The Emergence Of Autocracy In Liberia Tragedy And Challenge:

The Emergence of Autocracy in Liberia Amos Sawyer, 1992-01-01 The Emergence of Autocracy in Liberia Amos Sawyer, 1992 The book illuminates the political process that over the course of six generations brought about the personalization of authority in Liberia and it links that system of personal rule to the highly centralized structures of the postcolonial state The book concludes by exploring the future of self governance in Liberia and all of postcolonial Africa The author became president of the Republic of Liberia after the civil war 1989-90 White Americans in Black Africa Eunjin Park, 2021-11-18 First Published in 2002 This compelling book brings to light a disillusioned experiment of biracial missionary labours that were expected to carry the beliefs and cultural values of nineteenth century white Americans to the black continent of Africa Liberia's Civil War Adekeye Adebajo, 2002 This text aims to unravel the tangled web of the conflict by addressing questions including why did Nigeria intervene in Liberia and remain committed throughout the seven year civil war and to what extent was ECOMOG's intervention shaped by Nigeria's hegemonic aspirations The African Post-colonial State and its Challenges Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2022 Godfrey Mwakikagile looks at the African post colonial state and the challenges it faces He contends that it is structurally flawed and does not reflect African realities It is an oppressive machinery and an apparatus of power to serve the interests of the ruling class and the elite at the expense of ordinary citizens and the masses And it has retained the institutional structure of the colonial state instead of undergoing fundamental transformation to become truly African Mwakikagile focuses on a number of countries providing case studies whose relevance is continental in scope He contends that bad leadership is the biggest problem African countries have faced through the decades and everything else revolves around it The collapse of a number of African states in the post colonial era bears testimony to that Militocracy vs. Democracy in West Africa 1960s - 1990s Godfrey Mwakikagile, This is a historical narrative and analysis of the unconstitutional changes of government in most West African countries where military rule became institutionalised more than in any other part of the continent from the sixties to the nineties There is no specific reason why the region has suffered from usurpation of power by soldiers more than any other part of the continent besides the desire by soldiers to rule recently demonstrated by coups in Mali in 2020 and 2021 Guinea in 2021 and Burkina Faso in 2022 Governments in West Africa are no more unstable or weaker than their counterparts in other parts of the continent Overthrowing governments became a continental phenomenon when military rulers went on to legitimise their seizure of power through rigged elections by turning themselves into civilian rulers They civilianised themselves not only to claim that they were no longer military rulers but were democratically elected leaders a manipulation of power that triggered counter coups by their opponents to end their rule resulting in many deaths in many countries where this violent change took place Military rule in Africa started soon after independence in the sixties The most ambitious goals in the postcolonial era were consolidation of the state and nation building with varying degrees of success in different parts of the continent Military rulers proved to be no better than their civilian counterparts they had replaced In most cases they were even worse and used coercive power of the state to perpetuate themselves in office just as their civilian counterparts did The result was consolidation of the state as an instrument of oppression the most oppressive apparatus being the executive branch itself invested with all the powers which evolved into the imperial presidency a phenomenon that persists in some African countries legitimised through rigged elections enabling leaders to remain in office under the guise of democracy in the name of the people

The First Liberian Civil War George Klay Kieh, 2008 This book challenges the dominant view that the first Liberian civil war was caused by ethno cultural antagonisms between and among the country's various ethnic groups Alternatively the book argues that the war was the consequence of the multifaceted crises of underdevelopment cultural economic political and social generated by the neo colonial Liberian State

Grassroots Responses to Extractivism
Samuel Leguizamon Grant, Felix Mantz, Mariko Frame, 2025-01-23 This volume makes visible the many innovative resistances and solutions emanating from the Global South in response to the injustices of the current global ecological crises Rooted in contemporary ecological imperialism these crises are subjecting marginalized communities in the Global South to the worst socio ecological repercussions worldwide whilst mainstream environmental policies and solutions reproduce market based approaches premised on a hegemonic Western world view The book details a wide variety of case studies from across Asia Africa and the Americas such as deforestation activism in Cambodia and grassroots community organisation against large scale land transactions in Liberia among many others The contributors composed of a mix of academics and activists propose bottom up solutions to the current ecological and climate crises This work highlights how anti capitalist anti colonial and anti anthropocentric alternatives and movements are realistic holistic and appropriate in the face of global ecological crises
