The Emancipation Posse The First Three Years:

The Emancipation Posse 'Papa Blues' Robbins, 2004-12-01 They came to end the slave trade in the African nation of the Sudan Five resurrected beings Dru Caitlan Fong Granny and Quench united against an aberrant custom long thought extinct They will discover that power is no panacea nor is it a deterrent to the bigotry peculiar to that particular institution This collection is the story of their struggle The Emancipation Posse deals not in a hypothetical future but the here and now In a land without hope they wrestle with alternatives to the endless cycle of civil conflict and how best to prepare the children of war for the peace they will have to build The American slave trade also takes a few well deserved knocks through the eyes of its staunch opponent John Quincy Adams and its reluctant political advocate John Tyler President and Confederate Battle Cry Maisha Washington, 2016-10-15 Battle Cry The Awakening is a novel that targets Young Adults interested in Science Fiction and fantasy based Urban Tales It retells the experiences of six African American girls growing up in a public housing project during the political historical period from the 1950 s through the 1960 s in New York City The story tells the youth s experiences during 4 critical periods of social upheaval Encyclopedia of Emancipation and Abolition in the Transatlantic World Junius P. Rodriguez, 2015-03-26 The struggle to abolish slavery is one of the grandest quests and central themes of modern history These movements for freedom have taken many forms from individual escapes violent rebellions and official proclamations to mass organizations decisive social actions and major wars Every emancipation movement whether in Europe Africa or the Americas has profoundly transformed the country and society in which it existed This unique A Z encyclopedia examines every effort to end slavery in the United States and the transatlantic world It focuses on massive broad based movements as well as specific incidents events and developments and pulls together in one place information previously available only in a wide variety of sources While it centers on the United States the set also includes authoritative accounts of emancipation and abolition in Europe Africa the Caribbean and Latin America The Encyclopedia of Emancipation and Abolition provides definitive coverage of one of the most significant experiences in human history It features primary source documents maps illustrations cross references a comprehensive chronology and bibliography and specialized indexes in each volume and covers a wide range of individuals and the major themes and ideas that motivated them to confront and abolish slavery The Lettered Indian Brooke Larson, 2023-11-17 Bringing into dialogue the fields of social history Andean ethnography and postcolonial theory The Lettered Indian maps the moral dilemmas and political stakes involved in the protracted struggle over Indian literacy and schooling in the Bolivian Andes Brooke Larson traces Bolivia s major state efforts to educate its unruly Indigenous masses at key junctures in the twentieth century While much scholarship has focused on the Indian boarding school and other Western schemes of racial assimilation Larson interweaves state centered and imperial episodes of Indigenous education reform with vivid ethnographies of Aymara peasant protagonists and their extraordinary pro school initiatives Exploring the field of vernacular literacy practices and peasant political activism she examines the transformation of the rural alphabet school from an instrument of the civilizing state into a tool of Aymara cultural power collective representation and rebel activism From the metaphorical threshold of the rural school Larson rethinks the politics of race and indigeneity nation and empire in postcolonial Bolivia and beyond Encyclopedia of Race and Crime Helen Taylor Greene, Shaun L.
