Growing up in Columbus Ohio in the 1990s Hanif Abdurraqib witnessed a golden era of basketball one in which legends like LeBron James were forged and countless others weren't. His lifelong love of the game leads Abdurraqib into a lyrical historical and emotionally rich exploration of what it means to make it who we think deserves success the tension between excellence and expectation and the very notion of role models all of which he expertly weaves together with intimate personal storytelling. Here is where I would like to tell you about the form on my father's jump shot. Abdurraqib writes The truth though is that I saw my father shoot a basketball only one time. There's Always This Year is a triumph brimming with joy pain solidarity comfort outrage and hope. No matter the subject of his keen focus whether it's basketball or music or performance Hanif Abdurraqib's exquisite writing is always poetry always profound and always a clarion call to radically reimagine how we think about our culture our country and ourselves.
