Western and Frontier Film and Television Credits 1903-1995 Harris M. Lentz, 1996 Gunsmoke Over the Atlantic Jack Coombe, 2008-12-18 On April 12 1861 the Civil War began when shots were fired on an unfinished fort in Charleston Harbor From that thunderous opening salvo the naval battles to control the Atlantic coast that followed daring savage and often deadly were not only crucial in determining the outcome of the war and the fate of a nation but would change the face of naval warfare forever GUNSMOKE OVER THE ATLANTIC Historian Jack D Coombe author of the critically acclaimed Thunder Along the Mississippi and Gunfire Around the Gulf combines brilliant research with a novelist's flair for re-creation to put us directly into the action of the Civil War on river on shore and at sea In this vivid account we experience the soul gnawing terror of a bombardment the claustrophobic confines of a still unproven submarine and the smoke choked chaos of a harbor in the grips of a full bore naval engagement between two desperate enemies Coombe focuses on the Civil War as it was fought along the Atlantic coast a fierce contest of blockaders and blockade runners ironclads wood hulled battleships land cannon submarines and the first underwater antiship weapons For the North the challenge was to implement a blockade over 3 500 miles of Confederate coastline from Virginia to Texas To do so they would have to modernize an ineffective and outdated U S Navy fallen into incompetence and disrepair For the South the challenge was to create a fledgling navy from whatever meager resources were at hand The Confederacy patched together a navy of river runners and converted battleships turned cornfields into shipyards and put the first ironclad battleship into action And it was the South that introduced the new concept of underwater weaponry sending spar torpedoes mines submarines and a few incredibly brave men willing to deploy them into battle against the North Gunsmoke over the Atlantic chronicles the key engagements from the Monitor and the Virginia dueling at Hampton Roads to the ill fated campaign against Fort Fisher Along the way we meet a remarkable cast of naval strategists and warriors on both sides of the battle witness the crucial often deadly role played by the weather and the sea itself and get a vivid view of such important events as the first amphibious landing in history at Cape Hatteras in 1861 An important work for students of the Civil War and of naval history this book fills in missing pieces of America's most tragic war and shows why when the guns finally fell silent a new era had begun Four years after the fall of Fort Sumter a once divided country had the beginnings of the most powerful navy in the world The Making of The Magnificent Seven Brian Hannan,2015-05-11 The story behind The Magnificent Seven could have been a movie in itself It had everything actors strike writers strike Mexican government interference and a row between the screenwriters that left one removing his name from the credits all under the lingering gloom of post McCarthy era Hollywood A flop on release it later became a box office hit This book tells the behind the scenes story how Yul Brynner became the biggest independent producer in Hollywood why John Sturges was not the first choice after Brynner surrendered the director's chair why Sturges quit the truth about the Mirisch Company producers the details of the film's botched release and unlikely redemption the creation of Elmer Bernstein's classic score and how internecine fighting prevented the making of the television series in 1963 Myths about Steve McQueen his feud with Brynner and the scene stealing antics of the cast are debunked A close examination of the various screenplay drafts and the writers source material Akira Kurosawa's Seven Samurai shows who wrote what Extensive analysis of Sturges' directorial work is provided Ladies of the Western Michael G. Fitzgerald,Boyd Magers,2015-08-01 This work features interviews with 51 leading ladies who starred in B westerns A westerns and television westerns Some were well known and others were not but they all have fascinating stories to tell and they talk candidly about their careers and the many difficulties that went along with their jobs Back then conditions were often severe locations were often harsh and pay was often minimal The actresses were sometimes the only females on location and they had to provide their own wardrobe and do their own make up as well as discourage the advances of over affectionate co stars Despite these difficulties most of the women interviewed for this agree that they had fun Claudia Barrett Virginia Carroll Francis Dee Lisa Gaye Marie Harmon Kathleen Hughes Linda Johnson Ruta Lee Colleen Miller Gigi Perreau Ann Rutherford Ruth Terry and June Vincent are among the 51 actresses interviewed The BFI Companion to the Western British Film Institute,1988
