Television Directors, Race, and Gender Jonathan J. Cavallero, 2024-07-17 This book challenges the predominant framing of US television as a writer s or producer s medium by suggesting that television directors are a vital component of TV artistry Looking beyond a perspective that favors the narrative and economic aspects of television but undervalues the medium s formal elements the book explores how directors use the visual and aural to contribute layers of meaning that add to the thematic development of television texts Starting from the belief that television aesthetics partially reveal the ways in which directors and their collaborators contribute to the overall thematic development of a program the author offers five case studies that map out the ways that directors have contributed to television drama throughout the medium s approximately 80 year history By devoting special attention to the presence and voices of directors from marginalized backgrounds the book creates opportunities to discuss television from perspectives that emphasize issues of diversity equity and inclusion This original and insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of television studies television production and media production critical media studies media authorship gender studies and race and media Encyclopedia of

Analytical Guide to Television's One Step Beyond, 1959-1961 John Kenneth Muir, 2010-06-21 Alcoa Presents One Step Beyond made its television debut in 1959 nine months before Rod Serling s classic The Twilight Zone and paved the way for a generation of television programs devoted to paranormal topics such as the occult ESP and ghost stories One Step Beyond was also where some of Hollywood s most famous leading men including Warren Beatty William Shatner and Charles Bronson got their starts in television This complete reference work to the 96 half hour episodes that ran for three seasons on ABC also offers a detailed history extensive commentary and summaries of the critical reception of One Step Beyond as well as coverage of the sequel series produced in 1978 entitled The Next Step Beyond Complete credits for both series are provided

Sam Wanamaker Diana Devlin, 2019-06-13 Actor Director Visionary The fascinating life of Sam Wanamaker is explored for the first time in this biography by Diana Devlin who worked closely with Wanamaker during the last twenty years of his life Sam Wanamaker 1909 1993 is best known as the man who spent the last twenty five years of his life campaigning to reconstruct Shakespeare s Globe near its original site in London Born in the USA he trained as an actor in Chicago and began his career during the golden age of radio drama before moving on to Broadway A vocal left wing activist

Wanamaker moved to the UK during the turbulent era of the anti Communist witch hunts Having crossed the Atlantic he carved a successful international career as actor producer and director He directed the opening production at the Sydney Opera House With his staunch sense of purpose he made as many enemies as friends charismatic and persuasive he was also stubborn and domineering But above all he was a man of great vision and it was that vision that inspired many to help make his dream of Shakespeare s Globe come into being which opened to much fanfare in 1997 Great Shakespeareans Set

IV Adrian Poole, Peter Holland, 2014-09-11 Great Shakespeareans presents a systematic account of those figures who have had the greatest influence on the interpretation understanding and cultural reception of Shakespeare both nationally and internationally This major project offers an unprecedented scholarly analysis of the contribution made by the most important Shakespearean critics editors actors and directors as well as novelists poets composers and thinkers from the seventeenth to the twentieth century An essential resource for students and scholars in Shakespeare studies Poel, Granville Barker,

Guthrie, Wanamaker Cary M. Mazer, 2013-10-24 All four figures in this volume have been canonized as central to stage centred Shakespearean scholarship and stage practice From William Poel s reproductions of early modern stages in the late nineteenth century to Sam Wanamaker s reconstruction of the Globe on London s South Bank they all viewed Shakespeare s plays as being enmeshed in the social and historical dynamics of theatremaking and theatregoing The volume considers how their attempts to recapture early modern performance conditions can be considered progressive Why Docudrama? Alan

Rosenthal, 1999 Defining and examining the rationale of docudrama the nine essayists in the first part discuss the history and development of docudrama on TV and in film they also consider the place of truth in docudrama the main critiques of the form and the audience s susceptibilities and expectations In investigating the actual filmmaking process the eight essays in the second part focus on how docudrama as a commodity is created in the United States and England Part essay part case study and part interview this section also explores how Hollywood and the commercial networks as well as producers and writers work and think The final part presents an in depth critique of a number of controversial docudramas that have helped form and shape public opinion including Battleship Potemkin Roots Reds JFK Mississippi Burning Schindler s List and In the Name of the Father

Short-Lived Television Series, 1948-1978 Wesley Hyatt, 2015-10-06 Do you remember the 1959 game show where ABC cancelled a tape featuring a female impersonator Across the Board Ever heard of Snip the 1976 sitcom starring David Brenner that NBC canned just before it debuted Almost everyone who has worked on a successful television series has also been on one that flopped Even during the first thirty years of broadcasting when NBC CBS and ABC were the only networks and not quite so quick to cancel unsuccessful programs hundreds of shows lasted less than one year This work tells the stories of those ill fated series that were cancelled within one year after their premieres The entries are arranged chronologically from the 1948 1949 through the 1977 1978 seasons and provide brief descriptions of the shows along with such facts as the type of program each series was its times dates and network its competition on other networks and the names of the cast producer director and writer The book also includes information from more than 100 interviews with actors writers directors and producers who worked on the short lived television series Television Criticism Leah R. Vande Berg, Lawrence A. Wenner, 1991 Lost Illusions David A. Cook, 2002-03-15 This volume examines the development of film and the film industry during the 1970s and the political and economic background that influenced it Fifties Television William Boddy, 1993 Just a few years in the mid 1950s separated the golden age of television's live anthology drama from Newton Minow's famous vast wasteland pronouncement Fifties Television shows how the significant programming changes of the period cannot be attributed simply to shifting public tastes or the exhaustion of particular program genres but underscore fundamental changes in the way prime time entertainment programs were produced sponsored and scheduled These changes helped shape television as we know it today William Boddy provides a wide ranging and rigorous analysis of the fledgling American television industry during the period of its greatest economic growth programming changes and critical controversy He carefully traces the development of the medium from the experimental era of the 1920s and 1930s through the regulatory battles of the 1940s and the network programming wars of the 1950s

Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Making Television Robert Thompson, Gary C. Burns, 1990-09-27 Part of Praeger's Media and Society Series this contributed volume is the only collection of essays on television authorship It includes work of some of the most prominent scholars in television studies Rather than assigning one author to individual television texts the contributors probe the relationship between the various authors at work within the institutional cultural and economic settings that characterize the television industry This book analyzes and defines the unique methods of television authorship and suggests numerous candidates for authorial accountability allowing the medium to enter the realm of contemporary criticism The first part of the volume provides a case study in four chapters on authorship issues surrounding Frank's Place the short lived but compelling situation comedy This is followed by three chapters focusing on issues of authorship in international television The book then probes the studio's role as author including essays on Warner Brothers Desilu and Screen Gems Finally the contributors examine individual TV authors and cover such topics as point of view in music video television production as collective action and unconventional television Quality-Television Jonas Nesselhauf, Markus Schleich, 2014 In the Eye of the Beholder Gary Richard Edgerton, Michael T. Marsden, John G. Nachbar, 1997 Scholars from communication studies as well as film and television studies address a variety of texts from Ken Burns's The Civil War to the midnight cult film The Rocky Horror Picture Show Part one focuses on perennial subject areas related to authorship and reception Part two addresses an assortment of
