About the author by Dr. Donald E. Moss

The youngest of six children, Mrs. Wellein was born of a Hawaiian mother and a Hawaiian-Chinese-Filipino father in Honolulu, Hawaii. While all the children played against tremendous big tropical troubles and community organizations, Marsha achieved her father's dream of higher education through a strong local production.

Using a four-year scholarship, she completed her bachelor's degree in Drama and Theater with a minor in Spanish, French, English and Ancient languages from the University of Hawaii. After working during the war years for the Navy, she moved to Hawaii in 1947 with her new young son, Geoffrey and finished her teaching degree there. After two years, she completed her master's degree in English Education at the University of Hawaii. Presently, Marsha is the English Language Teacher at Catholic Preparatory School in Honolulu. At night, she teaches French, Spanish, English to Speakers of Other Languages for Adult Basic Education.

In spite of her busy schedule, Mrs. Wellein always makes time for her two boys. They currently are both living and both pursuing higher education which she and her husband are proud to support.
