The Arabs and the West Abdulla Mohammed Sindi,1999 The Middle East, Abstracts and Index ,2007 Arab American Almanac ,1984 The Journal of Historical Review ,2000 The Persian Gulf and the West Charles Kupchan,2011-02-25 This volume provides a broadly comparative and historical re examination of the fundamental strategic dilemmas that confront the Western world in the Persian Gulf region This systematic study of how the West has defined and dealt with its security interests in this region reveals three central strategic dilemmas strategy versus capability globalism versus regionalism and unilateralism versus collectivism The first part of the book focuses on US policy with particular emphasis on the Iranian Revolution and the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan The author explains why there has been a persistent gap between American perceptions of the Middle East and the political and strategic realities of the region The second part of the book examines the frustrated efforts of NATO members to form a cooperative response to their collective interests in the region Islam Instrumentalized Jean-Philippe Platteau,2017-06-06 This book challenges the widespread view that Islam is a reactionary religion that defends tradition against modernity and individual freedom Jean Philippe Platteau shows how Islam is vulnerable to political manipulation and how the threat of religious extremism is especially high because Islam is not organized as a centralized church Islamism and the West Uriya Shavit,2013-11-26 Offering a unique analysis of Islamist ideology Islamism and the West attempts to explain how and why mainstream Islamist leaders have for the past century developed and canonized theories which depict theWest as engaged in a sophisticated conspiracy to undermine Muslim identity by cultural means while morallycollapsing and yearning for the spiritual salvation brought by Muslim migrants This book demonstrates how seemingly triumphalist Islamist writings served in fact to legitimize pragmatic concessions undertaken by Islamists from cooperating with regimes allied with the West to encouraging Muslim migration to Christian lands Following the Arab Spring and with Islamism becoming a dominant force in Middle Eastern politics Islamism and the West is an essential reading for the understanding of a region in transition Providing new insights on familiar concepts including cultural imperialism liberal democracy and civilisational decline this book will be of use to students of Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies Political Science Migration Studies and Cultural Studies Ancient Indian Astronomy and Contributions of Samanta Chandra Sekhar L. Satpathy,2003 Samanta Chandra Sekhar 1835 1904 occupies a special position in Ancient Indian Astronomy being the last link in a long chain of illustrious astronomers commencing with Aryabhata 5th century AD The book describes how he identified errors accumulated over the ages eradicated them and brought the subject to final perfection The discovery of the three anomalies in the motion of the moon hiking of the Earth Sun distance by more than ten times the value taken by his predecessors and his novel planetary model with heliocentric motion of the planets are some of his major contributions How astronomy developed in ancient civilizations of the world and the frontier topics in astrophysics like Dark Matter etc discussed in a few articles help in developing an integral perspective of

 The Western Islamic World, Eleventh to Eighteenth Centuries Maribel Fierro, 2010-11-04 Volume 2 of The New Cambridge History of Islam is devoted to the history of the Western Islamic lands from the political fragmentation of the eleventh century to the beginnings of European colonialism towards the end of the eighteenth century The volume embraces a vast area from al Andalus and North Africa to Arabia and the lands of the Ottomans In the first four sections scholars all leaders in their particular fields chart the rise and fall and explain the political and religious developments of the various independent ruling dynasties across the region including famously the Almohads the Fatimids and Mamluks and of course the Ottomans The final section of the volume explores the commonalities and continuities that united these diverse and geographically disparate communities through in depth analyses of state formation conversion taxation scholarship and the Western Barbary Sir John Hay Drummond-Hay, 1891 Islam and Colonialism Will Myer, 2003-08-27 Tracing the development of western thought about Central Asia this book argues that for historical and political reasons Central Asia was seen as being in a colonial relationship with Russia Consequently an anti colonial revolution in Asia was seen as the greatest threat to the USSR The book questions the suitability of the colonial model for understanding the region s recent political history and challenges many of the assumptions which underlay the adoption of such a model and examines how this one interpretation came to dominate western discourse to the virtual exclusion of all others American Book Publishing Record R.R. Bowker Company, 1978 Science Journalism in the Arab World Abdullah Alhuntushi, Jairo Lugo-Ocando, 2023-01-01 This book examines the main issues and challenges that science journalism faces in the MENA region while analyzing how journalists in these countries cover science and engage with scientists Most countries in the Middle East and North Africa region have set an ambitious goal for 2030 to transform their societies and become knowledge economies This means modernizing institutions and encouraging people to embrace Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics as part of their daily lives This books claims that the main vehicle to achieve this goal is science news reporting as it continues to be the main platform to disseminate scientific knowledge to the general public Simultaneously it is also poorly equipped to achieve this task Interviewing dozens of journalists the authors looked at specific areas such as the gender divide and its effects on science news reporting as well as the role of religion and culture in shaping journalism as a political institution The authors conclude that traditional normative assumptions as to why science reporting does not live up to expectations need to be reviewed in light of other more structural problems such as lack of skills and specialization in science communication in the region In so doing the book sets out to understand the past present and future of science news in one of the most challenging regions in the world for journalists The Arab Nahda as Popular Entertainment ,2023-11-16 What was popular entertainment like for everyday Arab societies in Middle Eastern cities during the long nineteenth century In what ways did caf culture theatre illustrated periodicals cinema cabarets and festivals serve as key forms of popular entertainment for Arabic speaking audiences many of whom were uneducated and striving to contend with modernity s anxiety inducing realities Studies on the 19th to mid 20th century s transformative cultural movement known as the Arab nahda renaissance have largely focussed on concerns with nationalism secularism and language often told from the perspective of privileged groups Highlighting overlooked aspects of this movement this book shifts the focus away from elite circles to quotidian audiences Its ten contributions range in scope from music and visual media to theatre and popular fiction Paying special attention to networks of movement and exchange across Arab societies in Lebanon Syria Egypt Iraq and Morocco this book heeds the call for translocal transnational cultural histories while contributing to timely global studies on gender sexuality and morality Focusing on the often marginalized frequenters of caf s artist studios cinemas nightclubs and the streets it expands the remit of who participated in the nahda and how they did In The Shadows of Glories Past John W. Livingston,2018-02-01 The title of this volume implies two things the greatness of the scientific tradition that Muslims had lost and the power of the West in whose threatening shadow reformers now labored to modernize in order to defend themselves against those very powers they were taking as models Copernicus and Darwin were the names that dominated the debate on science whose arguments and rebuttals were published mainly in the religious and secular journals in Cairo and Beirut from the 1870s Analysis and interpretation of this literature shows the hope that Arab reformers had of duplicating the Japanese success followed by the despair when success was denied A cultural malaise festered from generations of despair defeat and foreign occupation and this feeling transmogrified after 1967 to a psychosis in a significant number of secular writers educators and religious reformers The great debate on assimilating science was turned inward where defensive mechanisms of denial spun out perversions of science the Quran becoming a thesaurus of science and a more extreme derivative of that something called Islamic Science arising as an alternate science that was to be in harmony with the Quran Shari a and Muslim belief This volume reveals the undermining effect of European imperialism on western oriented religious reformers and secular intellectuals for whom science and political reform went together and concludes with a chapter on the state of science in contemporary Muslim societies and the efforts to institutionalize science before the upheavals of 2011 so as to bring to life an authentic and indigenous culture that would sustain scientific study and research as autonomous pursuits Islamic Dynasties of the Arab East Abdul Ali,1996 This volume contains indepth comprehensive studies on five such islamic dynasties of great historical importance namely the Fatimids the Ayyubids the Mamluks the Rasulids and the Zaydis It is hoped that this illuminating and scholarly work will not only cater to the needs of students and scholars of Arab Islamic history and culture but also serve as an authentic reference book on the subject Western Barbary John H.
