The Kindness of Others Geshe Jampa Tegchok, 2006-01-01 Shantideva pointed out that everything good every form of happiness all positive qualities and so forth comes through the kindness of others Therefore the mind devoted to their welfare is like a wish fulfilling jewel the source of all happiness and everything good and useful in the world Just as a farmer who possesses an extremely fertile field where everything he plants always grows is very happy to have it and cherishes and takes great care of it we should feel the same way about other sentient beings that they are extremely valuable and cherish and take care of them It is interesting that whether we are Buddhist or not if we think about the great kindness of all beings it will be evident that all our happiness does indeed depend upon them In this book Khensur Rinpoche Geshe Jampa Tegchok explains how we can train our mind away from self cherishing the cause of all suffering and develop compassion the cause of everything that is good He bases his explanation on Kadampa Geshe Chekawa s classic text The Seven Point Mind Training which amongst other things teaches us how to transform problems into happiness This book is made possible by kind supporters of the Archive who like you appreciate how we make these teachings freely available in so many ways including in our website for instant reading listening or downloading and as printed and electronic books Our website offers immediate access to thousands of pages of teachings and hundreds of audio recordings by some of the greatest lamas of our time Our photo gallery and our ever popular books are also freely accessible there Please help us increase our efforts to spread the
