The Art Of George Milpurrruru:

The Art of George Milpurrruru George Milpurrruru, National Gallery of Australia, 1993 Catalogue to accompany retrospective exhibition of the work of one of the major bark painters in Arnhem Land covers period 1975 1992 a time when Milpurrruru came to prominence in a traditional context and in the public domain aims to present Milpurrrurus own view of his work and his life the catalogue is presented as a commentary told by Milpurrruru and other members of his family includes description of Ganalbingu people their environment and creation stories Exhibition ,1993 Exhibition of bark paintings from the collection of the National Gallery of Australia in the years 1975 1992 includes a note on the Ganalbingu the mapgpie goose people George Milpurrruru , Aboriginal Art Wally Caruana, 2025-03-20 This concise survey showcases the incredible diverse work of Aboriginal and Torres Strait artists Building on traditions that stretch back at least 50 000 years these artists have long worked in a variety of contexts from the sacred and secret realm of ceremony to more public spheres From isolated beginnings to post colonialism and the present Wally Caruana explains how Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art has continually developed and responded to change and considers the impact of urban living the growth of local art centres that support the artists in these communities and the recognition of women artists This new edition has been expanded and updated to include and reflect on important artists who have emerged in the last decade with a focus on the burgeoning of activity in the Southern Desert region Queensland and the Torres Strait Islands all testament to Aboriginal arts continued dynamism and vitality The Making of Indigenous Australian Contemporary Art Marie Geissler, 2021-01-06 This publication brings together existing research as well as new data to show how Arnhem Land bark painting was critical in the making of Indigenous Australian contemporary art and the self determination agendas of Indigenous Australians It identifies how when and what the shifts in the reception of the art were especially as they occurred within institutional exhibition displays Despite key studies already being published on the reception of Aboriginal art in this area the overall process is not well known or always considered while the focus has tended to be placed on Western Desert acrylic paintings This text however represents a refocus and addresses this more fully by integrating Arnhem Land bark painting into the contemporary history of Aboriginal art The trajectory moves from its understanding as a form of ethnographic art to seeing it as conceptual art and appreciating it for its cultural agency and contemporaneity The Oxford Handbook of International Cultural Heritage Law Francesco Francioni, Ana Filipa Vrdoljak, 2020-07-23 This Handbook provides a cutting edge study of the fast developing field of international law on the protection of cultural heritage by taking stock of the recent developments and of the core concepts and current challenges The legal protection of cultural heritage has come under renewed focus from the international community and states since the 1990s This is evidenced by the adoption of a range of international instruments Countries are also enacting cultural heritage legislation or overhauling existing laws within their own national territory Contributions address the protection of immovable and movable tangible and intangible cultural heritage in peacetime and in the event of armed conflict as well as the interaction between specific regimes of cultural heritage protection with other fields of international law including international criminal law human rights and humanitarian law environmental law international trade investments and intellectual property The last part of the Handbook covers diverse regional systems of heritage protection

Intellectual Property Needs and Expectations of Traditional Knowledge Holders World Intellectual Property Organization,2001 FFM to West Africa Cultural Law James A. R. Nafziger,Robert Kirkwood Paterson,Alison Dundes Renteln,2010-11 A collection on cultural law that demonstrates efficacy of comparative international and indigenous law in the context of culture related issues Protecting Indigenous Art Colin Golvan,2024-09-24 There is the country non Indigenous people can see and then there is the country Indigenous people see that the rest of us can barely comprehend but glimpse through the vivid colours shapes and imagery of their artworks and their visual recounting of ancient stories and settings The unauthorised use of Indigenous artworks is a global industry that damages cultural integrity and harms the livelihoods of artists and their communities While the western idea of private or individual ownership can be at significant odds with tenets of Indigenous ownership and control copyright remains one of the primary tools available to protect Indigenous visual artists from fakes cultural threat and appropriation In Protecting Indigenous Art leading intellectual property barrister Colin Golvan provides a privileged insight into how legal protection of Indigenous art offers unique opportunities to empower Indigenous artists and their communities Golvan gives a first hand account of landmark legal campaigns such as the unauthorised reproduction of prominent Bulun Bulun artworks on T shirts the seminal carpets case the campaign to recover the copyright of Arrernte artist Albert Namatjira and the extraordinary story of the Aboriginal flag Altogether we get an understanding of the importance of protection for this much loved form of artistic and cultural expression

Djalkiri Rebecca J. Conway,2021-01-01 The patterns and designs were laid down on the country and in the minds of Yol u by the ancestral beings at the time of creation They have been passed on through the generations from our great grandparents to our grandparents to our parents to us They are the reality of this country They tell us all who we are Djambawa Marawili AM Djalkiri are footprints ancestral imprints on the landscape that provide the Yol u people of eastern Arnhem Land with their philosophical foundations This book describes how Yol u artists and communities keep these foundations strong and how they have worked with museums to develop a collaborative community led approach to the collection and display of their artwork It includes contributions from Yol u elders and artists as well as Indigenous and non Indigenous historians and curators Together they explore how the relationship between communities and museums has changed over time From the early 20th century anthropologists and other collectors acquired artworks and objects and took photographs in Arnhem Land that became part of collections at the University of Sydney Later generations of Yol u have sought out these materials and with museum curators proposed a new type of relationship based on a deeper respect for Yol u intellectual frameworks and a commitment to their central role in curation This book tells some of their stories Featuring over 300 colour images Djalkiri is published in conjunction with a large scale exhibition of Yol u art and culture at the University of Sydney s new Chau Chak Wing Museum opening in November 2020 Spanning almost 100 years of our shared history these collections can expand our understanding of the past and help us to shape the future

Cultural Heritage Issues James A.R. Nafziger, Ann M. Nicgorski, 2009-12-07 The global community dependent as always on the cooperation of nation states is gradually learning to address the serious threats to the cultural heritage of our disparate but shared civilizations The legacy of conquest colonialization and commerce looms large in defining and explaining these threats The essays contained in this challenging volume are based on papers presented at an international conference on cultural heritage issues that took place at Willamette University The conference sought to generate fresh ideas about these cultural heritage issues offer a good sense of their nuances and complexities and reveal how culture law and ethics can interact complement diverge and contradict one another This book seeks to accomplish these purposes What it explores is the fact that along with an emerging blend of adversarial and collaborative processes to address cultural heritage issues has come a substantial broadening of the normative framework in recent years This framework now spans a welter of issues ranging from the creation of cultural safety zones during armed conflict to the ongoing rectification of genocidal conquest during the European Holocaust and World War II to the treatment of shipwrecks and their cargo to the protection of folklore and other intangibles to the promotion of traditional knowledge in the interest of biological diversity All of these topics are controversial as are the legal instruments that incorporate them but the issues they embrace are vital to us all whether our viewpoint is in the global arena a national legislature a courtroom a classroom an archaeological site or a museum

Mediating Modernisms Ruth B. Phillips, Norman Vorano, 2025-08-29 Mediating Modernisms explores the fertile exchanges between Indigenous artists living in colonial societies and the mid twentieth mediators who carried ideas of aesthetic modernism and modernist primitivism into these worlds

Law, Knowledge, Culture Jane E. Anderson, 2009-01-01 Combining unique practical experience with a sophisticated historical and theoretical framework this impressive work offers a new basis to explore indigenous intellectual property In this wide ranging and imaginative study Anderson has laid the groundwork for future scholarship in the field Hopefully this work will set a new trajectory for how this important topic is approached and advanced with indigenous people Brad Sherman University of Queensland Australia This informative book investigates how indigenous and traditional knowledge has been produced and positioned within intellectual property law and the effects of this position in both national and international jurisdictions Drawing upon critical cultural and legal theory Jane Anderson illustrates how the problems facing the inclusion of indigenous knowledge resonate with tensions that characterise intellectual property as a whole She explores the extent that the emergence of indigenous interests in intellectual property law is a product of shifting politics within law changing political environments governmental intervention through strategic reports and innovative instances of individual agency The author draws on long term practical experience of working with indigenous people and communities whilst engaging with ongoing debates in the realm of legal theory Detailing a comprehensive view on how indigenous knowledge has emerged as a discrete category within intellectual property law this book will benefit researchers academics and students dealing with law in the fields of IP human rights property and environmental law It will also appeal to anthropologists sociologists philosophers and cultural theorists

Research Handbook on the History of Copyright Law Isabella Alexander,H. Tomás Gómez-Arostegui,2016-03-25 There has been an explosion of interest in recent years regarding the origin and of intellectual property law The study of copyright history in particular has grown remarkably in the last twenty years with a flurry of activity in the last ten Crucial to this activity has been a burgeoning focus on unpublished primary sources enabling new and stimulating insights This Handbook takes stock of the field of copyright history as it stands today as well as examining potential developments in the future

Roads Cross Rover Thomas,Kim Akerman,National Gallery of Australia,1994 Rover Thomas spent most of his working life as stockman in the Eastern Kimberley north western Australia He started painting regularly from 1981 quickly gaining notice for his vigorous vibrant work with its flowing forms and visual textures which gave Europeans a new perspective on Aboriginal art and depiction of country The text shows how Thomas s personal style uses both plan view and profiles often simultaneously and how his delineating of shapes by white dots is deeply imbued with the traditional conventions of Kimberley rock art and body painting Materiality Daniel Miller,2005-07-18 A collection of essays rethinking the current uses of material culture study in anthropology including engagements with art science and technology

Waterlow Killings Pamela Burton,2012-11-01 Anthony Waterlow left his decrepit room in a run down boarding house at 4 45 p m on Monday 9 November 2009 By 6 p m the 42 year old was seen leaving another home his sister Chloe s in Randwick He left behind her slaughtered body and that of their father celebrated art curator Nick Waterlow The pair had been stabbed multiple times in front of Chloe s three young children The Waterlow Killings delves beneath the public face of a successful and affluent family to reveal private suffering that even their closest friends could not have guessed The story takes us deep into the world of musical literary and visual artists who defy conventionality push boundaries and become international celebrities But behind that apparently glamorous life of the Waterlow s with British aristocratic blood lines and Nick s art world fame lay a story of love despair and torment Anthony Waterlow s descent into the pits of a mental darkness began at a young age Like too many of those who suffer from a serious mental illness he fell through the cracks The Waterlow Killings ultimately highlights the issues that confront families coping with mental illness and the failings of the health systems in times of need Copyright and Collective Authorship Daniela Simone,2019-05-02 Addresses the difficult question of how to determine the authorship and ownership of copyright in highly collaborative works
