The Armchair Detective Spring 1987 Vol 20 No 2:

The Armchair Detective, 1991 The Baker Street Journal, 1986 Clues: A Journal of Detection, Vol. 36, No. 1 (Spring 2018) Elizabeth Foxwell, 2018-03-23 For over two decades Clues has included the best scholarship on mystery and detective fiction With a combination of academic essays and nonfiction book reviews it covers all aspects of mystery and detective fiction material in print television and movies As the only American scholarly journal on mystery fiction Clues is essential reading for literature and film students and researchers popular culture aficionados librarians and mystery authors fans and critics around the globe Chinese Justice, the Fiction Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2000 This is a full length study of Chinese crime fiction in all eras ancient modern and contemporary It is also the first book to apply legal scholars law and literature inquiry to the rich field of Chinese legal and literary culture The Annotated Innocence of Father Brown G. K. Chesterton, 2012-04-26 Father Brown an ordinary priest whose unremarkable exterior conceals extraordinary crime solving ability is celebrated for his solutions to metaphysical mysteries a genre perfected by his creator G K Chesterton More than lighthearted comedies built around puzzling crimes these superbly written tales contain deeply perceptive philosophical reflections The Innocence of Father Brown 1911 was the first collection of stories featuring the ecclesiastical sleuth and is widely considered the best In this annotated edition of the collection the Chesterton scholar Martin Gardner provides detailed notes and background information on various aspects of such stories as The Blue Cross The Secret Garden The Invisible Man The Hammer of God The Eye of Apollo and seven more as well as an informative introduction and an extensive bibliography Included also are eight illustrations reproduced from the first edition The result is an indispensable companion for all Chesterton enthusiasts and a perfect introduction for anyone who has yet to meet the incomparable Father Brown

The Story of Jazz Justine Tally, 2001 Since its publication in 1992 Jazz probably Toni Morrison's most difficult novel to date has elicited a wide array of critical response Many of these analyses while both thoughtful and thought provoking have provided only partial or inherently inconclusive interpretations The title and certain of the author's own pronouncements have led other critics to focus on the music itself both as medium and aesthetic support for the narration Choosing an entirely different approach for The Story of Jazz Justine Tally further develops her hypothesis first elaborated in her study of Paradise that the Morrison trilogy is undergirded by the relationship of history memory and story and discusses jazz not as the music but as a metaphor for language and storytelling Taking her cue from the author's epigraph for the novel she discusses the relevance of storytelling to contemporary critics in many different fields explains Morrison's choice of the hard boiled detective genre as a ghost text for her novel and guides the reader through the intricacies of Bakhtinian theory in order to elucidate and ground her interpretation of this important text finally entering into a chapter by chapter analysis of the novel which leads to a surprising conclusion The Dark Side of G.K. Chesterton John C. Tibbetts, 2021-10-18 This is a critical study of the great British man of letters G K Chesterton devoted to the novels stories and essays that explore the darker fringes of his wild imagination Everything is different in the dark wrote Chesterton perhaps you don't know how terrible a truth that is Chesterton's use of the theme of gargoyles provides the thematic structure of the book It covers the detective stories of Father Brown and others the locked rooms and miracle crimes in his writing his status as a science fiction writer and the riddles and paradoxes of three works Job The Man Who Was Thursday and the play The Surprise This volume also includes an interlude about Chesterton and Jorge Luis Borges and a robust appendix including interviews about the formation of Ignatius Press's Collected Chesterton Perplexing Plots David Bordwell, 2023-01-17 Nominated 2024 Edgar Allan Poe Award in the category of best critical biographical Mystery Writers of America Shortlisted 2024 Agatha Awards Best Mystery Nonfiction Malice Domestic Posthumous Winner 2023 IFCA Book Prize International Crime Fiction Association Narrative innovation is typically seen as the domain of the avant garde However techniques such as nonlinear timelines multiple points of view and unreliable narration have long been part of American popular culture How did forms and styles once regarded as difficult become familiar to audiences In Perplexing Plots David Bordwell reveals how crime fiction plays and films made unconventional narrative mainstream He shows that since the nineteenth century detective stories and suspense thrillers have allowed ambitious storytellers to experiment with narrative Tales of crime and mystery became a training ground where audiences learned to appreciate artifice These genres demand a sophisticated awareness of storytelling conventions they play games with narrative form and toy with audience expectations Bordwell examines how writers and directors have pushed pulled and collaborated with their audiences to change popular storytelling He explores the plot engineering of figures such as Raymond Chandler Agatha Christie Dashiell Hammett Patricia Highsmith Alfred Hitchcock Dorothy Sayers and Quentin Tarantino and traces how mainstream storytellers and modernist experimenters influenced one another's work A sweeping kaleidoscopic account written in a lively conversational style Perplexing Plots offers an ambitious new understanding of how movies literature theater and popular culture have evolved over the past century
