S Macalister is an important but controversial figure in the history of Palestinian archaeology This volume celebrates the centennial of the publication of his excavations at Tel Gezer 1912 conducted under the auspices of the PEF This excavation was the most ambitious one of its time in the land yielding important architectural remains and thousands of artefacts including the well known Gezer Calendar The contributions of several eminent scholars reflect on the man and his work and also report on how his work influenced the understanding of the sites he excavated in Palestine all of which are currently being re-investigated It is also richly illustrated with images from the PEF archives Evaluations of Macalister's work vary tremendously and are reflected here Many learnt from him others deplored his methods and record keeping As one contributor puts it an industrious archaeologist but an awful excavator and a man who was both admired and intensely disliked regarded as both a villain and a visionary But it is generally agreed that he is a figure who cannot be ignored and anyone interested in Palestinian archaeology will find a great deal to learn from this book The archaeology of

Albright, 1960 The Archaeology of Ancient Judea and Palestine Ariel Lewin, 2005 The regions that compose the current state of Israel and the emerging state of Palestine have yielded a wealth of fascinating archaeological evidence from the Dead Sea Scrolls found in a cave in 1947 by a Bedouin searching for a lost sheep to the remains of Roman camps and King Herod's luxurious palaces at the besieged city of Masada The authors begin with introductions to the complicated and turbulent history of the region in which a series of invaders including Babylonians Assyrians Persians and Macedonians conquered and ruled over its people The long reign of the Romans in the area is given particular attention a reign that produced the infamous client rulers Herod the Great and Pontius Pilate as well as two Jewish revolts against their Roman overlords both of which met with brutal suppression Lewin also analyzes eighteen ancient city sites including the familiar such as Jerusalem and Bethlehem and the less well known such as Herodion with its extravagant palace fortress and
