Hamidovic, Michael E. Stone, 2019-10-04 The Jewish culture of the Hellenistic and early Roman periods established a basis for all monotheistic religions but its main sources have been preserved to a great degree through Christian transmission This Guide is devoted to problems of preservation reception and transformation of Jewish texts and traditions of the Second Temple period in the many Christian milieus from the ancient world to the late medieval era The Fate of the Dead

Richard Bauckham, 2014-04-09 These studies focus on personal eschatology in the Jewish and early Christian apocalypses The apocalyptic tradition from its Jewish origins until the early middle ages is studied as a continuous literary tradition in which both continuity of motifs and important changes in understanding of life after death can be charted As well as better known apocalypses major and often pioneering attention is given to those neglected apocalypses which portray human destiny after death in detail such as the Apocalypse of Peter the Apocalypse of the Seven Heavens the later apocalypses of Ezra and the four apocalypses of the Virgin Mary Relationships with Greco Roman eschatology are explored Several chapters show how specific New Testament texts are illuminated by close knowledge of this tradition of ideas and images of the hereafter The Apocalyptic Imagination

John J. Collins, 1998-03-26 The Apocalyptic Imagination by John Collins is one of the most widely praised studies of Jewish apocalyptic literature ever written This second edition represents a complete rewriting and a new chapter on the Dead Sea Scrolls h Two Esdras

Bruce W. Longenecker, 1995-01-01 Some of the greatest moments of religious history have occurred when a poignant experience or event flies in the face of the traditional theological worldview cherished by an individual or society A fascinating case study of one such occurrence lies open in the text of 4 Ezra 2 Esdras 3 14 wherein a learned Jewish scribe of the first century CE rethinks his inherited theological views concerning a transcendent creator who is powerful loving and just This guide introduces the reader in a non technical but informed manner to the text of 4 Ezra locating it in its historical theological and social setting reviewing interpretive approaches and demonstrating how the author boldly struggles to understand God s grand reputation in the light of a world out of joint The guide also examines 4 Ezra s influence within the Christian Church and introduces the historical situations and theologies of the Christian texts 5 Ezra 2 Esdras 1 2 and 6 Ezra 2 Esdras 15 16 Heavenly Space in Hebrews and Its Jewish and Christian Environment

Stephen C. Wunrow, 2025-06-12 Stephen Wunrow addresses the pressing question of what the author of Hebrews meant by his descriptions of heaven arguing that the author intended his references to heavenly space to be interpreted as realistic descriptions of a real place Wunrow posits that language about heaven is neither metaphor nor a description of a place outside the creation by examining other early Jewish and Christian texts that narrate or describe humans ascending into heaven Given the nature and the function of heavenly space as described in these texts Wunrow suggests it is most probable that the authors of the texts intended their descriptions of heavenly space to be understood as realistic Wunrow thus explores 1 and 2 Enoch 4 Ezra 2 and 3 Baruch the Apocalypse of Abraham the Testament of Levi the Testament of Abraham the Ascension of Isaiah and Revelation investigating how other roughly contemporary authors described heavenly space and considering that the rhetorical aims of most of these authors fail unless their readers understand their descriptions of heavenly space in realistic ways Turning then to examine Hebrews Wunrow suggests that while the letter does contain unique features and rhetorical aims it also fits comfortably with other early Jewish and Christian texts that describe humans ascending into heaven in a realistic manner He concludes with reflections on how this conclusion helps to clarify other topics in Hebrews including atonement and eschatology Armenian Philology in the Modern Era

,2014-06-05 Philology is one of the most investigated fields of Armenian studies At the end of the twentieth century it was important to provide an overview of the main achievements and on the methodological approaches implemented in this field till now This is the aim of the present publication Part I focuses on the manuscripts the inscriptions and the printings Its second section is devoted to the textual criticisms and the third section explores the interface between linguistics and philology Case studies form the core of Part II One chapter offers an overview on the 17th 19th centuries and two articles are devoted to the conditions of the circulation of the literary production in the 20th century both in Western and Eastern Armenian

Mediating Religion Jolyon P. Mitchell, Sophia Marriage, 2003-06-01 This is the first book to bring together many aspects of the interplay between religion media and culture from around the world in a single comprehensive study Leading international scholars provide the most up to date findings in their fields and in a readable and accessible way Some of the topics covered include religion in the media age popular broadcasting communication theology popular piety film and religion myth and ritual in cyberspace music and religion communication ethics and the nature of truth in media saturated cultures The result is not only a wide ranging resource for scholars and students but also a unique introduction to this increasingly important phenomenon of modern life A Gospel for a New People Graham Stanton, 1993-01-01 This book thoroughly examines Matthew's gospel It discusses appropriate methods for interpretation and considers in detail the gospel's origin purpose and social setting Graham Stanton claims that Matthew wrote the Gospel following a period of prolonged bitter disputes with fellow Jews With considerable literary catechetical and pastoral skill the evangelist composed a gospel for a new people both Jews and Gentiles in a cluster of Christian communities Dividing his book into three sections Stanton discusses redaction critical literary critical and social scientific approaches to the interpretation of Matthew he confirms that Matthew's Gospel was shaped by the parting of the ways with Judaism and he includes two essays on the Sermon on the Mount and one on Matthew's use of the Old Testament Losing the Temple and Recovering the Future Hindy

Najman, 2014-04-21 This book explores the Jewish community's response to the destruction of the Second Temple in 70 CE The focus of attention is 4 Ezra a text that reboots the past by imaginatively recasting textual and interpretive traditions Instead of rebuilding the Temple as Ezra does in the books of Ezra and Nehemiah the Ezra portrayed in 4 Ezra argues with an angel about the mystery of God's plan and re-gives Israel the Torah Drawing on Walter Benjamin the imaginative project of 4 Ezra is analyzed in terms of a constellation composed of elements from pre-destruction traditions Ezra's struggle and his eventual recommitment to Torah are also understood as providing a model for emulation by ancient Jewish readers 4 Ezra is thus what Stanley Cavell calls a perfectionist work Its specific mission is to guide the formation of Jewish subjects capable of resuming covenantal life in the wake of a destruction that inflects but never erases revelation
