practice using creative expression to mobilize social change The Art of Solidarity examines how these creative practices in the arts and culture contributed to transnational solidarity campaigns that connected people across the Americas from the early twentieth century through the Cold War and its immediate aftermath This collection of original essays is divided into four chronological sections cultural and artistic production in the pre Cold War era that set the stage for transnational solidarity organizing early artistic responses to the rise of Cold War polarization and state repression the centrality of cultural and artistic production in social movements of solidarity and solidarity activism beyond movements Essay topics range widely across regions and social groups from the work of lesbian activists in Mexico City in the late 1970s and 1980s to the exchanges and transmissions of folk music practices from Cuba to the United States to the uses of Chilean arpilleras to oppose and protest the military dictatorship While previous studies have focused on politically engaged artists or examined how artist communities have created solidarity movements this book is one of the first to merge both perspectives Indian Art of the Americas at the Art Institute of Chicago Richard F. Townsend, 2016-06-28 A stunning survey of the indigenous art architecture and spiritual beliefs of the Americas from the Precolumbian era to the 20th century This landmark publication catalogues the Art Institute of Chicago's outstanding collection of Indian art of the Americas one of the foremost of its kind in the United States Showcasing a host of previously unpublished objects dating from the Precolumbian era to the 20th century the book marks the first time these holdings have been comprehensively documented Richard Townsend and Elizabeth Pope weave an overarching narrative that ranges from the Midwestern United States to the Yucatán Peninsula to the heart of South America While exploring artists' myriad economic historical linguistic and social backgrounds the authors demonstrate that they shared both a deep underlying cosmological view and the desire to secure their communities' prosperity by affirming connections to the sacred forces of the natural world The critical essays focus on topics that bridge traditions across North Central and South America including materials methods of manufacture the diversity of stylistic features and the iconography and functions of various objects Gorgeously illustrated in color with more than 500 vibrant images this handsome catalogue serves as the definitive survey of an unparalleled collection Race, Place, and Reform in Mexican Los Angeles Stephanie Lewthwaite, 2022-08-23 Beginning near the end of the nineteenth century a generation of reformers set their sights on the growing Mexican community in Los Angeles Experimenting with a variety of policies on health housing education and labor these reformers settlement workers educationalists Americanizers government officials and employers attempted to transform the Mexican community with a variety of distinct and often competing agendas In Race Place and Reform in Mexican Los Angeles Stephanie Lewthwaite presents evidence from a myriad of sources that these varied agendas of reform consistently supported the creation of racial ethnic and cultural differences across Los Angeles Reformers simultaneously promoted acculturation and racialization creating a landscape of difference that significantly shaped the place and status of Mexican immigrants and Mexican Americans from the Progressive era through the New Deal The book journeys across the urban suburban and rural spaces of Greater Los Angeles as it moves through time and examines the rural urban migration of Mexicans on both a local and a transnational scale Part 1 traverses the world of Progressive reform in urban Los Angeles exploring the link between the region s territorial and industrial expansion early campaigns for social and housing reform and the emergence of a first generation Mexican immigrant population Part 2 documents the shift from official Americanization and assimilation toward nativism and exclusion Here Lewthwaite examines competing cultures of reform and the challenges to assimilation from Mexican nationalists and American nativists Part 3 analyzes reform during the New Deal which spawned the active resistance of second generation Mexican Americans Race Place and Reform in Mexican Los Angeles achieves a full broad and nuanced account of the various and often contradictory efforts to reform the Mexican population of Los Angeles With a transnational approach grounded in historical context this book will appeal to students of history cultural studies and literary studies

On the Art of War and Mode of Warfare of the Ancient Mexicans Adolph Francis Alphonse Bandelier,1877 Que Vivan Los Tamales! Jeffrey M. Pilcher,1998 Connections between what people eat and who they are between cuisine and identity reach deep into Mexican history beginning with pre Columbian inhabitants offering sacrifices of human flesh to maize gods in hope of securing plentiful crops This cultural history of food in Mexico traces the influence of gender race and class on food preferences from Aztec times to the present and relates cuisine to the formation of national identity The metate and mano used by women for grinding corn and chiles since pre Columbian times remained essential to preparing such Mexican foods as tamales tortillas and mole poblano well into the twentieth century Part of the ongoing effort by intellectuals and political leaders to Europeanize Mexico was an attempt to replace corn with wheat But native foods and flavors persisted and became an essential part of indigenista ideology and what it meant to be authentically Mexican after 1940 when a growing urban middle class appropriated the popular native foods of the lower class and proclaimed them as national cuisine The Congregationalist ,1925 Christian Register and Boston Observer ,1927 Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith,Francis Walton,1916 The Outlook Lyman Abbott,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Ernest Hamlin Abbott,Francis Rufus Bellamy,1916
