Historical Evolution of the Eastern Mode of Production Zhao Jiaxiang, 2020-06-09 In the four volumes of The Development Trajectory of Eastern Societies and the Theories and Practices of Socialism the author re-examines Marx and Engels' theories on the development trajectory of Eastern societies by integrating theoretical analysis of Marxist theories and a historical investigation of socialist revolution and socialist construction around the world This second volume focuses on Marx and Engels' historical materialism explains the general laws of historical development and brings this to bear within the context of Eastern societies The author notes that Marx and Engels' historical materialism and its derivative theories on Eastern societies are compatible and interconnected In addition he reveals how Marx and Engels theory of the Asiatic mode of production plays an important part in the development trajectory of Eastern societies and is closely related to their theory of five social forms This volume is a key reference for readers who study and are interested in Marxism Marxist philosophy and the history of philosophy The Cambridge History of China Roderick MacFarquhar, John King Fairbank, 1987 The Origins and Character of the Ancient Chinese City Paul Wheatley, 2017-07-12 These two volumes elucidate the manner in which there emerged on the North China plain hierarchically structured functionally specialized social institutions organized on a political and territorial basis during the second millennium b c They describe the way in which during subsequent centuries these institutes were diffused through much of the rest of North and Central China Author Paul Wheatley equates the emergence of the ceremonial center as evidenced in Shang China with a functional and developmental stage in urban genesis and substantiates his argument with comparative evidence from the Americas Mesopotamia Egypt Southeast Asia the Mediterranean and the Yoruba territories The Origins and Character of the Ancient Chinese City seeks in small measure to help redress the current imbalance between our knowledge of the contemporary Western style city on the one hand and of the urbanism characteristic of the traditional world on the other Those aspects of urban theory which have been derived predominantly from the investigation of Western urbanism are tested against rather than applied to ancient China The Origins and Character of the Ancient Chinese City examines the cosmological symbolism of the Chinese city constructed as a world unto itself It suggests with a wealth of argument and evidence that this cosmo magical role underpinned the functional unity of the city everywhere until new bases for urban life began to develop in the Hellenistic world Whereas the majority of previous investigations into the nature of the Chinese city have been undertaken from the standpoint of elites The Origins and Character of the Ancient Chinese City has adopted a point of view closer to that of the social scientist than the geographer The Ancient Chinese Jane Shuter, 2006-09-13 Introduces various elements of ancient Chinese civilization including great thinkers family life inventions and the government The History of Ancient Chinese Economic Thought Cheng Lin, Terry Peach, Wang Fang, 2014-04-24 This volume comprises twelve papers written by Chinese scholars on various aspects of the history of ancient Chinese economic thought The contributions are preceded by an introduction which gives an overview of the development of the subject of history of economic thought in China and which also provides an historical context to the individuals who constitute the major schools of ancient Chinese economic thought The authors of the papers are leading scholars who have dominated this research area since the founding of New China in 1949 while the broad range of topics covered by the contributions includes questions of methodology detailed and sometimes controversial interpretations of texts and schools and the international influence and modern relevance of ancient Chinese thought A recurrent theme is that ancient Chinese thought has at least as much to offer to the historian as ancient Western thought As the first such volume of papers to be translated into English this collection provides a unique opportunity for non Chinese readers to sample the way in which Chinese historians of economics have attempted to understand their own intellectual heritage This book will be relevant to scholars interested in the history of economic thought economic history and Chinese studies

Development History Of Ancient Chinese Glass Technology, 2021-02-04 Worldwide research on ancient glass began in the early 20th century A consensus has been reached in the community of Archaeology that the first manmade or synthetic glasses based on archaeological findings originated in the Middle East during the 5000 3000 s BC By contrast the manufacturing technology of pottery and ceramics were well developed in ancient China The earliest pottery and ceramics dates back to the Shang Dynasty the Zhou Dynasty 1700 BC 770 BC while the earliest ancient glass artifacts unearthed in China dates back to the Western Han Dynasty Utilizing the state of the art analytical and spectroscopic methods the recent findings demonstrate that China had already developed its own glassmaking technology at latest since 200 BC There are two schools of viewpoint on the origin of ancient Chinese glass The more common one believes that ancient Chinese glass originated from the import of glassmaking technology from the West as a result of Sino West trade exchanges in the Western Han Dynasty 206 BC 25 AD The other scientifically demonstrates that homemade ancient Chinese glass with unique domestic formula containing both PbO and BaO were made as early as in the Pre Qin Period or even the Warring States Period 770 BC 221 BC known as Yousha or Faience This English version of the previously published Chinese book entitled Development History of Ancient Chinese Glass Technology is for universities and research institutes where various research and educational activities of ancient glass and history are conducted With 18 chapters the scope of this book covers very detailed information on scientifically based findings of ancient Chinese glass development and imports and influence of foreign glass products as well as influence of the foreign glass manufacturing processes through the trade exchanges along the Silk Road s
