The Art of Living Alexander Nehamas,1998-09-01 For much of its history philosophy was not merely a theoretical discipline but a way of life an art of living This practical aspect of philosophy has been much less dominant in modernity than it was in ancient Greece and Rome when philosophers of all stripes kept returning to Socrates as a model for living The idea of philosophy as an art of living has survived in the works of such major modern authors as Montaigne Nietzsche and Foucault Each of these writers has used philosophical discussion as a means of establishing what a person is and how a worthwhile life is to be lived In this wide ranging brilliantly written account Alexander Nehamas provides an incisive reevaluation of Socrates place in the Western philosophical tradition and shows the importance of Socrates for Montaigne Nietzsche and Foucault Why does each of these philosophers each fundamentally concerned with his own originality return to Socrates as a model The answer lies in the irony that characterizes the Socrates we know from the Platonic dialogues Socratic irony creates a mask that prevents a view of what lies behind How Socrates led the life he did what enabled or inspired him is never made evident No tenets are proposed Socrates remains a silent and ambiguous character forcing readers to come to their own conclusions about the art of life This Nehamas shows is what allowed Montaigne Nietzsche and Foucault to return to Socrates as a model without thereby compelling them to imitate him This highly readable erudite study argues for the importance of the tradition within Western philosophy that is best described as the art of living and casts Montaigne Nietzsche and Foucault as the three major modern representatives of this tradition Full of original ideas and challenging associations this work will offer new ways of thinking about the philosophers Nehamas discusses and about the discipline of philosophy itself

Select Quotations on the Art of Living Tom Lovett,2024-03-10 Why do liberals and conservatives differ so consistently on such varied issues Why do people fight so bitterly over political and religious issues Don't our shared human interests outweigh our differences Tom Lovett looked for answers in the natural sciences in the social sciences and in the humanities Over time he linked key knowledge from those three sources into a theory of the art of living a theory that honors our shared human interests Select Quotations on the Art of Living 2024 outlines that theory and uses quotations from eminent authors to illustrate it His earlier book Creating Beautiful Lives 2020 presents details of the theory In the proposed theory we learn skills in the art of living and create beautiful lives by doing three things Seeking the ancient ideals beauty truth and goodness Essential dictionary meanings of those three words can help us seek them Seeking those ideals while engaging in our most basic behavior Like other animals we create living space obtain food eat court have sex parent groom play build form social bonds fight flee and sleep Seeking those ideals through art science and religion Unlike other animals we can modify our behavior with artistic skill with scientific knowledge and with religious devotion and inspiration Art can be a path toward beauty science a path toward truth and religion a path toward goodness Each path can eventually lead toward all three We become artistic by refining a skill sufficiently We become scientific by evaluating a theory rigorously and finding it adequately reliable or false We become religious by devoting ourselves thoroughly to an activity idea group or interest and or by joining an organized religion We can learn everyday forms and specialized forms of art science and religion Everyday forms modify our basic behavior and everyone can learn them The specialized forms are fine art painting sculpture writing singing music dance theater and many more social and natural science and organized religion Everyone can value those specialties and choose whether and how to participate in them The proposed theory reconciles realism about our animal nature with idealism about our highest human potential The art of living becomes our way of life and the human species becomes one human family We live in peace and harmony with one another with other species and with nature We are at home on the earth and in the universe The Art of Living Well

Luigi Cornaro,1905 Aging and the Art of Living Jan Baars,2012-08-20 In this deeply considered meditation on aging in Western culture Jan Baars argues that in today s world living longer does not necessarily mean living better He contends that there has been an overall loss of respect for aging to the point that understanding and dealing with aging people has become a process focused on the decline of potential and the advance of disease rather than on the accumulation of wisdom and the creation of new skills To make his case Baars compares and contrasts the works of such modern era thinkers as Foucault Heidegger and Husserl with the thought of Plato Aristotle Sophocles Cicero and other Ancient and Stoic philosophers He shows how people in the classical period less able to control health hazards had a far better sense of the provisional nature of living which led to a philosophical and religious emphasis on cultivating the art of living and the idea of wisdom This is not to say that modern society s assessments of aging are insignificant but they do need to balance an emphasis on the measuring of age with the concept of living in time Gerontologists philosophers and students will find Baars discussion to be a powerful perceptive conversation starter W Andrew Achenbaum author of Older Americans Vital Communities The Art of Living Long

Van Gogh and the Art of Living Anton Wessels, 2013-08-09 Vincent van Gogh believed that one had to learn to read just as one had to learn to see and learn to live Van Gogh conveyed a message in his work about the path that he himself followed that was more true to life the path that human beings walk in their turbulent existence the pilgrimage along the various stages of the road of life He does not speak about the meaning of life but about the true art of living It is fascinating to see and read the moving way in which he wrestled with the deep human questions of the whence why and whither of life He did not see himself doing this on his own but acknowledged kindred spirits and allies in preachers preacher poets painters writers and other artists who also attempted to find their own way through life in a similar fashion Van Gogh was aware like no other of his duty and task in life his vocation as human being and artist That means that he was well acquainted with loneliness fear and despair including suicidal tendencies Nevertheless he understood himself as cut out for faith rather than resignation Human beings follow their life's path through storms and dangers on land and on sea where the star of the sea the Virgin Mary helps them and provides light Van Gogh rejected the unhealthy sickly forms of religion electing instead to embrace authentic forms of piety
