The American Negro A Study In Racial Crossing:

The American Negro Melville Jean Herskovits, 1964 The American Negro Melville Jean Herskovits, 1928 An anthropometric study of African Americans based on research conducted in 1920 The American Negro Melville Jean Herskovits, 1928 The American Negro Jean Herskovits, 1985-07-19 An anthropomorphic study of the black population in the United States based on a study conducted in 1920 The American Negro, a Study in Racial Crossing, by Melville J. Herskovits ... Charles Benedict Davenport, 1928 The American Negro Melville Jean Herskovits, 1928 The American Negro Thomas, 1901 The American Negro Melville Jean Herskovits, 1968 A Bibliography of the Negro in Africa and America, 1928 In the Almost Promised Land Hasia R. Diner, 1995-10 Seeking the reasons behind Jewish altruism toward African Americans Hasis Finer shows how in the wake of the Leo Frank trial and lynching in Atlanta Jews came to see that their relative prosperity was no protection against the same social forces that threatened blacks Jewish leaders and organizations genuinely believed in the cause of black civil rights Diner suggests but they also used that cause as a way of advancing their own interests launching a vicarious attack on the nation that they felt had not lived up to its own ideals of freedom and equality Bone Rooms Samuel J. Redman, 2016-03-14 In the bone rooms of the Smithsonian Institution and other museums in the late nineteenth century a scientific revolution was unfolding as collectors engaged in a global competition to recover the best human skeletons mummies fossils Study of these remains led to the discrediting of racial theory and the search for human origins and evolution Current History and Forum ..., 1926 Chosen People Jacob S. Dorman, 2013 Named Outstanding Academic Title by CHOICE Winner of the Wesley Logan Prize of the American Historical Association Winner of the Byron Caldwell Smith Book Prize Winner of the 2014 Albert J Raboteau Book Prize for the Best Book in Africana Religions Jacob S Dorman offers new insights into the rise of Black Israelite religions in America faiths ranging from Judaism to Islam to Rastafarianism all of which believe that the ancient Hebrew Israelites were Black and that contemporary African Americans are their descendants Dorman traces the influence of Israelite practices and philosophies in the Holiness Christianity movement of the 1890s and the emergence of the Pentecostal movement in 1906 An examination of Black interactions with white Jews under slavery shows that the original impetus for Christian Israelite movements was not a desire to practice Judaism but rather a studied attempt to recreate the early Christian church following the strictures of the Hebrew Scriptures A second wave of Black Israelite synagogues arose during the Great Migration of African Americans and West Indians to cities in the North One of the most fascinating of the Black Israelite pioneers was Arnold Josiah Ford a Barbadian musician who moved to Harlem joined Marcus Garvey's Black Nationalist movement started his own synagogue and led African Americans to resettle in Ethiopia in 1930 The effort failed but the Black Israelite theology had captured the imagination of settlers who returned to Jamaica and transmitted it to Leonard Howell one of the founders of Rastafarianism and himself a member of Harlem's religious subculture After Ford's resettlement effort the Black Israelite movement was carried forward in the U S by several Harlem rabbis including Wentworth Arthur Matthew another West Indian who creatively combined elements of Judaism Pentecostalism Freemasonry the British Anglo Israelite movement Afro Caribbean faiths and occult kabbalah Drawing on interviews newspapers and a wealth of hitherto untapped archival sources Dorman provides a vivid portrait of Black Israelites showing them to be a transnational movement that fought racism and its erasure of people of color from European derived religions Chosen People argues for a new way of understanding cultural formation not in terms of genealogical metaphors of survivals or syncretism but rather as a polycultural cutting and pasting from a transnational array of ideas books rituals and social networks
