Skin Deep Cedric Herring, 2004 Shattering the myth of the colorblind society this collection of essays is a revealing examination of the ways skin tone inequality operates in America

Racialized Politics of Desire in Personal Ads Neal A. Lester, Maureen Daly Goggin, 2007-01-01 The essays in Racialized Politics of Desire in Personal Ads explore complex intersections among the social categories of race gender and sexuality within personal ads revealing a dynamic tapestry of power relations and hierarchies The ephemeral nature of personal ads their anonymity the space limitations and the linguistic encoding characteristic of the genre make it an interesting and important opportunity to witness the performative nature of identity politics

The Psychology of Skin Bleaching Christopher A.D. Charles, 2025-04-29 This book examines the controversial global phenomenon of skin bleaching It uses a social psychological approach to explain the motivations behavior and medical consequences of the practice considering why some people use products to lighten their complexion Written by a world leading expert in skin bleaching the book takes a nuanced approach to understanding skin bleaching that looks further than the standard claims of low self esteem a form of self hatred It goes beyond looking at individual personality traits to consider the cultural norms values shared social meanings and practices about race and skin color showing how shared meanings from social representation guide people s behavior in their culture The book draws predominantly on research from Jamaica but considers how skin bleaching is practised in different cultural contexts across the Americas Europe Asia and Africa Chapters consider the history of race and skin color how skin color and race are portrayed in popular culture how skin color and race form two of some people s social identities and how skin bleaching has become an established social practice in many settings It also looks at the consequences of skin bleaching and suggests policy responses that could help curb the practice The Psychology of Skin Bleaching will be highly relevant reading for students and scholars in the fields of psychology Black and Caribbean studies sociology anthropology cultural studies and health It will also be of interest to professionals including psychiatrists and public health practitioners and anyone interested in better understanding the psychological and bodily expressions of racialized discrimination and oppression

Calling of the Ais Cynthia Young, 2022-11-03 When stylish and stunning Jemma discovers century old Ais Indian artifacts on her oceanfront Florida property she is compelled to know why Incredibly she finds herself traveling back in time over three hundred years through a tragic shipwrecked voyage back to her property and back to the savage Ais Indians The handsome chief and his exotic princess are overwhelmed by this unexpected blonde fair skinned gift Jemma is forced to live among them What starts as a heathen tribal ritual binding the three evolves into an erotic sexual love triangle until history changes everything

Making Up the Difference Erynn Masi de Casanova, 2011-06-01 Globalization and economic restructuring have decimated formal jobs in developing countries pushing many women into informal employment such as direct selling of cosmetics perfume and other personal care products as a way to make up the difference between household income and expenses In Ecuador with its persistent economic crisis and few opportunities for financially and personally rewarding work women increasingly choose direct selling as a way to earn income by activating their social networks While few women earn the cars and trips that are iconic prizes in the direct selling organization many use direct selling as part of a set of household survival strategies In this first in depth study of a cosmetics direct selling organization in Latin America Erynn Masi de Casanova explores women s identities as workers including their juggling of paid work and domestic responsibilities their ideas about professional appearance and their strategies for collecting money from customers Focusing on women who work for the country s leading direct selling organization she offers fascinating portraits of the everyday lives of women selling personal care products in Ecuador s largest city Guayaquil Addressing gender relations including a look at men s direct and indirect involvement the importance of image and the social and economic context of direct selling Casanova challenges assumptions that this kind of flexible employment resolves women s work home conflicts and offers an important new perspective on women s work in developing countries
