaism and Christianity began The Anthology of Modern Korean Poetry Chong-wha Chung, 1986

The Columbia Anthology of Modern Korean Poetry David McCann, 2004-03-24 Korea s modern poetry is filled with many different voices and styles subjects and views moves and countermoves yet it still remains relatively unknown outside of Korea itself This is in part because the Korean language a rich medium for poetry has been ranked among the most difficult for English speakers to learn The Columbia Anthology of Modern Korean Poetry is the only up to date representative gathering of Korean poetry from the twentieth century in English far more generous in its selection and material than previous anthologies It presents 228 poems by 34 modern Korean poets including renowned poets such as So Chongju and Kim Chiha The Immortal Voice Joyce Jaihiun Kim, 1974 “The” Immortal Voice Chae-hyŏn Kim, 1974 Han’guk Hyŏndae Myŏngsisŏn , 1982 Modern Korean Literature Peter H. Lee, 1990-11-01 The history of Korea in the twentieth century has been a grim succession of oppressions humiliations and betrayals Yet through it all modern Korean writers have been able not only to find their own distinctive voices but to forge a national literature that speaks eloquently of the survival of the human spirit in times of crisis This anthology includes the finest translations available of representative works in all the major genres including poetry fiction essays and drama Readers will gain a clear sense of the development of twentieth century Korean literature and a vivid impression of the resilience strength and tenacity of modern Korean writers Modern Korean Literature Chung Chong-Wha, 2012-10-12 The sixth book in Kegan Paul International s Korean Culture Series this volume contains thirty stories that have been selected on the basis of historical interest and literary worth each representing a monumental moment in the history of Korean Literature The ten stories in the first part share the common theme of the Korean experience of the

confrontation between man and woman in some stories the relationship is portrayed as innocent and pure in others the relationship becomes more sophisticated and complex The ten stories in the second part all deal with old Korean or the old Korean way of life the Korea of bygone days which is gradually disappearing in the face of industrialization and internationalization The third group of stories reveals modern Korea in the process of change during the period of the Japanese Occupation the liberation from the Occupation and the Korean War All thirty stories may serve as social documents From the time of ideological chaos following the independence of Korea in 1945 up to the fall of the USSR in the 1980s modern Korean literature has been powerfully swayed by Marxist ideology one way or another Literature has an important role to play in its portrayal of the relations between society and individual people and it has a particularly vital social function in developing or undeveloped countries However the stories in this anthology are not just historical documents They represent the peak of literary achievements by great and gifted writers in the first half of this century It is remarkable to find so many talented writers producing so many powerful works of art in a short span of just over 50 years between 1908 and 1965 This anthology is an invitation to readers to grasp how much Korea has attained in the process of its modernization The authors whose works appear in this volume are Yi Kwang su Kim Dong in Hyun Chin kon Yi Hyo suk Kim Yu jong Yi Sang Kim Dong ni O Yung su Hwang Sun won Sohn So hi Hahn Mu suk Sunwu Hwi Kang Shin jae Oh Sang won Suh Ki won Han Mal suk Choi In hun Kim sung ok Yi Mun ku Modern Korean Poetry Jaihiun Kim, 1994 A companion volume to the Classical Korean Poetry this anthology provides the reader a bird s eye view of modern 20th century Korean poetry thus completing the sampling of the Korean poetry beginning with the 12th century through the present

Fifteenth Through the Twentieth Centuries Young-Key Kim-Renaud, 2015-02-24 This book introduces important contributions in the humanities by a select group of traditional and modern Korean women from the 15th through the 20th centuries. The literary and artistic works of these women are considered Korean classics and the featured artists and writers range from a queen to a courtesan to a Buddhist nun to unknown women of Korea. Although women's works were generally meant only to circulate among women, these creative expressions have caught the attention of literary and artistic connoisseurs. By bringing them to light, the book seeks to demonstrate how Korean women have tried to give their lives meaning over the ages through their very diverse yet common artistic responses to the details and drama of everyday life in Confucian Korea. The stories of these women and their work give us glimpses of their personal views on culture, aesthetics, history, society, politics, morality, and more.
