Balancing Acts Natasha Kumar Warikoo, 2011-02-09 In this timely examination of children of immigrants in New York and London Natasha Kumar Warikoo asks Is there a link between rap hip hop influenced youth culture and motivation to succeed in school Warikoo challenges teachers administrators and parents to look beneath the outward manifestations of youth culture the clothing music and tough talk to better understand the internal struggle faced by many minority students as they try to fit in with peers while working to lay the groundwork for successful lives Using ethnographic survey and interview data in two racially diverse low achieving high schools Warikoo analyzes seemingly oppositional styles tastes in music and school behaviors and finds that most teens try to find a balance between success with peers and success in school The Oxford Handbook of Christianity and Economics Paul Oslington,2014 The new interdisciplinary field of Christianity and economics deals with the important and difficult questions that cluster at the boundary of these disciplines drawing on contemporary theory and empirical findings in both fields with roots in older discourses This landmark volume surveys the field and advances the discussion It deploys historical economic and theological analysis to search for answers The Bible and the Hermeneutics of Liberation Alejandro F. Botta,Pablo R. Andiñach,2009 Eight Propositions Joe L. Rempson,2020-11-19 Rempson takes issue with those who lay the plight of African Americans on racism not seeing it today as a major obstacle to black progress Rather he traces the origin back to what he terms the African American Garden of Eden In it W E B Dubois outlasted Booker T Washington and fathered a tradition which Rempson argues has produced a victim identity and an emphasis on the system rather than the self Only black males offer a way out he declares because it is entirely our black males who are keeping us down and curtailing our progress in contrast to black females who are doing OK They are plagued by what Rempson calls the African American Male School Adaptability Crisis AMSAC Their academic performance ranks at the bottom alone below black female students and below white Asian and Hispanic male students In large urban areas their high school dropout rate is 59 percent and nationally they lag behind in college attendance and graduation rates The outcome Rempson argues is dysfunctionality and the existence of hedonistic norms which hinder family and community stability But while black males are the problem Rempson contends it is nevertheless only they who can solve it because research and experience show that it takes males to bring up and change other males Though intended for everyone he therefore writes his book to his fellow advantaged black males and makes a passionate plea for them to step up and with the help of black females and of the nation take the lead As their guide he has formulated eight propositions Arrived at through an examination of impressively extensive data from numerous sources and disciplines they are a marked departure from the customary Most strikingly delicate matters such as those which pertain to intelligence quotient IQ and culture are openly confronted and dealt with But Rempson writes unless confronted we will not solve our problems Nor he continues can we solve them unless we cut the umbilical cord to white America We have no right to expect it to be our savior nor are we justified in perceiving it as our oppressor Forcefully and finely written Rempson s book is a singular and courageous contribution Alone his eight propositions make it a worthy read Black in White Space Elijah Anderson,2023-03-09 In Black in White Space Anderson brings his immense knowledge and ethnography to bear in this timely study of the racial barriers that are still firmly entrenched in our society at every class level He focuses in on symbolic racism a new form of racism in America caused by the stubbornly powerful stereotype of the ghetto embedded in the white imagination which subconsciously connects all Black people with crime and poverty regardless of their social or economic position White people typically avoid Black space but Black people are required to navigate the white space as a condition of their existence From Philadelphia street corner conversations to Anderson's own morning jogs through a Cape Cod vacation town he probes a wealth of experiences to shed new light on how symbolic racism makes all Black people uniquely vulnerable to implicit bias in police stops and racial discrimination in our country Back cover

Black Conservatives in the United States Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2006 This work is an examination of the black conservative phenomenon in the United States in contemporary times The author looks at the role black conservatives play in American politics and at their attempts to have an impact on the lives of black Americans also known as African Americans Subjects covered include perspectives black conservatives share on issues such as affirmative action racism poverty self reliance welfare drugs crime and illegitimacy among blacks the criminal justice system and how it affects blacks and why black conservatives differ with other blacks on those issues It is also a critique of The Bell Curve a book that has inflamed passions especially among blacks and of the views some black conservatives have expressed on racial IQ differences which have fueled debate on this highly explosive subject The author also looks at the policy and philosophical differences and at differences in perceptions between black conservatives and their brethren in the black community Why do black conservatives oppose affirmative action Why do they support the Republican party Why don't they have much support in the black community Those are just some of the issues addressed in this book The author writes from personal experience after living and interacting with African Americans of all ideological stripes for more than 30 years His interest in Black America spans the ideological spectrum and covers other aspects of life including relations between Africans and African Americans He has written a book about those relations in which he also addresses the black conservative phenomenon in the United States Like all his others books Black Conservatives in the United States is intended for members of the general public and the academic community

Equality Or Discrimination? Natalie Kimbrough, 2007 Equality or Discrimination strives to close the gap in existing literature and address the often neglected field of research on the discrimination of African Americans in the U S Armed Forces during the Vietnam War Despite the awakened interest of academics authors artists and experts from a multitude of fields and the vast selection of literature on the Vietnam War and its veterans African Americans have received little attention until now Based on initial findings Dr Kimbrough analyzes key issues including whether or not African Americans experienced racial discrimination while serving The study also focuses on whether the Vietnam War was indeed the first fully integrated conflict in which the U S attempted to engage in militarily without racial division The findings contradict the traditional image of equality in the U S Armed Forces and provide the basis for the dissertation Proving that soldiers in the Vietnam War were NOT treated equally Dr Kimbrough argues that African Americans experienced various forms of discrimination during a tumultuous time in U S history in which the opposite treatment of its soldiers was required

The African American Male

School Adaptability Crisis (Amsac) Joe L. Rempson, 2016-03-12 The African American Male School Adaptability Crisis AMSAC cannot be solved by the school alone It is a race problem which can only be solved if we black males provide the leadership in tackling our three major demons which now mainly account for the problem IQ lag fatherless families crime AMSAC had its origin about 100 years ago when after the death of Washington DuBois gained ascendancy in our African American Garden of Eden and replaced Washingtons brains property and character gospel with a civil rights agenda That agenda has led to a civil rights fixation and our second bondage Victimology wherein being the victim has become part of our core identity and made us psychological slaves Rather than being proud and self reliant disproportionately we have come to see ourselves as victims who are entitled to system help and special treatment This bondage and it is a bondage vitiates our manhood and the energy and drive required to pursue the adaptation pathway paved by Washington but demonized by DuBois Return to that pathway and we can confront and conquer AMSAC and our three major demons Guided by history and the research evidence this book details how Its 20 chapters make for long reading but just by reading the first and last chapters you can get the message The motto of the proposed evidence based experimental program the African American Male Career Pathway Program AMCAP A special appeal is made to black athletes and entertainers to help propagate this motto and support the proposed high school student clubs Student AMCAPs in its implementation

The Price We Pay Clive R. Belfield, Henry M. Levin, Ph.D., 2008-07-01 While the high cost of education draws headlines the cost of not educating America s children goes largely ignored The Price We Pay remedies this oversight by highlighting the private and public costs of inadequate education In this volume leading scholars from a broad range of fields including economics education demography and public health attach hard numbers to the relationship between educational attainment and such critical indicators as income health crime dependence on public assistance and political participation They explore policy interventions that could boost the education system s performance and explain why demographic trends make the challenge of educating our youth so urgent today Improving educational outcomes for at risk youth is more than a noble goal It is an investment with the potential to yield benefits that far outstrip its costs The Price We Pay provides the tools readers need to analyze both sides of the balance sheet and make informed decisions about which policies will pay off Contributors include Thomas Bailey Teachers College Columbia University Ronald F Ferguson Harvard University Irwin Garfinkel Columbia University Jane Junn Rutgers University Brendan Kelly Columbia University Enrico Moretti UCLA Peter Muennig Columbia University Michael Rebell Teachers College Columbia University Richard Rothstein Teachers College Columbia

Olúfẹ́mi Táíwò, 2023-05-31 Written from the perspective of a philosopher and African immigrant this book makes a forceful moral argument for the need for a Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC in the United States to address the long history of injustice to African Americans It shows that a TRC similar to those established in South Africa and Chile would rescue the ideals embodied in the U S Constitution while expanding their promise Rejecting more recent views of the country's founding as an embodiment of incorrigible racial oppression Ol f mi T w sees in the U S Constitution and the original utopia that was at its foundation the best available means for achieving liberty and justice But he simultaneously shows how only a TRC can successfully open the path to moving the U S past its long legacy of anti black racism in particular and racial oppression generally towards a more perfect union Written with an immigrant's love of his new homeland but a clear eyed view of its major shortcomings the book rejects the idea of American exceptionalism in prescribing a solution that has worked elsewhere Key Features A clear view of the wide chasm between the ideals established at the U S's founding and the subsequent society that developed Combines first person experiences of the author with close readings of modern political philosophy W E B Du Bois Martin Luther King Jr Derrick Bell and others Traces the link between the denial of citizenship to Blacks both historically and today and anti Black violence Shows how an obsession with the law and legal reform will never adequately address the fundamental problem of anti Black oppression Shows philosophically the necessity of establishing a consensual view of the truth and how it must precede any effective reconciliation Identity, Invention, and the Culture of
