other side of the mountains and wound away through broad plains and by populous cities But the clouds were drawn so constantly to the snowy hills and rested so softly in the circular hollow that in time of drought and heat when all the country round was burnt up there was still rain in the little valley and its crops were so heavy and its hay so high and its apples so red and its grapes so blue and its wine so rich and its honey so sweet that it was a marvel to every one who beheld it and was commonly called the Treasure Valley The King of the Golden River ,1918
